A PORTION OF THE ELECTORS.

FOR THE CAMBES JOURSAL.

MR EDITOR—We beg leave through the me-dium of the Camden Journal, to propose our wor-thy and highly estoemed fellow citizen, FRANCIS L. KENNEDY, Esq. as a suitable candidate to supply the vacancy occasioned by the death of our late Representative in Congress. Col. R. I.

A VOICE FROM SUMTER.

From the Lynchburg Virginian, of May 9th.

It will be seen by the "Review," that tobacco. suitable for manufacturing purposes, still commands splendid prices in this market Col. Aug. Leftwitch bought four hhds. on Friday, No 1, at $3024, the highest price given in this market for many years, perhaps since 1816—No 2, $21; No 3 $20; and No 4, $15, all of which he contemplates manufacturing for his friends in the South. The masticaters of "the weed" in that quarter will be better employed when they receive it, than Shakspeare's romantic swain, who sat all day "chewing the end of sweet and bitter fancies." -- Mr. John Rucker, on the same day, gave $18 for one hhd. and the day before nother, which he is putting up for the North, where the tobacco larers, we presume, are as fond of a good commodity as they are in the island of Ascension on her way to England, informed me that they took in several large turtles, among others one which from some accident had only three fins. The sailors called it "Lord Nelson," and it was marked in the usual way, by having certain initials and numbers burnt upon i's under shell with a hot iron, which marks are never to be obliterated. Owing to various causes the ship was delayed on her rovage, many of the turtles died, and others became sickly. This was the case of Lord Nelson and it was so near dead when the ship acrived in the British Channel, that the sailsors threw it overboard, in order, as they said to give it a chance. Izard. The description in the bill is as Its native element however, appears to have revived it, for two years afterwards the very same turtle was again found at his old bannts in the island of Ascension. After a short time he brought a companion to share the comfort and luxury of his habitation; and they went on increasing their number until the colony amounted to nine or more, who were furnished by their kind hostess with boxes for shelter, and soft wool for their bedding, which they arranged to their taste, and used without fear, making occasional visits to the park for variety or exercise. They showed no reluctance nor distrust, The subscribers have a quantity of when the window was raised for the curiowhen the window was raised for the enriesity of visiters, or to give them their first rate, and in fine order, which they offood; and they seemed as conscious of fer on reasonable terms. safety, as they were of the comfort and luxury of their living.

What sort of intelligence existed between these little animals and their friends in the woods, that they could communicate to them the good quarters they had discovered, and induce them to follow to this eldarado! One hour before midnight is worth two after- THE subscriber will offer at private sale, wards."-This is a common and true saying; but it is not to be supposed that two hours in Northern FLOUR, until the 20th inst., the morning will make up the loss of one at which if not sold, will be offered at pubuight .- Nothing can be farther from truth lie sale. The loss of night sleep is injurious, but indulgences in day slumbers is still more so. In case of having been disturbed one night, the best way to replace the loss is to go to bed one or two hours earlier, rather than to be later in the morning. Attention to those particulars would do much to preserve health.
