Poetry.

LINES TO THE SEA-SERPENT. (From the last New York Mirror.) [17 The N. Y. Star queries whether it was not written by Halleck.] Dark riddle of the ocean' who shall solve

The secret of thy nature? Who declare Thy age and habits! Who the charm dissolve That wraps thy mystic being, and lay bare The springs that move thy mechanism strange, And aid thee in thy element to range

Hast thou a partner, rover of the deep. A soother of thy weariness and wo-A calmer of thy furnus rage, when sweep New Bedford sloops to break thy proud repose. And thy uprising stars to strife and sin, The dark and stalwart fishermen of Lynn Hast thou a grotte in the bring wave. To hide the billion feet of burnished tail, A submarine retreat, a roomy cave, Lit up with earbancles and crystals pale Take my advice-within its depths abide, Nor trust thy person to the upper ride?

Why lov'st thou pertinaciously to haunt The seas that gird this rock promontory, In the vernacular yelept Nahant-Scene traught with danger and with fearful glory Here hast thou foes, yea, Holeman's proud hotel Has those, great snake, who do not wish thee well,

Who meditate thy roin and captivity. A degradation worse, oh, worse than death! Who d palsy all thy vigor and activity. And serze thy greatness, not bereft of breath; Who would confine thee in a narrow space And there exhibit thee! -oh, what disgrace

Then do not be so rash! What would thy wife, Thy little ones endure, if that should If thee shouldst be a prisoner for life. Nor move, the neighty monarch of the sea-"Oh, what a coil, my masters" should they find The giant snake by pigmy men confined!

All thy marice rebellious foes would waken, Rival leviathans would wag their tails, There'd be huge joy among the sprawling kraken, And a blose out among the mighty whales: There'd be an awful submarine commotion, A war of the succession in the ocean

Your present ministry would be turned out-E'en now your subjects clamor for reform. From Otaheite to the rabble rout-Of Islands in the Indian Ocean warm But who'd succeed them, Neptune only knows, Or when your kingdom would enjoy repose

The dolphin never will get into place. He a too much of a torncoat to succeed; The shark, I feet, would every post disgrace, Save the Attorney-General's indeed; And if the faction of reform prevails. Who Il give an effice to the Prince of Whales

And who will be rewarded with the pearls, A perquisite that every patriot sighs for Who'll wed the loveliest of ocean girls, The mermaid, whom the heir apparent dies for Who will command the horse-marines and cels, And who will be lord keeper of the reals!

Oh, mighty smale' avoid this wild misrule, By keeping snugly in your own dominion In your element you are no fool-Forsake it, and you will become man a minion. Your wanderings past let dark oblivion blot cm, And sink with expedition to the bottom.

Pay but one farewell visit to the shore-Take my advice as hindly as 'tis meant And for my sole reward, (I ask no more.) Just let me hint, I hope you will present To me in one last visit to the rocks, The freedom of the ocean in a box from, ____, one of the West India Islands, to your grave - this said veryll, at his wedding to the United States, a man of business. Interally washed him many happy returns of He was in truth, a man of the world; the day! The polite admitter of the banddeeply immersed in its cares, and pros- boxes found, however, one anniversary quite perous in reaping a golden harvest; with sufficient, without any returns. which he vainly hoped, ere long, to be sa-tisfied and happy. His mission led him deag at each remove" such a very perceptible to listen to the preaching of a zealous and the rising generation. devoted elergyman of the Protestant Episcities, and at tength reached Boston .- must let me have them for the drawing-room, There he took lodgings in the -- House, they are such loves." The impressions made by divine truth cantile operations. He still thought of room. I am sure that it is as much as any value than upon the world. He went to have no more money spent on such trash " hear a faithful minister of the Methodist "This fish is capital, the source is a chef church, and his convictions of sin were d'ourre," exclaimed the lady, hastening to heightened. He went again and again, change the discourse, "do let me recommend till, by the blessing of God, and the ope- it." ration of the Holy Ghost, he found a Sa. Dinner proceeds, enlivened by a little sevior, and embraced him in faith, and be- ries of delicate atten ions on the part of the came a joyful witness of his truth. Sur- wife. One thing is advised; another, which rounded as he was by the world, on all she is well aware is her husband's aversion. He is a very large man; my hand is per- lar, strides fiercely on and gets nothing but sides, hearing constantly the din of its playfully forbidden, with a "my dear Fran feetly steady. If I can hit a hay stack, scratches, and holes form in his trowsers." business, and the noise of its folly (mis- cis, you are so careless of yourself-consider therefore, I can scarcely miss King Louis." called pleasure.) indeed engaged for a part les horreurs de la digestion." at the ment, with many devoted to the well cats his walnuts, peeled latter, he did abstract his mind from worldly thoughts, so as to spend hours daily with his God, on his bended knies, seek- alias Mrs. Caldwell's very pretty fingers .ing Divine illumination in prayer and Towards the middle of his second glass of billet, and there is not one of them directions. Every discription. Fever seres a reading his word.

Moral

not made a witness for Jesus to be dumb' have the tables."

ored miles to ascertain the truth of the Dyspensa, proceeding from vitation. Affections twenty bottles of Swain's lance a and eight bottles or to testify only on certain great occa
"The tables!" cried the lady, with an air, story. On meeting him he called out in of the Liver, Chronic Indamation of the Kidneys, of Potter's Catholicon, with no material benefit. signs! Out of the abundance of his heart as the school boy said of ancient Gaul, quar-his word looked by said of ancient Gaul, quar-his mouth spake. He has now returned tered into three balves, of disdam, wounded to his home. It is singularly efficacious the vessels of the skin. It is singularly efficacious the ves price; and, in the benevolence which the all wish for them. It was of you Francis, servant sir." The traveller was perfectly irregularities. In general terms, it is recommon gospel inspires, to use his utmost endeat that I was thinking. Good God! can you satisfied, turned his horse's head, and resed in the blood, vitation of the humors, of what vors that those endeared to him by the weigh a few pakry pounds against the pleasure traced his steps homeward. ties of affection and blood may not receive of gratifying your wife. I see I have lost my Othograpical Decortion. Mr. E. Some of the above complaints may requi the grace of God in vain. Nor will be hold on your affections. What have I done? - K - long a respectable printer, in triling asstant applications, which the circum be soon forgotten in your city, among the 1 whose whole life has but one happiness, Glasgow, was sadly bothered with an apstraction of the control of the co brethren who rejoiced over his repentence, that of pleasing you?" or by those impenitent individuals whom. We will not pursue the subject to its last ted into that portion of grammar which he besought in the arder of his first love, conjugal close of tears and kisses; suffice it treats of the proper disposition of letters to seek the Saviour he had found.

prayers of a mother and a sister? Let me vor! tell you, the man thus hopefully conver- Now this is a beautiful way of doing but take the spectacles from his nose, and give the and seek ent new remedial significant to article, is the son of a mother in Exact, and siness. We seemed recommend its considerable full deposing dood the fill with the following dood to the ill deposing dood the following the following dood to the ill deposing dood years, an ornament in the church in England, and now stands waiting but to hear this blessed intelligence, that her son who was lost is found-who was dead is alive again; and like Simeon of old, she will say, . Lord now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, for mine eyes have seen thy salvation." The latter was so in love with God's word, that to enjoy and be benefitted with its glorious truths, she made the Hebrew language her study, that so she might read it in the characters in which it was originally penned.

Who can doubt that the prayers of that mother and that sister, going up continually for the son and the brother, widely separated from them he was, were heard, and he was blessed in his soul on account of them! Mothers! who have impenitent sons and daughters, pray for them. Sisters! who have brothers to love with this world. go to God in faithfu! prayer for them; for the fervent, effectual prayer of the righteous availeth much .- Paston.

Miscellaneocs.

MANAGING A HUSBAND.

This is a branch of female education too much neglected; it ought to be taught with "French, Italian and the use of the Globes. To be sure, as Mrs. Glass most sincerely observes, "first catch your bare," and you must also first catch your husband. But we will suppose him caught-and therefore to be roas- he has got his task done. It is carried to the ted, boiled, stewed or jugged. All these me- master again, and thus it goes-" qeter quer thods of cooking have their matrimonial prototypes. The roasted husband is done to death by the fiery temper, the boiled husband dis- "Why, you little bungling block head!solves in the warm water of conjugal tears. whythe stewed husband becomes ductile by the application of worry, and the jugged husband is fairly subdued by sauce and spice. Women have all a natural genius for having their own way; still the finest talents, like " the finest pleasantry in the world," require cultivation. We recommend beginning soon.

When Sir William L --- was setting off on his wedding excursion, while the bride was subsiding from the pellucid lightness of white satin and blonde into the delicate darkness of the lifac silk travelling dress, the lady's maid rushed into his presence with a torrent, not of tears, but of words. His favorite French valet had put our all the band boxes that had been previously stored with all feminine ingenuity in the carriage. Of course, on the happiest day of his life, Sir William could not "hint a fault or hesitate dislike," and he therefore ordered the interesting exiles to be replaced. "Very well, Sire William," said the prophetic gen leman's gentleman, "you let yourself be band boxed now, you be band boxed all your life."

The prediction of the masculine Cassandra of the curling irons was emply fulfilled. Po-Sir William! One of his guests, a could man whose wits might have belonged to a Leeds clother, for they were always wool gathering, confounded the bridal, with one of A Mother's and a Sister's Prayer answered those annual festivals when the people cruel-Within a twelve month, there came ly give you promise made one step more to all the principal cities on our Atlantic cham; it might as well have been wreathed, borders; and in t can to associate with a or gilded, or even pinchbecked. A friend of most respectable class of our merchants. mine, Mrs Francis Caldwell, does the thing He first visited a southern city; and while much better. We shall give a domestic diathere, was led, in the providence of God, logue in Curzon-street, by way of example to

"I have been at Boldic's this morning, my copal church. His attention was arrest love,' said Mrs. Caldwell while helping the ted and his mind deeply solemnized with soup; " he has two such lovely Serve tables, eternal realities. He visited intervening portraits of Louis XIVth's beauties; you

"I really do wonder," exclaimed Mr. Caldwere not to be effected from his heart, al. well, in his most decided tone, "what you though he was much occupied with mer- can want with any thing more in the drawing his soul, and began to set upon it a higher one can do to get across them as it is. I will

" By no hand, as you may guess, But that of Fairly Fair.

port, he perceives that there are tears in his ted to Louis l'hillippe." He was now a changed man. He felt wite's soft blue eyes-which become actual any thing" "Many a man who has a wife.

Submits to for a quiet life. But, the fair halt of the world, out of whose very remains the rose, as the eastern proverb that honey of the heart, is the true art of cret is, " flatter to reign."

Mind your P's and Q's - The origin of many of the little proverbial expressions in common use might easily enough be traced to a printing office. For instance a blundering apprentice boy (who, by the way, goes to learn the trade with only one idea in his head, that he shall 'sartinly' make his fortune in the end, if he only attends at the outset, as the school-master told him, to crossing decayed, evidently showing that they had been treatment? And ca a doubt exist, that this happy his t's and dotting his i's) before he gets accustomed to the types in his case, confounds different letters, that have some little resemblance in shape and form. He sets up a small piece of copy ' on trial,' and carries his ' mat-

"Why, Sam, what villainous work you make! Are you such a blockhead as not to mind now, and do not confound the letters! Sam tugs and sweats-blows, puffs and strains his eyes over the 'copy.' He handles that he gets it all right. In about two hours gicked a qeck of gickled geggers'

The master's patience is about worn out.

"Oh don't, sir!" -- interrupts Sam - "I won't do so again-I'll do better next time. 'Confound them ar types I say, any how!' " No more confounding 'em-they are confounded enough now. Here, take out those q's and put in p's in every word." "Dang it all!" says the half discouraged boy, "it cant be my fault -it's the types.

It's a darn'd hord case!" " Not so hard either, Sam! If you live to be as old as Methusaleh, whatever your business, you'll always find your 'case a darn'd hard one,' unless you mind your p's and q's.'

Clarement Eagle. Floating Farm Vard .- The following sketch of a family floating down the Ohio on a raft, is at once highly graphic and characteristic of our inland navigation:

"To-day we have passed two large rafts, "In land of promise in the western woods --Limb raft was eighty or ninety feet long, with dy habits; and the various avocations seemed to go on with the steadiness of clock work." In this manner our western emigrants travel their own provisions; their raft floats with the current, and honest Jonathan, surrounded proposed, without leaving his own fireside; and on his arrival there may go on shore with on his marriage with a rich widow, said he

The following remarkable passage appears in an article upon the state of parties, in Fraser's Magazine for June. It was written and in all probability printed, is found in the rummations of P Pilgari k before the atrocious attempt to assassinate Pigwiggin, Esq: the King:—"One man says, 'I will take Unfor the a my gun; I will go and stand at his palace- berry bushes. Mean people squat down and since During this period I have been a cattent in He goes, and stands, and fires; but he of the day in the former, and associated Dinner declines into dessert, and Mr. Cald- cannot even graze the skin of the hearenprotected victim. Another man says, 'I will not rely on a single ball.' Fifty bullets shall fly about him in the same instant," capient Cancers, Salt Rheum, Syphilia, and Me The bullets fly, but 'every bullet has its flictions of the bones. Ulcerated Throat and National Applications of the bones.

He was now a changed man. He felt wite's soft blue eyes—which become actual A Bass Voici.—A vocalist having heard support of a bass voici.—A vocalist having heard support of a bass voice than himself. The showed it in his very counseless as the progresses in the third glass.

A Bass Voici.—A vocalist having heard support of contageous support of a man who was said to possess a deeper tenance and manners. Yes! and he was "I see how it is, Laura; well you shall bass voice than himself, rode about a hunter of this deliberation of a man who was said to possess a deeper tenance and manners. Yes! and he was "I see how it is, Laura; well you shall bass voice than himself, rode about a hunter of this deliberation of a man who was said to possess a deeper tenance and manners. Yes! and he was "I see how it is, Laura; well you shall bass voice than himself, rode about a hunter of this deliberation of a man who was said to possess a deeper tenance and manners. Yes! and he was "I see how it is, Laura; well you shall bass voice than himself. The calculation of the calculatio to his home, to carry a pearl of matchless feelings, and tenderness; "I have really lost notes four or five degrees lower, "Your broken down by injudicious treatment, or juvenile Hearing of the great success of Tix Isbias's Pa-prentice who could or would not be initia- prix at a successful privarily between suffici to say that the next day the tables are sent in words. One day he represented such a Herritine day, that modern Physicians - in their But what has all this to do with the home; not given-but only accepted as a fa-shockingly inaccurate proof as made his ambition to exert in their profession, to explore rayers of a mother and a sister? Let me vor! ted, is the son of a mother in Israel! and siness. We sensusly recommend its consid- the ill disposing dead the following recipe: tone, everbook and neglect, as beneath then the brother of the rate a missionary in cration as a study to our lady readers. Scold- "My mon" just going name this night, and notice the rich and bronteous stores of medicine

Laird of Logan.

Pit of Human Bones .- A singular discov- his own country with an endless profusion.

A clergyman in D conshire the other day, From a long residence among a portion of the ful! Here, take this other piece of copy; do not agree with me." The next day a far- some of their most successful practioners, the prowould be more wholesome.

sheriffalty, in Stokes county, N. C. at the re- he proprietor offers this preparation to the pub-a brain fever," was the reply. Not less ready and bring was the retort of the "long rounced eared frishman," who, being banteringly asked, "Paddy, my jewsi, why don't you get your cars cropped " they are too large for a man," "And yours are too small for an

Penetration has an appearance of divining which flamers our vanity more than all the other qualities of the mand.

Pedantry is a vice of the mind, not of the profession.

Retalation. There are many ways of resenting an injury. Such as spitting in a mon's lashed together, by which simple conveyance face-chopping off his dog's tail-upsetting several families from New England were his crib-hoisting his horse in your garret, transporting themselves and their property to or pulling up his watermelon vines. But an These it completely removes and in all cases I old lady in a neighboring town has displayed entirely eradicates the disease and the effects of a more sublime and enlarged taste in the scia small house crected on it, and on each was ence of revenge. A woman had reported in accepted sore throat, its happy effects are not a stack of hay, round which several horses something about her, which might be true and cows were feeding, while the paraphernatiand might not. Instead of assuring her with ha of a farm yard, the ploughs, wagons, pigs, the tongue or broomstick, as is usual in such children and poultry, carelessly distributed, cases, the injured hidy immediately ordered gave to the whole more the appearance of a large two story outhouse which stood in her looking old lady, with spectacles on her nose, overlooking the yard. The ol lady assisted was seated on a chair at the door of one of in moving the building, and by her inspiriting the cabins, employed in knitting; another female was at the wash tub, the men were work. In a few hours all the windows on one chewing their tobacco with as much compla- side of the gos-ip's house was completely cency as if they had been in the land of stea- darkened, and the surps - I inhabitants were obliged to light a condicat noonday.

Industry .- It has been said with great truth that mar most have occupation or at sligh expense. They carry with them miserable. Toil is the price of sleep an appetite of health and enjoyment. The very necessity which overcomes our natural sloth, with his scolding, squalling, grunting, lowing is a blessing. The whole world does not conand neighing dependants, floats to the point tain a briar or a thorn which divine mercy could have spared. We are happier with the sterility, which we can overcome by industry his hou-chold, and commence business, with than we could have been with spontinees as little ceremony as a grave personage who, plenty, and unbounded profusion. The bod and the mind are improved by the toil that had " nothing to do but walk in and hang up fatigues them. The toil is a thousand times rewarded by the pleasure which it bestows. Its enjoyments are peculiar No wealth can purchase them. No indolence can taste that which they remove.

Except -The following profound remark

"Life's like a field of blackberry and raspgates; and as he comes out I will take de- pick the fruit, no matter how they black their he Marine Hospital in this City, upwards of fourt liberate aim at him at six feet distance, fingers; while genius, proud and perpendicus months nearly, and the same length of time in the

The Indian's Panacea.

ted to Louis Phillippe."

and Internal Abscesses. Fistules. Files. Scalid cers in melnet. After trying several Physicians

A Bass Voice.—A vocalist having heard head, Scarsey, Biles, Chronic, Sore Eyes, Lye reto no advantage, I went to Philodelphia, and placed ever name or kind

To the Public.

India! The former has been for many | ing does much, for as the old riddle says, tell your mither to boil Fulton and Knight's which the almighty has caused to spring out of the Dictionary in milk, and take it for your supper, as that seems the only way you'll eight countries for many of his most common and ever get spelling put INTO ye."-The necessary articles perpetually changing as they are the dictates of fashion or folly he is surrounded in has it, was formed at the creation—flattery, cry has been made in Canada about 11 miles. The congenium, queueucy and sarring of vegefrom Dunds. The carth was seen to be sunk contrasting the ancient practice with the modern sway Instead of divide, our new state se- about 15 inches, which caused search to be or, to bring it more immediately under our own obmade, when a large number of pits, ten or servation, the Indian practice with that of the twelve in number, were found containing human bones, and various Indian implements, evidently showing that not far from two thou- remedies alone, has effected the most rapid and assand Indians had been haddled into these re- tonishing cures, after the whole Materia Medica of sand Indians had been muddled through the common practice, directed in the most skiiful ceptacles, and buried without the least order manner has failed. And who has not been surprisor system, and in great haste. Large trees ed at beholding the comparative case and facility were growing over some of these sepulchres with which the Indian frees himself of any dis--the kettles, pots, hatchets, brass spoons, ease, and at the almost total absence of chronic dis--the kettles, pots, hatchets, brass spoons, ease among them. Who has ever heard of an In-earthen cups, wampum, &c. were rotted and dan with a constitution broken and ruined by illa long time buried. One hundred and twen- exemption of the savage from most of the ills ty-five skeletons were found in one of the pits, which the ilesh of civilized man is heir to, is chieny ty-five skeletons were found in one of the pits, and the developer says that some of the skel- he employs. This astonishing difference in success, etons must have belonged to men as much as is a fair exemplification of the infinite superiority eight feet in height. There is probably some of the shaple and safe means of cure which God ter' to the foreman to be read over in the Indian tradition which would throw light and has created for the benefit of his children, over interest on this curious hill of human bones. visted.

after having endeavored to explain some dif- aboriginal inhabitants of this country, and an intiknow a p from a q? Be careful - more care- ficult text said, "I know that commentators mate aequaintance with the methods of cures of mer in his village brought him a basket of prictor f the "Tax Isp. av s Panacia," acquired a knowledge of some of their most powerful and potatoes, and said that as "common tators" a knowledge of some of their most powerful and potatoes, and said that as "common tators" avorable remedies. From these he selected such did not agree with him, he had brought him as were most edicacious and appropriate, and after the types and looks at them well, to be sure a basket of his best kelneys, which he hoped various experiments to test their principles and trength he has combined them in the form here presented, as the moss perfect and beneficial for A nano contest. - The candidates for the the purpose for which it is recommended.

cent election, were Messrs Stone and Flynt, lie, with the consciousness that he is placing with-A coxcomb, not very remarkable for the in its teach, a remedy capable of relieving many of his afflicted fellow beings, who are suffering unacuteness of his feelings or his wit, wishing der the various chronic and obstinate complaints to banter a testy old gentleman, who had late- to which it is applicable. To such it will prove of y garmshed his mouth with a complete set incalculable value as the means and in many exof false teeth, flippently inquired, " Well, my ses the only means of relieving their sufferings and, good sir, I have often heard you complain of This is not offered as a common similar, that may vont masticators; pray, when do you expect perchance be equally good with many others now to be again troubled with the tooth sche?" in use, to use a which is capable of saving life in "When you have an affection of the heart or many extreme cas -, when all the usual remedies Thus it has done repeatedly; and this is the putation it has obtained wherever it has been in-

> It is only about three years since this preparait was first presented to the public; but in that dort pace of time, some hundreds of persons eight be found, who would solemnly declare that hey believed that their lives were saved by it, and in most cases after they had tried many per raps all the common remedies in vain. Wherever is known it is rapidly coming into use, and this ds the most substantial and convincing proof

The value of the l'apacca, is most conspicuous n those long standing and obstinate syphilitie and erousiens affections, which have deficed all other remedies, and particularly in those cases where mercury has been so lavishly u od as to cause distressing pains in the bones, nodes, mercurial uters, derangement of the digestive organs, &c mercury renovates the constitution, and leave the patient sound and well. In Rheumatisms and pparent, giving almost immediate rehef.

Taxon in proper doses. The Indian's Panacea perates as an alternative, and detergent; a diam retic, duretic and fixative, an antipasmedel and analyne, and in proper cases, as a storoughniand emmenagogue. Generally expressed, it sie permanent residence, than of a caravan of ward to be moved up directly against her quar- creases all the secretions and exertions, gives tenreadventurers seeking a home A respectable relsome neighbors windows-said windows to the stomach, and excites action in the glands in particular manner. From these principles the seration may be understood

> This medicine has been found highly useful in iany ambiguous diseases not here specified, and it as been used with wonderful success as a Spring ad Fall purpher, by these who are subject to comlaints of the chest, and whose constitutions retire new visor. Such persons will do well to se two or three bottles in small doses. Whereve det driek is considered necessary, the Panacea on in a small dose, will answer all its purposes > such less time, at less expense, and in a far we agreeable manner, than the common diet The following certificates, out of hundreds simir which might be procured, are given to show

> o effect of THE INDIAN's PANACEA, in the varius complaints therein mentioned; and also to exbut in the most satisfactory manner its superioriover the syrups in common use

CASES OF RHILL ATISM.

Ciran reres, Nov. 15, 1831. During the last winter and spring, I was afflicd with a very severe and distressing Kheumatism ecasioned by exposure in bad weather. I now take great pleasure in stating, that six bottles of the Indian's l'anacea, restored me to perfect health, and I confidently recommend it to all simdarly afflicted.

JOHN FERGUSON, King-st. Universities March 27, 1832

I as seized about three years since with a distressing Rheumatism caused by taking a severe old while under the induence of mercury, and which has disabled me from business nearly ever dy, with little benefit. On the 10th of February and at that time scarcely able to move about upon crutches, I commenced the use of The Indian's Panaera. In one month I found myself entirely ared from the pain, and am now happy to state tha I teel myself perfectly well WM-TICKER, 13 Marketest. CURE FOR SCROFT LOUS ULCERS NIW YORK, Sept 10, 1830.

This may certify, that in the fall of 1825, I was seized with a swelling in my neck and face, which afterwards ulcerated and became large ghastly ulsuch a honever, in cases similar to my own, I was remaind to try if, as a last resort. To my great surprise as well as satisfaction. I soon found invaelt appelly recovering and upon taking seven bottles, chers healed and becameperfectly well in the insent two months, and have remained so ever I make this statement and wish it published for the benefit of those who are suffering under similar scrofulous or syphilitic affections, that they may know what has cured one who has suffered every thing but death, and who considers his lift sweet by the above sorm W.M. HINHAN. saved by the above syrup The above Medicine may be had at

WILLIAM REYNOLDS DRUG STORE, CAMDEN, S. C.

For sale at this Office.