

The Camden Journal.

CAMDEN, SOUTH-CAROLINA, JANUARY 3, 1851.

NUMBER 100

VOLUME 12.

THE ENGLISH FACTORY GIRL.

'Twas on a winter morning,
The weather wet and mild,
Three hours before the dawning,
The father roused his child;
Her daily morsel bringing,
The darkness room he paced,
And cried, "the bell is ringing,
My hapless darling haste!"

"Father, I'm up, but weary;
I scarce can reach the door,
And long the way and dreary,
O carry me once more!
To help us, we're no mother,
You've no employment nigh;
They killed my little brother,
Like him, I'll work—and die!"

Her wasted form seemed nothing,
The load was at his breast,
The sufferer his best soothing
Till at the mill they part.
The over-looker he met her,
As to her frame she crept,
And with his strong he beat her,
And cursed her as she wept.

Alas! what hours of sorrow
Made up her latest day;
Too slowly passed away;
It seem'd as she grew weaker,
The threads the oflen broke,
The rapid wheels ran quicker,
And heavier fell the stroke.

The sun had long descended,
But night brought no repose;
Her day had ended,
As cruel tyrants choose,
At length to a little neighbor,
A half penny she paid,
To take her last hour's labor,
While by her frame she laid.

At last; the engine ceasing,
The aspires, her strength increasing—
She thought her strength increasing—
The hope, her spirit flourish'd—
She left, but on the road;
She fell and rose no more,
Till, by her comrades carried,
She reach'd her father's door.

At night, with torrid feelings,
He watch'd his sleepless child;
And kneeling, in prayer,
His wife's name not so mild,
His last precious tried,
When from her straw-bed springing,
She said "I shriek'd, and died!"

That night a chisel pass'd her,
While on the ground she lay,
The daughter of her master
His coming visit pay.

Those tender hearts were sighing,
The wrongs were told;
While the white slave was dying,
Who gain'd their father's gold!

Darlington Hotel, DARLINGTON COURT-HOUSE.

THE above House having been purchased and fitted up anew by JOHN DOREN, is again opened for the accommodation of the Public. Strict attention to the wants and comforts of guests will be given, and no effort, calculated to merit the patronage of all who may favor the establishment with a visit, shall be spared.

All that the market and surrounding country afford will be found upon the table.

Comfortable rooms, for families or individuals, are prepared.

The Stables will be attended by careful and attentive hostlers.

Drivers can be well accommodated, as any number of horses and mules can be kept in the stables and lots expressly prepared for them.

Nov. 1, 1850.

MANSION HOUSE, CAMDEN, S. C.

THE subscriber respectfully announces to his friends and the TRAVELLING PUBLIC generally, that he has opened a HOTEL, that large and commodious house in Log Town, formerly the private residence of H. Perkins, esq.

The building is admirably adapted for that purpose, being situated in the most healthy and pleasant part of Camden, combining all the advantages of the town with the balmy atmosphere of the country, and within a few minutes' walk of any part of Camden. The rooms are large and airy, his servants respectful and attentive, and he pledges himself to spare no pains in keeping up an attractive and well supplied TABLE, and to use every exertion to please those who may call upon him.

His STABLES will be found commodious, and always fully supplied with Provender.

The House being conducted on Temperance Principles, he flatters himself that those who favor him with a call will find the MANSION HOUSE not only the comforts and attention of a well regulated Hotel, but the quiet retirement of a Home.

Charges moderate.

All the Stages arriving in the place, and the Omnibuses running to the Depot, will call at the House when desired.

E. G. ROBINSON.

Camden, Sept. 1, 27

HUNTER'S HOTEL, CAMDEN, S. C.

THE subscriber having located in Camden, would respectfully say to the public that he has opened a Public House two doors below the Post Office, and hopes by strict attention to business to share a liberal patronage.

My Stables are good, and well supplied with Provender, and my Table shall always be supplied with as good as the market affords.

I am certain that those who once favor me with a call will be willing to call again.

I have also a good Wagon Yard, with a good water and horse conveniences, for the accommodation of Waggoners.

I will also attend to the Commission Business, and all Goods consigned to my care, or left with me for sale shall meet with prompt attention.

Charges moderate.
