

disposition; they have done it with their eyes open and deserve their destiny." In relation to the probable application of Texas for admission into the Confederacy, he gives it as his opinion that "Congress ought not even to entertain such a proposition in the present state of the controversy."

THE LEGISLATURE.

This body assembled on Monday last. The senate was organized by the election of PATRICK NOBLE President, JACOB WARLEY Clerk, J. D. GALLARD Messenger, and Mr. HARRISON Door Keeper. In the house, D. L. WARDLAW Esq. was elected Speaker, T. W. GLOVER Clerk, JAMES D. TRADEWELL Reading Clerk, and JESSE S. NETTLES of this place, Messenger.

EXPRESS MAIL.

The Post Master General has ordered that this mail be hereafter opened in this place.

We have heard some complaints from persons on the route direct from this place to Charleston, that the Stage had not commenced running this season as usual, and that persons were put to great inconvenience, and liable to imposition by going round via Columbia. We have made inquiry on this subject and take pleasure in saying that the Stage is now running regularly direct via Sumterville.

The citizens of Georgetown in this State, at a public meeting on the 21st ult. adopted a memorial to the Legislature, praying for the incorporation of a Bank in that Town, with a capital of two hundred thousand dollars with the privilege of increasing it to four hundred thousand dollars.

FATAL AFFRAY.—A Mr. JAMES CAMPBELL was killed in Charleston, on Sunday night last, by a person named WILLIS, the driver of an Omnibus. WILLIS had been arrested.

MELANCHOLY.—The New York papers contain an account of the wreck of the ship Bristol from Liverpool for New York, on Rockaway beach, on Monday morning the 21st ult. There were supposed to be, including passengers and ship company, 120 souls on board, only 24 of whom it is said escaped a watery grave.

PERIODICALS.

SOUTHERN LITERARY MESSENGER.—We had almost come to the conclusion that the publisher had out of our acquaintance, as he kept us out of the October number such a length of time. We are pleased however, to find ourselves mistaken, and hope that if we should occasionally have to find fault with the work, he will bear it philosophically. The present number of the Messenger sustains the high reputation it has made for itself. The articles are all original and highly interesting and instructive. The Critical Notices which occupy a large portion of every number, are in the present instance, in our opinion, almost faultless. The Editor manifests less of that sarcasm and pedantry, and exhibits more liberality than we have noticed in some of the preceding numbers.

LADY'S BOOK.—We are indebted to Mr. GORRY for the November number of this work. It is embellished with a beautiful coloured engraving of the Millions, and a piece of Music. Mr. GORRY is one of the most enterprising publishers in the country and deserves to be encouraged. In order to render the "LADY'S BOOK" still more meriting and receiving a liberal patronage still more attractive, he has secured the aid of Mrs. HALE, to take charge of the Editorial department. The qualifications of Mrs. HALE for discharging with ability the task she has undertaken is too well known to require us to say any thing on that subject. The high character of the "American Lady's Magazine" which she conducted for many years, is a guarantee that the "Lady's Book" will not suffer in her hands.

The Mobile Morning Chronicle of the 9th ult. says:

Among other resolutions passed at a late meeting of the Mobile Rifle Corps, respectful to the worth and memory of M. J. Wheeler, late lieutenant in that company, was one adopting his only child, a beautiful little girl, seven years of age, and pledging themselves to cherish, support and educate her. This was a noble and magnanimous act, and cannot be excelled in a tone too high and exalted.—The father was a man of high and ennobled feelings, was a better friend to others than to himself, and left that only pledge of his love to his wife, which the members of the Rifle Company have adopted as their own. This is a beautiful moral upon the character of our young population. They now stand to her as a father, and they are to cherish educate and support her.
