(BY AUTHORITY.)

LAW OF THE UNITED STATES PASSED AT THE TWENTY FOURTH CONGRESS FIRST SESSION.

[PUBLIC, No. 23.]

AN ACT to give effect to patents for public lands issued in the names of deceased persons.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in all cases where patents for public lands have been or may hereafter be issued, in pursuance of any law of the United States, to a person who had died, or who shall hereafter die, before the date of such patent, the title to the land designated therein shall enure to, and become vested in, the heirs, devisees, or assigns, of such deceased patentee, as if the patent had issued to the deceased person during life; and the provisions of this act shall be construed to extend to patents for lands within the Virginia Military District in the State of Ohio.

JAMES K. POLK.

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

M. VAN BUREN.

Vice President of the United States and President of the Senate.

APPROVED, 9th of May, 1836.

AND EW JACKSON.

[PUBLIC No. 24.]

AN ACT explanatory of the act entitled "An act to prevent defalcations on the part of disbursing agents of the Government, and for other purposes."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the act entitled "An act to prevent defalcations on the part of disbursing agents of the Government, and for other purposes," approved the twenty-fifth of January, eighteen hundred and twenty-eight, shall not be construed to authorize the pension of any pensioner of the United States to be withheld.

APPROVED, 20th May, 1836.

[PUBLIC, No. 25.]

AN ACT authorizing the President of the United States to accept the service of volunteers, and to raise an additional regiment of dragoons or mounted riflemen.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States be, and he is hereby authorized to accept volunteers who may offer their services either as infantry or cavalry not exceeding ten thousand men, to serve six or twelve months after they shall have arrived at the place of rendezvous, unless sooner discharged and the said volunteers shall furnish their own clothes, and, if cavalry, their own horses, and when mustered into service, shall be armed and equipped at the expense of the United States.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the said volunteers shall be liable to be called upon to do military duty only in cases of Indian hostilities, or to repel invasions, whenever the President shall judge proper, and when called into actual service and while remaining therein shall be subject to the rules and articles of war, and shall be in all respects except as to clothing, placed on the same footing with similar corps of the United States army; and in lieu of clothing, every non-commissioned officer and private, in any company, who may thus offer themselves, shall be entitled when called into actual service, to receive in money a sum equal to the cost of clothing of a non-commissioned officer or private (as the case may be) in the regular troops of the United States.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the said volunteers, so offering their services, shall be accepted by the President in companies, battalions, squadrons, regiments, brigades, or divisions, whose officers shall be appointed in the manner prescribed by law in the several States and Territories, to which such companies, battalions, squadrons, regiments, brigades, or divisions, shall respectively belong. Provided, That where any company, battalion, squadron, regiment, brigade, or division, of militia already organized, shall tender their voluntary services to the United States, such company, battalion, squadron, regiment, brigade, or division, shall continue to be commanded by the officers holding commissions in the same, at the time of such tender; and of any vacancy hereafter occurring shall be filled in the mode pointed out by law in the State or Territory wherein the said company, battalion, squadron, regiment, brigade, or division, shall have been originally raised.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the President of the United States be, and he is hereby authorized to organize companies, so tendering their services, into battalions or squadrons, battalions or squadrons into regiments, regiments into brigades, and brigades into divisions as soon as the number of volunteers shall render such organization in his judgment expedient; and the President shall, if necessary, apportion the staff, field and general officers among the respective States or Territories from which the volunteers shall tender their services as he may deem proper; but until called into actual service, such companies, battalions, squadrons, regiments, brigades, or divisions shall not be considered as exempt from the performance of militia duty as if required by law, in like manner as before the passage of this act.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the volunteers who may be received into the service of the United States, by virtue of the provisions of this act, shall be entitled to all the benefits which may be conferred on persons wounded in the service of the United States.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That there shall be raised and organized, under the direction of the President of the United States one additional regiment of dragoons or mounted riflemen, to be composed of the same number and rank of the officers, non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates, composing the regiment of dragoons now in the service of the United States, who shall receive the same pay and allowance, be subjected to the same rules and regulations, and be engaged for the like term, and upon the same conditions, in all respects whatever as are stipulated for the said regiment of dragoons now in service.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the President of the United States may disband the said regiment whenever in his opinion, the public interest no longer requires their services, and the sum of three hundred thousand dollars, required to carry into effect the provisions of this act is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That so much of this act as relates to volunteers shall be in force for two years from and after the passage of this act, and no longer.

APPROVED, 23d May, 1836.

(Public—No 26)

AN ACT making appropriation for the suppression of hostilities by the Creek Indians.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the sum of five hundred thousand dollars be, and the same is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to defray any expenses which have been, or may be incurred in suppressing hostilities by the Creek Indians, by calling out, by the President, of any part of the militia of the United States, according to the provisions of the constitution and law; which sum, if expended, shall be expended under the direction of the Secretary of War, conformably to the provisions of the act of Congress, of January, seventeen hundred and ninety five; of the act of fifth of April, eighteen hundred and thirty two, making appropriations for the support of the army; and of the act of the nineteenth March, eighteen hundred and thirty six, providing for the payment of volunteers and militia corps in the service of the United States.

APPROVED, 23d May, 1836.

BILL FOR PARTITION.

By virtue of a decree of the Court of Equity in the above case, I will offer for sale at Lancaster Court House, on the 1st Monday in June next, the following tracts of land, the property of the late Walter Izard. The description in the bill is as follows:

One tract of land lying in Lancaster Dist., on the Catawba river, near Landsford, containing 550 acres, including a small island in the river, containing three acres more or less; this tract is bounded west by the Catawba river, south by lands of Massey & Allen Hood, east by lands of Thompson & Geddes and north by lands of Foster, upon this tract are the mills situated—fifty acres have been sold to Gibson so that the tract now contains but 500 acres.

Also another tract containing three hundred acres, more or less, situate in the District of Lancaster, about one mile from the tract last named, bounded w. by Foster's land, s. by Crawford and Foster, e. by Dean and Geddes lands, and n. by Massey and Hood's lands.

The above lands will be sold on a credit of one, two and three years from the day of sale. Purchasers to give bond, mortgage, and personal security, and also to pay for commissioners papers.
