LIFE IS SWEET.

"Oh life is sweet," said a merry child; "And I love, I love to roam

In the mealows green, neath the sky serene-Oh! the world is a fairy home. There are trees hung thick with blossoms fair, And flowers and gay birds bright, There's the moon's clear ray and the sun-lit day Oh, the world is a world of Light!"

"Th, life is sweet," said a gallant youth, As he coun'd the storied page; And he ponder'd on the days by gone, And the fame of a former age. There was hope in his bright beaming eye,

And he long'd for riper years: He clung to life—he dared its strife— He felt no dread nor fears.

"Oh life is sweet," came merrily From the lips of a fair young bride; And a happy smile she gave the while To the dear one by her side. "Oh, life is sweet! for we shall live Our constancy to prove,

Thy sorrows are mine, my trials thine, Our solace in our love. "Oh life is sweet," said a mother fond, As she gazed upon her helpless child; And she closer prest, to her gladdened breast Her babe who unconscious smiled.

"My life shall be for thee, my child, Pure, guiltiess, as thon art; And who shall dare my soul to tear From the tie that forms a part! "Oh life is sweet," said an aged sire,

Whose eye was sunk and dim: His form was bent-his strength was spent-Could life be sweet to him? On ves, for round the old man's chair

His children's children clung: And each dear face and warm embrace Made life seem ever young.

Thus life is sweet from early youth To weak enfeebled age: Love twines with life through care and strife, In every varied stage.

Though rough perchance, the path we tread, And dark the sky above. In every state there's something yet,

To live for and to love.

Farm the Fairfield Heraid.

Mr. Editor: Looking upon disunion as a "fixed fact"-that this rotten and corrupt concern counct much longer hold together, I venture to predict that the following blessings will result to the South therefrom:

A more extended, purer and rational liberty, with greater harmony and good will among the members of the Southern Confederacy, than has ever existed between them under the present Union.

Free trade, with greater prosperity to all the various interests, agricultural, mechanical, commercial and manufacturing-cotton never less than 10 cents per pound, oftener 20,

Greater strength and greater security to our domestic institutions, with an entire stoppage of border thieving and kidnapping, on the part of the North.

Grenter extension of education, religion and morality.

More railroads, and internal improvements generally.

Negroes and land increased in value from 50 to 100 per cent.

Pauperism unknown in the land, and If these predictions do not prove true, it is useless to attempt to reason from cause to ef-PROPHET.
