50 dollars reward.
On Saturday night, 10th of December, 1818, was stolen out of Mr. J. A. Ward's, Rowan county, North Carolina, a likely chestnut colored HORSE, eight years old, in good order; he is a strong, powerful Horse, works well in a gig or carriage, is tolerably spirited, trots pretty well—he is about fifteen hands one inch and a half high, has some saddle marks, some white hairs on his breast occasioned by the collar, and a little white on one hind foot near the hoof. The said Horse is the property of the Rev. James Patterson presiding elder in the Yadkin district. Twenty-five dollars reward will be given to any person who will deliver said Horse to the subscriber in said county, near Honesville; and fifty dollars for the Horse and thief, or ten dollars for information so that the Horse can be obtained.
Thomas Cooper.
December 17

Committed
By the court of Rowan District, a Negro Fellow, about twenty-one or twenty-two years of age, five feet ten inches high, says his name is JIM, and belongs to a Mr. BLACK, a speculator from Virginia. The owner is requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges and take him away.
William Love, a. k. d.
