VOLUME 11.

CAMDEN, SOUTH-CAROLINA, OCTOBER 11, 1850.

NUMBER 81.

FOUTH CAROLINA AND THE SOUTH .--- The letter of Gov. Seabrook which we published marked as a postscript, and which we did not feel at liberty to make public without further authority, which we now have. The note stated that notwithstanding the reasons given in the letter for reserve and caution on the part of this State, in a certain contingency, which his Excellency hoped would occur, he would Gov Seabrook's letter was written before the proclamation of Gov. Towas had reached him.

We now add the important movement of the Governor of Mississippi, whose terse and stirring proclamation we publish to-day. No imputation of precipitancy, or ambition of leadership, can rest upon South Carolina now, and we can hardly doubt that under this striking change of circumstances, his Excellency will decide that the reasons for reserve on the part of this State have altogether disappeared, and that the time for the decisive move has come.

To hold back now, would look, not like a re-fusal of leadership, but like a betrayal and de-section of our stster States,-and to such a proceeding we need not say we hold Gov. Seabrook utterly incapable for one moment of lending his countenance. To act, when the action of South Carolina could add strength, instead perhaps of weakness, doubt and division, to the sacred cause she is pledged to serve, -this, we know well, has been the aim of Gov. Seabrook, and he will not fail to see that inaction now would be construed as pusillanimity rather than discretion. We cannot doubt what his course Presentimen .. - There is a singular circumstance connected with the death of Mrs. Charles Wellman of this city. Five years ago, she predicted that in 1850 she would die. This belief she had eversince confidently maintained. About two months since, when in her usual health, she expressed some apprehension that she might have done wrong in marrying, when she must so soon take a final leave of her husband.

When her sister came to see her, during her fourteen years old when this strange presenti-ment impressed itself upon her mind .- Hanni.

A LUMP OF GOLD .- A wife of Mr. Solomon

To My Old Friends in Kershaw. HAVING paid particular attention to the growth of different kinds of new cotton seed for the last four years, I became so convinced of the superiority of some of them to the gulf cotton, that I bought last fall every seed with which my crop is planted and am fully satisfied that I shall be hand-somely paid for so "oing. I have the Pront. Baunana, Pomegranate, Harris, and golden chaff. This year I think the goiden chaff and Pomegranate, are doing best of a wet year, and on fresh land the Harris cotton will or has made more than any

If any of my acquaintances should feel disposed to try them I will forward any reasonable amount to Charleston, nearly put up in strong sacks at one dollar per bushel and this is what I pail here other. for all but the golden chaff, for these I paid 85 per bushel. The expense to Charleston cannot be more than one dollar more in other, words, I will deliver any reasonable amount of the seed in Charleston at $2 per bushel. Any one sending an order shall have the seed of the kind ordered. Locald remark however, that I have no great many of the golden chaff to spare, as I purpose planting largely of them, this is an early cotton with very extended branches even to the top. The golden chaff seed commanded $5 per.
