CHARLESTON, JUNE 2, 1862.—

THE UNDERSIGNED would call the special attention of Planters, and others interested, in this state, to the following REGULATIONS, just received from the Treasury Department. He has also been instructed to obtain from subscribers the ARMY SUPPLIES, in kind (such as RICE, CORN, &c., &c.) which they pledged to the Produce Loan Bureau, for which payment will be made in Confederate Eight per cent. BONDS, or transferable Stock.

I. S. K. BENNETT,

General Agent for the State of So. Ca.

REGULATIONS AS TO THE PURCHASE OF PRODUCE UNDER THE "ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE EXCHANGE OF BONDS FOR ARTICLES IN KIND, AND THE SHIPMENT, SALE, OR HYPOTHECATION OF SUCH ARTICLES," APPROVED APRIL 21, 1862.

The several Produce Loan Agents appointed in each State shall accept Cotton in kind, which has been or shall be subscribed, in exchange for Eight per cent, Bonds of the Confederate States, under the following regulations:

I. Each Agent shall, by public advertisement, call for offers to be made, setting forth the quantity, price and quality of the Cotton, and the place at which the same is deposited; and upon receiving the offers, he shall cause the Cotton offered to be examined, and the price ascertained and reported upon, by an experienced Cotton Broker, and, upon being satisfied that the purchase would be desirable, and the place of deposit is safe, he may conclude the purchase to the extent prescribed to him by the Secretary of the Treasury. When bids are equal, preference shall be given to subscriptions heretofore made to the Produce Loan.

II. No purchase shall be made of Cotton deposited on a plantation, unless the seller shall engage, in writing, to take due care the Cotton while on his plantation, and to deliver the same, at his own expense, at the usual place of shipment or railroad delivery, whenever demanded by the Secretary of the Treasury or his Agents, or his or their assigns; nor shall any such purchase be made of less than twenty bales on one plantation. Wherever purchases of less than one hundred bales are made, the Government Agent is authorized to have them collected and deposited in a warehouse, or upon some plantation where proper provision can be made for their secure custody, and for delivery at the usual place of shipment; and he shall report to the Chief Agent the arrangements thus made, with proper documents for the delivery.

III. Before completing the purchase the Government shall see that each bale of Cotton is sufficiently secured with Rope and Bagging, and is deposited in a warehouse, or if on a plantation, in some enclosed or covered building, secure from fire, to remain under charge of the seller as warehouseman. The purchase shall then be completed by the delivery of Confederate Bonds or Stock for the place in exchange for the documents transferring the property to the Confederate States, and stipulating as specified in these Regulations; and whereupon the Agent shall place upon each bale a Government mark to identify the same. In all cases he shall take the transfer of title in duplicate to the Chief Produce Loan Agent of the State wherein the Cotton is deposited, and the other to the Treasury Department of the Seat of Government.

VIII. When the Cotton is deposited at a warehouse, the form of transfer shall be in the usual and customary form in private transactions.

X. Subscribers to the Produce Loan may, any time, pay the amount or value of their subscriptions in Treasury Notes; instead of delivering the same in kind, and such payment shall entitle them forthwith to receive Bonds or Certificates of Stock in exchange.

C. G. MEMMINGER,
Secretary of Treasury.

Interesting from New Orleans.

We are in receipt of the New Orleans Delta of Friday week and from it gather some items of news. Very little business is being done in the city, but provisions are gradually arriving, which will relieve the working classes from the danger of want. It has been ordered that religious services be had in the different churches of the city, as in times of profound peace, and no prayer for the destruction of the Union or the success of the rebels will be tolerated. The bells which were taken from the churches by the order of Beauregard, were shipped to New York on Thursday last in the ship North America, by order of General Butler. The Delta wants them united in one casting, and placed on the roof of Faneuil Hall. A Yankee named E. W. Fox has arrived from New York to exercise the duties of city postmaster.

THE YANKEE'S LOSS IN THE BATTLE OF SEVEN PINES.—We published yesterday the statement of a negro who had escaped from the Yankees, Sunday night, to the effect that whilst helping them to bury two thousand of their dead, he had heard them repeatedly estimate their loss at between three and four thousand. We have since received information confirmatory of the negro's statement. The Rev. Mr. Sherrard, the Catholic chaplain of Louisiana Battalion of Zouaves and Chasseurs, who, during and after the battle of Saturday, traversed the whole field, administering, according to the rules of his church, the last sacrament to the dying, says that the enemy lost in killed ten to our one.—Richmond Examiner.

MILITARY GOVERNOR OF LOUISIANA.—James Robb, of New Orleans, is named as a proper person to be Military Governor of Louisiana. He is recommended by a number of millionaires of New York, among them Grinnell and Astor. Robb is a good name for a Governor of the South under Lincoln. Robb is the order of the day.—It is enjoined on all who enlist in the crusade—go forth and rop and steal, and, like the locusts of Egypt, leave no green thing behind. Desolate the land of the "rebels."

Robb is a famous banker of New Orleans, and made an immense fortune amongst the people it would appear he is now ready to betray. He is vouched for by that odious sheet the New York Times, and of course must be a good Union man.—Richmond Dispatch.

THE CONSCRIPT LAW.—A good many persons are under the belief that the conscription law relieves from the service all persons over thirty-five years, who have re-enlisted for the war. In this they are mistaken. All who have enlisted for the war, whether old or new volunteers, will have to serve, it matters not what their ages may be. But the conscription law does not touch those over thirty-five or under eighteen, who are not now in service. This, as we learn, is the decision of the Secretary of War, and the manifest intention of the law itself.—Carolinian.

We are requested to state that all resident females, children and servants leaving the city will be furnished with certificates, which will entitle them to pass over the railroads in this State at half the usual rate of passage charged on the said roads, upon application at the office of James Tupper, Esq., No. 74 Broad-street, between the hours of 10 and 2 o'clock and 4 and 6 o'clock of each day, except Sunday.—Mercury.

IMPORTANT CAPTURE BY THE BLOCKADERS.—The Key West correspondent of the New York Express, under date of 15th ult., says the British iron steamer Circassian, 1,500 tons, with a cargo of tea, silk, coffee and munitions of war, valued at one million dollars, has been seized by the blockaders, and would be sent to New York.—Mercury.

Of five hundred prisoners taken to Richmond from the battle of the 31st ult. and 1st inst., one hundred and fifty were wounded.

Gen. Pettigrew not Killed.

RICHMOND, June 6.—A flag of truce from the enemy's lines to-day, brings the intelligence that Gen. J. Johnston Pettigrew was not killed in the late fight, but severely wounded. He is reported doing well, and out of danger.

A LINCONITE ADULTERER KILLED.—We learn from citizens of Chattanooga, that a noted Linconite, called Squire Brown, a man of property residing near Chattanooga, has been insulting the wives of Confederate soldiers, who were absent in the army, and, on one occasion, whipped a lady whose chastity would not yield to his solicitations. Her husband came home and hearing of his diabolical conduct, proceeded to his house on Sunday last, and deliberately shot him. He died in half an hour. He justly forfeited his life for his villainy.—Knoxville Register, 4th.

It has been seriously proposed by the enemy in New Orleans to remove the statues of Jackson and Clay to the North—to the "hub of the universe," we suppose. The Yankee editor of the Delta has a quick imagination. He declares that when the stars and stripes are carried past those statues they smile or seem to smile, well pleased that Gen. Butler is there to give protection to the people and laws! We suspect that the editor "smiles" more than sobriety requires.
