BY W. A. LEE AND HUGH WILSON.

ABBEVILLE, S. C., FRIDAY, JULY 16, 1869.

VOLUME XVII---NO. 12.

Availage ate a RUMBUGS.

We feel confident that many a readfrom the American Agriculturist the Gumbridge & Co. would entice them. Their Fac-simile U. S. Treasury sociation, Philadelphia," has taken upon himself the management of the roncous, and the immoral tone of Messrs. H. M. Johnston & Co., business. Their plan differs but little from other "Gift Lotteries." The holder must return the ticket to them person is known by any of the occupants of the building; so we infer be counterfeit money, the trade of that Mr. B. is no more reliable than . his watches. Our opinion of the above pamed watches has been sufficiently set forth Mr. E. C. Allen, Augusta, Me, is a great man. We have before as, his descriptive catafor him, how to make "thirty-six valuable and best-selling articles of the day,". This, is not all; boys and girls can do it, and do it in the evening and make from $1 to $5 a night at the business,-a "grand inducement." To those who can not go to him he offers for sale a whole batch of receipts add instructions for $2. Ah ! now we begin to smell the rat. Mr. A. wants your two dollars, and if you don't care to go the whole thing, he will send "Five Horse Tamer's secrots," for a dollar!! We advise Mr. A. to get into some other business, or won't work A person calling him-the proprietor or agent for disposing of the right to manufacture and sell self-raising flour prepared with Prof. Horsford's Patent Cream of Tartar very successful swindle was recently ansispect, advertised, the sale of a quantity of unclaimed parcels from the office of Adams Express Company, About two lundred of these paskages were sale at prices ranging from $5 to $130. When the boxes and parcels right kind I will pay you for it. Yours, resp'y, Jame Tripp." Enclosed was a very neat card photograph er ought to thank us for re-publishing of a $500 U. S. Treasury Note, and not your window-sill full already?" the following circular from Hunter & Editorial on Sundry Humbugs. Sad Co., Hinsdale, N. H.: "Confidential. to tell, similar advertisements are not My Dear Sir : We have a large stock unfrequently met with in religions of exact copies of U. S. Treasury bit of conversation that I heard, and Notes on hand, made by men skilled yet it set me a thinking. The man upon to again warn all persons against ately to dispose of, even if sacrificed. rough-no, I shall not say "rough"nominations, so accurate as to be a on the flowers. His acquaintance, Notes" are nothing but reduced pho- perfect fac-simile of the genuine U. S. who had expressed surprise at anothtographic copies of the genuine ones, Note. We will not sell a package for er flower in Tom's possession, had and uttorly worthless as money. No less than $15, upon receipt of which pulled a short pipe out of his mouth person, who has any regard for his we will send it to you; or if you do when he spoke; and no doubt his bonor, would engage to take these not wish to trust us to this amount, love of tobacco cost him much more notes from Gumbridge & Co., and we we will send it to you on receipt of than Tom's love of flowers. Then as hope our readers will remember that |85; the balance, $10, you can send to to the gain. The smoker would gain night for their fathers return: both parties in such a transaction are us as soon after you receive the pack- a dry, hot mouth, a foul breath, yelequally oulpable The man who ad- age as possible. We trust partly to low teeth, sallow skin, dull eyes, dear, he has such a nice flower, such vertises as the "Howard Medical As- your honesty to do this, at the same drowsiness and headache-that's what a beauty, in his arms! Do come and time thinking that, as you will con- his pipe would do for him, even if he see mother!" sider it to your interest to deal with did not drink. But Tom with the health of a certain class of the com- us further, you will comply with our flower would refresh its eves with its munity, and in a circular to his pa- request. After you have ordered the bloom, and his smell with its sweettients on "diet and self-management," package, any information we can ness, and he would adorn his window he makes a mess of it surely. But afford will be cheerfully given. We with its beauty, and gladden his wife this was to be expected. The treat- would prefer to have the money sent and his children by bringing them ment of the disease we consider erro- by mail, registered, as it is less trou- such a pretty gift. What innocent ble, and saves both you and us the delight would they all feel in looking some parts of the circular objection- Express charges If you desire to at it! And more than that, they Marriage After a Thirty-Three Years able The "New York Jewelers' Co- avail yourself of this opportunity you would learn something from the flowoperative Union" still keep at their must do so at once, and address us er. It would tell them of the wisdom "preliminary drawing." Messrs. C. carefully. You have our address. and love of God; how He sent these C. Havens & Co., can't you get We offer special inducements to any beautiful flowers into the world to through this preliminary business and one desirous of becoming our confi- please the eye of man: give us a taste of the regular thing? | dential Agent." Now, James Tripp, Some are getting tired of waiting! are you not ashamed of yourself? You went into a dishonest speculation New York, have gone into the lottery and got sold, and then ask us to expose those who cheated you. The best we can say of you, is, that you are a particularly mean scoundrel, and inclosing $1, within fifteen days, or we advise you to reform your shaky lose his prize. We advise all ticket morals as fast as possible. If any holders to keep their dollar and lose other fools or scoundrels get caught in their prize, for if they send their a similar trap, don't let them come money they will probably lose both. whining to us for redress; our ver-..... R. G. Barnweil, Philadelphia, is diet will be "sarv'd 'em right," and in the "oriode" watch business. The we shall publish their names, on the number given as his office is that of a principle that the receiver is as bad flourishing daily paper, and no such as the thief. If there were no one self A. G. Holman has been travelling through Ohio, representing that he is shoe-maker in Albany.

others, would soon cease.

substitute ... He has usually sold the boys, full of talent and industry. Ruright for a certain sum; each, and fus Hatch, when a youngster, had the boughtrights ordered their ingredients boy in one of the banking houses and through them found that they started out, in life with a pedlar's had been victimized. This man Holdays, retailed pork by the half pound prieters of Ho. ford's patents, and all should beware of him. Western papers will do the public a favor by showing up Mr. A. G. Holman....A through the list, and show that nearpersetrated in New York City. An ly every one of these solid men were the architects of their own fortunes. Young men who are struggling for place and position, should remember that the individuals in the list above had to battle for life just as hard as they are doing. Let them take heart and never say die, - New York Com-

> How to KILL ANTS .- As the season has arrived for those pests, the ants. housewives and others who are troubpackages, nonsewives and others who are trous tendric or by sale, and are trous to the series of the party window, on the series of the workman did not you appear that a large sponge, which it well and press nonette. "So the workman did not you appear that a large sponge, which will leave the cells quite injure the try, Mrs. Gibbs," I said. open; then sprinkle over it some fine mercial Advertiser.

SILENT TEACHERS.

"They don't eat nor drink, bless

"To comfort man, to whisper hope, Whene'er his faith grows dim, For who so careth for the flowers Will much more care for him.

I think flowers teach neatness and tage as in a palace window.

heads the list, A. T. Stewart, every- blooms, hanging like jewels among than twenty-five cents; indeed, with steps outside the door; but I notice the list were scarce as well off as Mr. and what a glow of neatness and com-Stewart. Take Henry Keep; he fort they present! And the wooden Delhi, Delaware County, when a lad, clustering flowers, at which people money enough to reach the Hudson dwellers in that cottage an honest the flour, and prices for which the lar's wagon. E. D. Morgan commen- kill their flower; so their hands learn before stated.ingredients could be procured of "his ced life with a quarter measure of gentleness of touch, and they grow agents" in Chicago Cincinnatti, or clear the parties who clear the parties who clear the parties who clear was an errand conquer the thoughtlessness and roughness of a girl or boy, by giving of the firms referred to by Holman down town. The brother's Seligman them something to take care of and attend to, and you have put them in the way of being dilligent and use-

I remember one evening meeting, in and a big bundle beside, and she was hurrying on so fast that I said, with some concern, as I passed her, "Mrs. Gibbs, is anything the matter that you are in such haste?"

"Nothing, please; but I'm baving the front of our house painted down, hurt our bit of ivy."

any further remark; but two days afterwards I walked past her house, renovated front: and there was the tendell of tvy safe, and Mrs. Gibbs love should be-clinging and unfading it was to them both a teacher and a memorial.

And so, when a husband or father brings home a little plant, if it is but 'em, and it does me and my wife good a halfpenny daisy-root, be careful to look at 'em." It was but a passing of it. His hand, that so tenderly carried the little flower, will have a tender touch for the human flowers Notes on hand, made by men skilled yet it set me a thinking. The man tender touch for the human nowers with a flower-pot in his arm was a in his dwelling. His eye, that sees He will be careful and kind; for have a great love for flowers.

> Happy is the wife who helps husband in his love of flowers, and who hears with a joyful heart her children say, as they look out on a summer's "Here he comes, mother! and, oh

Yes, this is the greeting; these are the innocent joys that may be had in the British workman's home, and of which the flowers are the silent but sweet teachers .- British Workman.

Engagement

(S. C.) Enterprise says :

shame them. And then, too, a poor each other in that time, and during a loved fatherland entered my soul! man likes to feel that he has an or-long portion of it were ignorant of Bat this did not last long. I sank nament in his dwelling similar to that each other's whereabouts. They slowly again to the earth, and the which a rich man chooses as the best were both attached, when mere chil- foremast of all the other wreck embellishment of his drawing-room. dren, in their native Ireland; but around sank with me. Only a mon-The cottage and the mansion differ when the engagement became known, ster cloud of powder smoke remained very much in structure and in furni- the families of both were opposed to in the air. Altogether different was the eclipse will be total, is about 143 willing to buy what is represented to ture; not one article of furniture it from opposite religious views, and my frame of mind as I approached the may all resemble the other, but a that of Miss G. contrived to send her, earth, with a rapidity of fifteen feet States near the origin of Milk river, Gumbridge & Co., Hunter & Co., and pretty flower, carefully watered and against her will, to the United States. in the second. tended, often blooms as well in a cot- Mr. G., all disconsolate, enlisted in the In ascending I did not feel at all British army, not being aware at first unhappy, but in descending on the and diagonally through Iowa, crossing I know a little bit of a cottage out whither the lady had gone. His contrary, I experienced an oppres the Mississippi river near Burlington, side a town. It stands in a nook career as a soldier continued twenty- sive fearfulness which is hardly des- lows; thence through Illinois, north ROUND. - There are 17,919 names who by the roadside, and has no view but six years; in the meanwhile he fought cribable. I now saw before my eye logue, in which he proposes to teach pay an income tax in this city. Six- that of a yard where carts are kept; through the terrible Sepoy rebellion death, upon which I never once near Louisville, Ky.; thence through these who will go to Maine and work ty-seven persons who pay tax on but in the window of that humble in India, making as many hair-breadth thought; the period of my childhood the Southwest corner of West Virsolid gentlemen are self-made men. They make a pretty screen, that breaches" as Othello. He returned of my mother and my sweethearts, south of Raleigh, and thence to Newwho have come up from the lowest shuts out all ugly sights, and shuts to England some three or four years and with closed eyes, in maddened round of the ladder. The man who into the room graceful drooping ago, and, having in the meantime had speed, came down headforemost. some correspondence with the lady The clear pure water was beaten inbody knows is an Irish emigrant, who the green leaves. The floor of the by letter-for his devotion never to a spray as I drove down like a 2 sec. N., and longitude 9 deg., 36 commenced life with a capital of less cot is of red brick, and so are the faltered—sailed for this country. She bomb. I sank slowly, but deeper min, 6 sec. E. Along the line above few exceptions, most of the parties in as I pass how clean are those bricks, to old Ireland, and the ships passed prevailed a greenish twilight. Fiboasts that he graduated from the chairs are bright and so are the brass ed by cholera, and losing the means up by the water. My breath was ends at about sunset, In Washington poor-house of Jefferson County. Jay candlesticks over the mantel-shelf, brought with him, he went to Mon- almost exhausted; yet I exerted my City the umbra commences at 5 h. 2 Gould drove a herd of cattle from That clear window, with its lovely tana to recruit. Last Friday he ar- lungs to the utmost, and was at last m. P. M., and ends at 9 h. 52 m. cover his tracks better; that thing for fifty cents a day, in order to get look as they go by, has given the denly and unheralded, and forthwith ascended, and at last I came out in River. David Groesbeck, over thirty pride in their dwelling; the flowers knew him instantly on sight, but he seized hold of me, raised me into the the information possible, has thus disyears ago, used to mend old shoes for have brought their own purity with did not recognize her in the same boat, and led me as a prisoner of war his brother, who was a respectable them, and taught it to their owners. manner, for she had changed from the into arrest. And when little Johnny and Mary fragile girl to the mature woman. Of We all know the history of James learn to take care of flowers, and course she was agitated and over-Gordon Bennett, Robert Bonner, poor have one of their own given them, joyed as he was, and there being no I think they cease to be destructive longer any impediment, an immediate and careless. They know that rough marriage was determined on. The then given directions for preparing ambition to hold the reins of a ped- handling or neglect will injure and result was their union on Sunday, as

and looked with some interest at the in this wise:

see." continues bus sufficients Colored Lady "I am Miss L/"

BEING BLOWN UP.

How it Feels-The Experience of an Old Salt who has been "Through the Mill."

The recent sad accident of the Austrian frigate Radelsky has sharpened the memory of an old Dane who had on board the Danish ship of the line feels the beauty of God's silent work, Christian VIII., on the fifth of April, the wicked transactions into which They are arranged in packages, each he was a sturdy son of toil, and I was will be sure to dwell lovingly on the 1849, when she exploded. Fortunaterepresenting over $500, in various de- amused to hear his fervent blessing little prattlers that clind his knee, ly, he was not killed, and has just given in the Vienna Press, in all earnone but the careful and gentle can nestness, his experience and sensation at the time. The old sailors imagination seems to be one of the best: In the first moment, he says, hearing and seeing both went away, though both came back very soon and I comprehended the whole affair. Lieutenant Frus had sprung the ship in the air. I constantly went hither. Not far from me I saw our foremast flying around me in a very dangerous manner. Above me every thing was concealed in the thick powder smoke, which shut out the sun; but below me the land lay spread out before my dizzy sight in the variegated beauty of spring. The Baltic glistened like silver in the fresh breeze fag of the enemy.

Grant, of Ireland, were married at and a half million rigsdalers! In the the residence of the former by Rev. meantime my movement upward be-E. T. Buist, D. D. The Greenville came slower from second to second, and at last it appeared as if I was suspended The incident is a pleasing one; a perfectly still for a moment in the order. The wife and children like to romantic history attaches. Thirty- other. An indescribable feeling of have a clean room, so that the flower three years have fled since the parties comfort permeated my breast, and in its purity and grace, may not became engaged, nor have they seen confidence in the future of my dearly > sprang fresh in memory: I thought was on her voyage at the same time even deeper. Underneath, there each other. He found his way to the | nally I reached the "dead point," and great West, and having been prostrat- it appeared as if I was again raised rived by the cars in Greenville, sud- rewarded with life. Even quicker I P. M. sought the house of Miss G., who the air like a cork. Powerful arms when Gen. Lee had his late interview with Gen. Grant, Mr. Motley was present. The meeting of these two different characters is suggestive. Mr. Motley is the historian of the Northerlands. He knew how to do AN ANDOVER AND BOSTON ROMANCE. for their liberties abroad. He could -A soldier from Andover, during the recognize something to be admired in war, advertised for a lady correspond- the wonderful courage and conduct of ent with reference to matrimony. At the men who guided and inspired that length a response was made by a great combat for liberty and justice. young lady in Boston. The corres- But when he looks upon qualities in pondence which followed gave mutual his own county as heroic and disinterthe Harrow road, a woman whom I information and ripened into mutual ested, upon valor such as Greece and and the sun. Some ten years since it knew. She had her baby in her arms affection, The soldier obtained a fur- Rome never surpassed, and a chieftain, lough for the purpose of visiting his who, in public and private virtue and fair Dulcines, and having the twain military genius, has no living equal, made one. On arriving in Boston, he he beholds a wicked rebellious and called at the street and number to most iniquitous traiter that the world which he had been invited, and was ever saw justly punished by having ushered by the servants into the spa- their own negro slaves put over them. cious and elegantly furnished parlor of Mr. Motley, the historian of great and I forgot to tell the man not to the house, there to swait the appear deeds, who under no cureumstances ance of Miss L., for whom he inquired, could perform what he has described, Of course I did not detain her by Shortly a very post and intelligent will be to the Court of St. James to colored girl entered the room, and bask in the sunshine of political and conversation commenced very much social position, while Gen. Lee, in the obscure village of Dexington, is with-Soldier It is Miss L. I want to drawn from the gase, though not from Mr. Motley knows, there is such a latery by Vice Admiral Porter for the thoughts of the world. But, as Mr. Motley knows, there is such a thing as history; and long after the present Motley is forgotten, some future Motley will arise who will award to Gen. Lee as prominent and gerrous a place strong the great with of the world has the histories of the T. Navel Character of the T. Ravel Character of the T. the sill of which was a box of mig-nonette. So the workman did not you will not expect me to fulfill the present Motley is forgotten, some

From the Presbyterian. The Lambs of the Fold.

BY MRS. W. L. MILLER.

Come, feed with thy hands the lambs of the

We tell them of Thee-of thy goodness and love.
Of beautiful pastures in Fden above; But ()! they will wander nfar, lest Thou hold And bear in thy bosom the lambs of the fold.

We tell them thy love is the wall 'round us here.
That without is a desert wild, fearful and drear; But they look through the gates, and wha

Of earth is most fair to the Lambs of the fold.

There are pathways encumbered with beauti ful flowers;
There are toursains, and rills, and fairy-like howers ; They will not believe, the oft they are told.

Go out, gentle Shep 1, and seek them, w pray. For some have begun from the parture to stray The night will be dark, the storm will be cold. Bring back in thy arms the lambs of the fold.

but of the glorious battle ship there was | They'll find, 'midst the blossoms, the thorn and nothing left but a lazing crater, and upon the frigate Gesion floated the bold; O! rescue from him the lambs of the fold

O, my poor Denmark, how much | ALd when gentle Shepherd, thou need'st ther On Sunday last Miss Matilda hast thou lost? I calculated this is Griffith, who has long been a respected a remarkable physiological fact—while resident of Greenville, and Mr. John I was flying in the air the loss at one fold.

Total Solar Eclipse in August.

A total celipse of the sun will take place on the 7th of August next, the only one, since 1834, which could be observed in any considerable portion of this country, and no other total eclipse will be visible in America during the present century. As a partial while the path of the umbra, in which miles in breadth, entering the United longitude 30 deg. W., thence through the Southwest corner of Minnesota, of Springfield, crossing the Ohio river bern, entering the Atlantic north of Beaufort, N. C., ending at sunset in described the eclipse will be total, and at all other places in the United States partial. Along the Atlantic coast, in the United States, the eclipse The Navy Department, at Wash-posed of some of its most eminent professors of astronomy : Prof. Hall, of the Naval Observatory, and Mr. Joseph A. Rogers, of the Hydrographic Office, left Washington City the middle of last May for Behring's strait, under orders, to take observations in that quarter, at which place the eclipse makes its advent. Profs Simon Newcomb, William Harkness, justice to a brave people struggling and J. R. Eastman, of the Naval Observatory, have been ordered to Iowa, each to take observations, acting independent of one another. Prof. Newcomb will take with him the largest object-glass from the Naval Observatory he can procure, and search for asteroids between Mercury was thought by Leverier, a distinguished astronomer, that a zone of during a total eclipse. In view of a love to the brethren, this fact, Prof. Newcomb will have this particular charge under his direction as part of his duties on this occasion. Prof. Harkness will make inves-

ington City, with a view to glean all pany the observers, taking with him the large equatorial from the D. S. Naval Academy, loaned to the ObservQueen Victoria's Model Farm.

Situated about a mile from Windis the most expensive, thing of the kind in the world. Its dairy depart- cost $20, I can't pay that much." ment is thus described in a letter to the Philadelphia Bulletin :

"We entered a beautiful cottage and were shown by one of the queen's specie. favorite servants into a room about fo ty feet square, the roof supported by six octagonal columns of white marble, with richly-carved capitals. The floors were of white porcelain tiles, the windows stained glass, bordered with May blossoms, daisies, buttercups and primroses. The walls strict temperance man, drinks now were lined with tiles of porcelain of a every morning a great deal of French beautiful blue tint, with rich medallions inserted of the queen, prince consort, and each of the children. Shields, monograms of the royal family, and the use of the stimulant it is said he bass-reliefs of agricultural designs, representing the seasons, completed the ornamentation of this exquisite dairy. All around the walls ran a marble table, and through the centre two long ones supported by marble posts, resting on basins, through which runs a perpetual stream of pure spring-water. By this means the table slabs are always kept cold, and the temperature of the dairy is chill. while the white and gilt china milk and butter dishes resting on the tables are never placed in water. We drank the delicious milk, just brought in, in bright metal buckets, lined with porcelain, the queen's monogram and crest glittering on the brass plates of the covers. In the room where the butter was made, milked skimmed and strained, we feasted our eyes on the rows of metal, porcelain-lined cans of every size, made to lock, and. sent to the royal family even as far as Scotland; so they always have good milk and butter. The churn was of metal also, and lined with porcelain, to him to use his influence in his bemade in two compartments. The eclipse it will be visible all over the outside chamber surrounding the cylinder could have warm or cold the darkey stayed out in the cold. water poured in to regulate the The Mayor of Washington, who 'coming of the butter' without disturbing the cream. The lid was screwed on, and the stationary stand on which the whole was turned made the work easy and rapid. But while over sixty cows are daily milked, and as many more out grazing, the royal family are more than satisfied, and the Londoners more than dissatisfied to see rolls of golden butter and cans of cream sold from the model farm

know the butter is sold, for we breakfasted on it this morning, and we paid for it, not as a bribe, but a regular market bargain at the dairy."

DEATH OF A NOTORIOUS INFIDEL.-Samuel Ludvigh, the notorious Ger- and vicinity during the past twelve man Infidel, died lately in Cumminsville, near .Cincinnati, Ohio. He was born in Guens, Hungary, in 1801, and came to America in 1837. Here he began his editorial career in the publication of that most vile and infamous paper, The Fuckel, which advocated the most low and vulgar infidelity. He was naturally a talented man, but his infidel brethren permitted him to contend all his lifetime with want for the necessaries of life. Infidelity does not understand that it is more blessed to give than to receive. Even on his death bed poor Ludvigh suffered the jority of 40,000. most pinching want, and the Turners of Cincinnati projected a theatrical exhibition for his benefit. But this ded report that the daughter of a came too late. Ludvigh died before wealthy merchant living on the the exhibition could take place, and Heights eloped last week with her now the proceeds are to be given to father's coachman; while those of his poor widow and six children.

ples this man devoted his life take up social position and culture, and one of a general collection among all the infi- the belles of that aristocratic locality. del brethren, by which the family has adopted the stage as a profession might have been raised above want? The answer is, that genuine practical York theatres next autumn. love to the brethren does not flow from this cold materialistic world, but guished astronomer, that a zone of planets existed between Mercury and love on Calvary, from Him who has the sun. They have never as yet shed His heart's blood out of love to been discovered, and no hopes are the brethren. A living faith on the entertained of their discovery, except Redeemer will also kindle in the heart for some time been very sad; but one tigations with the spectroscope. Dr. day she was seen to appear very hap-Cartis, of the U.S. Army, will accom-pany the observers, taking with him and she seemed as though she felt, it was so great! Although of things "Annie, why are you so cheerful?" she was saled to a recipel was I. "O." she said, "It is because I am happy iff i received and idea was bank, will proceed as usual process. Of the contract of the

A Vermont man has written to a lawyer in Indiananapolis, to know whether he can have a "devors," besor, is probably the most perfect, as it ing unable to support his wife, asking moreover what it will cost. "If it

> A lot of new Texas cotton, in the seed, was sold in Brownville, on the 11th ult., at four cents per pound,

It is estimated that the number of persons who visited Florida on business, as settlers, and as invalids or pleasure-seekers, last winter will reach three hundred thousand.

The King of Prussia, though a cognac for the purpose of appearing in public with the semblance of unimpaired health and vigor. Without would be unable to leave his room.

Sir Robert Clitton, who died recently in England, had £250,000 insurance on his life. Most of the policies were held as security for advances made the deceased.

An acriel steamer has been tried in San Francisco, and it is said the vessel rose in the air about seventy-five feet, the machinery operating successfully, buoying up and driving forward the vessel with considerable speed.

Letters received in Montreal from President Jefferson Davis, who is now in Paris, state that it is doubtful if his health will ever permit his return. If he recovers sufficiently to travel he will spend the summer in Canada and the winter in Mississippi. A negro alderman was present at the Gettysburg celebration, and was refused admission to the hotel. Having during last winter, waited on a distinguished Congressman who was in Gettysburg at the time, he applied half with the hotel man. The representative declined to interfere, and was present, did his best for the negro but he failed to stir the landlord.

Sam Hildebrand, the notorious Missouri outlaw, who had eighty deathnotches on the but of his rifle, is reported to have died of the wound which he recently received when defending himself against an armed osse of sixteen. He had escaped and wandered through the brush for some days with a large party in pursuit but cheated them of the $10.000 reward offered by dying under the hands of a physician.

Memphis, Tenn., under Radical rule is not a plasant place to live in. There have been forty-three murders and homicides committed in the city months. Of the guilty parties none have been punished, and only two convicted and sentenced, viz: Gavin and Moody, who are to be hung on the 20th of August.

Reports of great social immorality having reached the ears of the grand jury at Dubeque, Iowa, subpænas were issued to almost every male inhabitant who had reached years of

The Virginia Conservatives have defeated the Radical party by a ma-

The fushionable circles of Brooklyn are disturbed just now by a well foun-South Boston are hardly less agitated Why do not those for whose princi- over the fact that a young lady of and will appear at one of the New

Mrs. General Grant's "best" dinner set was made in Paris, expressly for the White House. Will the New York Tribune call this encouraging American manufactures?

There is much excitement in New York over the fact that a large number of brokers have been brought before the grand Jury for a violation of I Am So Happy.—Little Annie had the usury laws.

Wm. H. Sanford, cashier of one of the New York National Banks, has decamped, being a defaulter for one hundred thousand dellars, cambed by the unfortunate gold speculations. He leaves a destitute wife, and children. His character for years was irreproachable. The business of the