THE BANK QUESTION.

From the Correspondence of the Charleston Mercury. Columbia, Dec. 9, 1839.

The Senate is still occupied in discussing the Bank report of the Special Committee. Mr. Bennett spoke yesterday in defence of the views set forth in the report and resolutions, and expressed a wish that the whole matter may be laid on the table...

NORFOLK, Dec. 4.

Sannanulism and Narrow Escape!—A gentleman lodging at the Exchange Hotel, in the 3rd story, rose from his bed on Thursday night, while in a profound sleep, raised the sash of the window, and threw himself out. He encountered a fall of twenty three feet, and was pitched head foremost upon a flight of steps below...

Richmond, Dec. 4.—The House of Delegates passed to-day by a vote of eighty odd to forty odd, on ayes and noes, the bill for the temporary relief of the Banks. The Banks are authorized to discount till the 1st of March, 1840, and the suspension is legalized till that period.

Lunatic Asylum.—We gather from the report of the Regency of this institution, at Columbia, that the number of Lunatics in the Asylum, on the 5th Nov. 1839, was 47, and that up to the 4th Nov. 1839, the additional number received was—(Paupers 8, pay Patients 17) 25—in all 72. Of these 10 were discharged cured, 5 were removed by their friends, and 6 died, during the year, leaving in the institution 51 patients, of whom 25 are paupers and 26 are pay patients, 33 males and 18 females. The asylum continues to support itself and answer fully the purposes of its benevolent founders—its receipts for the year were $11,226.86 cts, its disbursements $10, 657.95 cts—balance on hand $568.91 cts. The management of Dr. W. Parker, the Superintendent, and of his subordinate officers, is highly commended. Char. Cour.

From the Correspondence of the Charleston Courier. Washington, Dec. 7, 1839.

In my last, I alluded to some slight dissatisfaction in the Administration ranks, proceeding from the late caucus nomination of Speaker by that party. It had been urged by the New York and several of the Pennsylvania members, that some token of gratitude (if one may so call it) was due to the State Rights' men, for coming forward to their assistance at the time the Sub-Treasury Bill was brought before Congress. For this reason if you will refer to your files, you will find that most of the leading Democratic Journals have, for the past six months brought forward the claims of Mr. Pickens, in a very strong light, and it seemed to be a general understanding among the mass of the Representatives, that he should be chosen. Some misunderstanding occurred, however, owing to Mr. P.'s apathy in regard to the office of Speaker, and a disposition on the part of his friends, to keep him where his services would be more valuable—on the floor as a D-bater—for, by the way, there is none to lead the Administration forces at present, against the overpowering number of orators they have against them, save Mr. P.—and Mr. Lewis was taken up. But while this matter was in the throes of successful experiment, Mr. Benton, the Senator from Missouri, is said to have stated, that "such a man (meaning Nullifier) would not suit," and hence the choice of G. N. Jones. The sore feelings thus excited will have to be healed in some manner, as the State Rights' men express themselves free from committal, save on the single question of the Sub-Treasury. One thing is certain, if Mr. Dawson, of Geo., is run as the Whig candidate, he will carry more votes than either Mr. Jones or Mr. Bell, inasmuch as much as the Nullifiers are bound to vote for a companion in principles.

The Speakership, however, is but a prelude to greater matters, as the field for Mr. Van Buren's succession is now open in the Democratic ranks, and hence the wishes of a certain Senator to prevent the election of a State Rights' Speaker. From the signs of the times, you will observe that the Democratic party has three divisions—the hard currency men, who we suppose, lean towards Mr. Benton, the State Rights' party, who cling to Mr. Calhoun, and the sober thinking Democrats, who avoid both extremes; in the selection of Mr. Forsyth, as you may easily mark the movements of each though on general subjects, they will all pull together—at present, however, we have no time to speculate on this subject.

The present Vice President will doubtless be dropped by his party at the next election, as we have heard of no National Convention, and his name has not been brought forward in any State Legislature. It is expected, since the nomination of Mr. Polk for that office by the Tennessee Legislature, that Messrs. King, of Alabama, and Forsyth, of Georgia, will receive a nomination from their respective States—viewing each, in his separate capacity and qualifications, the gentleman from Georgia is likely to be the man Mais nos verrons.

We shall have some hard words during the session, about Florida, as Mr. Benton yesterday gave notice in the Senate, that he would, as early as possible, introduce a bill for the armed occupation and settlement of such part of the country as is now infested by the Indians.

If I thought the debates of the House were of any interest at present, I would readily furnish you a synopsis, but they are of such a sameness of character, and all of them so far from the end in view, that they are as disagreeable to hear as to read.

The whole of this morning has been consumed in debating a question, concerning the decision of the Chair, made yesterday, and in disputing a part of the Journal which states that Mr. Donagoo, of Va., told the Speaker he would let every man have his bar vote, "unless otherwise directed." These three words called up some ten or a dozen members, each one having understood them in a different sense, and most of the gentlemen professing to know more of the proceedings of the Chair and Teller than these persons did themselves! Most glorious confusion prevails as usual; members are walking, talking and smoking all around the seats, but on, and no order calls the ear to quell the buzzing thus raised.

JOHN EVANS, Sheriff. C. H. Dec. 14, 1839.

THE EMPIRE STATE—ENLARGED.

JANUARY 1, 1840. PROSPECTUS.

Determined to make adequate returns for the liberal and increasing encouragement given to this paper, which bears its name and defends the Honor and Interests of the EMPIRE STATE—the publishers propose, on the commencement of the year 1840, to issue this paper in the folio form, on an enlarged sheet of the Mammot's Size, to exceed in size and style of execution, any weekly newspaper published in this city or country. The most ample arrangements are making to give to the paper all those attractions, as a well conducted Political, Literary and Miscellaneous Journal, which the intelligence and good taste of the present age require. In its arrangement and execution, and the amount of reading matter it will contain, as well as in its early and faithful record of News, foreign and domestic, local, and general, the EMPIRE STATE will be unequalled. It will remain staunch, as it ever has been, in support of sound Democratic Whig Principles—an advocate of Public & Private Economy, Public and Private Virtue, Equal Rights and Equal Laws. And in catering for the general reader, we shall spare no pains or expense to render the paper attractive, valuable and useful. The choicest selections will be regularly made from the current Literature of the day, together with ample original contributions from the pens of able and practised writers.

TERMS OF THE EMPIRE STATE.

ENLARGED SERIES. The paper will be published on a Mammot's folio sheet, on paper of superior quality, and beautiful type. The price will be $2.50 per annum—in all cases in advance. No paper sent until the money is received; and no subscriptions received for a less term than six months. Those who are now subscribers, or wish to avail themselves of the privilege of the present terms, may do so by enclosing $2 at any time prior to the 1st January, 1840, and the paper will be sent for one year. After that date, the terms will invariably be $2.50 per annum in advance. Business letters should be addressed to J. GREGG WILSON & CO., Publishers of the Empire State, 152 Nassau street, N. Y.

To Hire.

WILL be hired on the first day of January next two likely negroes belonging to the Estate of Absolom Burn late of Marlborough District. Hiring will commence at 11 o'clock at R. L. Burn's, Panting and Saw Mill on Big Juniper. J. W. BURN, R. L. BURN, Executors of the Estate of Absolom Burn. D. C. 19, 1839.

HAWES & ALLEN DENTISTS. No. 8 Park Place, New York. Mr. HAWES has taken rooms at Mr. J. R. Bennett's Hotel where he would be happy to receive the calls of any who may wish the services of a Dentist. Ladies who prefer being attended at their residence can be accommodated. December 23, 1839. G-1f

Roward's Tonic Mixture. THE Agency for this valuable medicine is at the Bookstore of Mr. Prince where it may at any time be had by the single bottle or by the dozen. J. A. INGLIS Agt. Char. w April 839

New Goods. THE subscriber is again opening a stock of goods in Char. w, well adapted to the season, which are prepared to sell at prices very much reduced, either by wholesale or retail. He bought a large proportion of his Goods at the New York package sales in September last, with a view of wholesaling and is confident he can sell them as low as they can be bought in any of the Southern towns. D. B. McARN. November 22d, 1839. 2 tf

Morus Multicaulis. THE subscriber has for sale a large number of Morus Multicaulis cuttings. In the qualities which give value for planting, viz: size and MATURITY OF WOOD, they are believed not to be surpassed, perhaps not equalled by any others for sale in the United States. This is owing to the great distance allowed in planting as well as to suitable soil and good cultivation. Owing to the present scarcity of money, and the consequent depression in the price of every thing else, they are offered at a very reduced price. Persons wishing to purchase should apply early; because all not engaged are now offered in a distant market. Besides, if not sold before Spring the price may then be higher. Printed directions for planting and cultivating will be furnished without charge to those who purchase. M. MACLEAN. Char. w S. C. December 4th 1839.

Sheriff's Sale. BY order of the Court of Ordinary will be sold at Chesterfield Court House on the first Monday in January next all the Real Estate of Randall McDonald deceased, consisting of two tracts of land, one on Lynchess Creek, containing 325 acres, one other tract on the waters of Black Creek containing 295 acres more or less. Conditions: as much cash as will pay the expenses of Sale; one month's credit on the balance, purchaser giving bond, with good personal security and a mortgage to the Ordinary if required. Purchaser paying for necessary papers. Sheriff's Office: Chester old C. H. December 14th, 1839. JNO. EVANS, S. C. D. 5 10

PROSPECTUS OF THE FARMERS' GAZETTE AND CHEW ADVERTISER. The Editor of the Chew Gazette has determined, at the suggestion of the Pee Dee Agricultural Society, to devote more space than formerly to Agriculture, and matters pertaining specially to its interests. About nine columns, or a page and a half weekly, will be occupied with this subject, except when it shall be necessary to make room for Executive Messages, and a few other political papers such as every intelligent citizen ought to read. A large proportion of what shall appear under the Agricultural head must, of course, be selected. But the numerous Agricultural periodicals now published in this country afford abundant and excellent materials for selection; and, after a short time, the reports, and other papers of the Pee Dee Agricultural Society will of themselves, form no inconsiderable body of original matter, all of it adapted particularly to this part of the country. And it is hoped, also, that among the numerous intelligent and enterprising planters of the surrounding districts and counties some may be found who will, occasionally, take the trouble of contributing to the columns of the paper the result of their experience. Among the subjects which will engage the Editor's attention the culture of silk shall not be overlooked. Ample instructions will be given, in their proper season, for cultivating the morus multicaulis and making silk. The paper will espouse the cause of no party in politics, but shall contain an impartial summary of political intelligence, and, occasionally, able speeches and well written essays (when met with) fully discussing the principles and measures of all parties. It is believed that a comparatively small space devoted to political subjects in this way may be made more profitable to the Farmer of domestic habits, who wishes to be acquainted with the true state of the country and qualified for a proper and intelligent discharge of the duties of citizenship, than a whole sheet filled, from week to week, and year to year, with one-sided discussions, and mere quarrels of editors and politicians, whilst, at the same time, it will not be calculated to estrange neighbor from neighbor, or to mislead into a belief that one half of the country are less patriotic than the other, or less ardently attached to our republican institutions. So much of the fourth page as shall not be occupied with standing advertisements will generally be filled up with matter of moral and religious cast, and articles conducive, in other respects, to proper family instruction and family discipline. If the increase to the subscription list upon issuing this Prospectus shall be sufficient to warrant the expense, new type will be procured, forthwith, for the body of the paper; that for the part now printed in large letter; and at the commencement of the next volume the title of the paper will be changed to Farmers' Gazette and Chew Advertiser. For Terms see first page. September, 1839.
