Fire in Williamston. A fire broke out in the old part of the Williamston Springs Hotel, about 2 o'clock yesterday morning, which laid waste the entire range of buildings, on that side of the street, from the rail road to the creek. We are not advised as to whether it was the work of an incendrary or the result of accident.

The Hotel is covered by insurance to the amount of $36,000. The entire loss will probably exceed $100,000, there being very little saved, and several merchants are among the suf

NEW HEAD---CHANGE OF NAME. With the present issue of our paper, we have donned a new head, and assumed the name of "The Abbeville Press," instead of "The Independent Press." The new name is, we think, equally euphonious, and in other respects preferable to the old name. It designates our "local habitation," and associates us in name as in fact, with the District with which we are identified in interest, and to whose liberal support we are so much indebted. The time honored name of "Abbeville" is one which no son of hers would willingly withhold frem his escutcheon.

The condition of our paper was never more prosperous, and we trust that in assuming the name of "Abbeville." we will have a constant reminder of past favors received, and of the present duties which we owe to our section.

THE NEW EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

The Ceremony of the Consecration of the New Episcopul Church of our Village was performed on Sunday last, by the Right Rev. Thor. F. Davis, and assisted by the Pastor, the Rev. B. Johson, and the Rev. Messis W. B. Howe, A. H. Cornish, R. W. Barnwell and B. E Habersham. The religious services of the Church commenced on Friday previous, and on this, and the succeeding days very able and excellent discourses were delivered by the Bithop and the attending Clergymen.

On Sunday the Church was crowded to its utmost capacity, and the exercises were of the most interesting character. The morning sermon was preached by the Rev. Prof. Barnwell, of the South Carolina College, from the text, "Other foundation can no man lay, than that is laid which is Lead Chairle." laid, which is Jesus Christ." It was truly a magnificent discourse, and one of the most able and eloquent that we have ever listened to-presenting an elaborate exposition of the offices of the Divine Rerdeemer in the Economy of Salvation, as the Author and Finisher of the Christian's Faith, Hope and Eternal Happiness. The Sermon would have done credit to any mind in the State, and contained many passages of great beauty and cloquence.

This window has been much admired, and is one of the finest in the State; representing the figure of Christ bearing his cross, and surrounded with many appropriate devices.

An attractive feature of the Chancel is the beautiful Marble Slab of the Communion Ta-ble, a handsome present to the Church, from the generous donor, Mr. J. D. Chalmers, of our village. Mr. Chalmers, has furnished other specimens of artistic skill in a fine Marble Baptismal Font, and an exquisitely polished Tablet, which has been erected to the memory of the late THOMAS PARKER, the founder of Trinity Church.

In a recess to the right of the Reading Desk, has been placed the New Organ-a sweet toned instrument from the well known estabtoned instrument from the well-known establishment of Mr. John Baker, of Charleston. The following message was received from His Excellency the Governor, and read by his Private Secretary, Col. Watts. It commanded the carnest attention of the House.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, ? COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 5, 1860.

Gentlemen of the Senate and the House of Representatives : The Act of Congress passed in the year 1846, enacts that "the Electors of President and Vice President shall be appointed on Tuesday next atter the first Monday of the month of November of the year in which they are to be appointed." The annual meeting of the Legislature of South Carolina, by a constitutional provision, will not take place until the fourth Monday in Novemper instant, and I have considered it my duty, inder the authority conferred upon me to convene the Legislature on extraordinary occasions, to convene you, that you may on to mor-row appoint the number of Electors of President and Vice President to which this State is entitled. Under ordinary circumstances, your duty could soon be discharged, by the election of Electors, representing the choice of the people of the State: but in view of the threaten ect of affairs, and the strong probability of the election to the Presidency of a sectio .al candidate, by a party committed to the support of measures which, if carried out, inevitably destroy our equality in the Union, and ultimately reduce the Southern States to mere province of a consolidated despotism, to be governed by a fixed maj rity in Congress, hostile to our in-stitutions, and fatally bent upon our ruin, 1 would respectfully suggest that the Legislature remain in session, and take such action as will prepare the State for any emergency that may

That an expression of the will of the people may be obtained on a question involving such momentons consequences, I would carnestly recommend, that in the event of the election of Abraham Lincoln to the Presidency, a Convention of the people of this State be immediately and the account of the people of the state of the control of the people of the state of the people of the state of the people of the state of the people of the people of the state of the people of called to consider and determine "the mode and measure of redress." My own opinions of what the Convention My own opinions of what the Convention should do are of little moment; but believing that the time has arrived when every one, how-ever humble he may be, should express his opinions in unmistakable language, I am contrained to say, that the only alternative left, in my judgment, is the secession of South Carolina from the Federal Union. The indications from many of the So thern States justify the conclusion that the secession of South Carolina will she immediately followed, if not adopted simultaneously by them, and ultimately by the entire South. The long desired co operation of he other States, having similar institutions for which the State has been waiting, seems to be nearer at hand, and, if we are true to ourselves, will soon be realized. The State has, with great unanimity, declared that she has the right peacably to seede, and no power on earth can rightfully prevent it. If, in the exercise of arbitrary power, and forgetful of the lessons of istory, the Government of the United State should attempt coercion, it will become our sol-enn flity to meet force by force; and whotever may be the decision of the Convention repre-senting the sovereignty of the State—and amenable to no earthly tribunal—shall, during the remainder of my administration, he carried out to the letter, regardless of any hazards that or the crizens of the upper portion of the life trict at Wickliffs Store, on Friday last, for the purpose of organizing a company of Minute Men, which we regret that we are unable to abortest notice, and with the greatest efficiency Every man in the State, between the ages of eighteen and forty five, should be well armed with the most effective weapons of modern warfare, and all the available means of the

EXTRAORDINARY SPEECH FROM A SOUTHERN CON RESSMAN.-Hon. Emerson Etheridge, a mem per of Congress from Tennessee, recently made speech in Indiana, and a writer to the repubican press of the North gives its substance as

"He exhorted his political friends to cast way all ideas of supporting a 'Bell' ticket in Indiana, and give their united support to Lincoln. He advised that all the efforts of the nited opposition should be directed everthow of the democratic party, which could be only be done by defeating their candidates as many States as possible. He said if he lived in Indiana he would vote for Lincoln, but as he lived in a State where his own-ticket had a chance, he would vote for Bell. This advice from a man of the position held by Mr. Etheridge in his party has great weight with the members of that party in Indiana."
