VOLUME 12.

CAMDEN, SOUTH-CAROLINA, JANUARY 10, 1851.

Darlington Hotel, DARLINGTON COURT-HOUSE.

THE above House having been purchased and fitted up anew by JOHN DOTEN, is again open-ed for the accommodation of the Public. Strict attention to the wants and comforts of guests will be given, and no effort, calculated to merit the patronage of all who may favor the establishment with a visit, shall be spared.

All that the market and surrounding country afford will be found upon the table.

Comfortab e rooms, for families or individuals, are prepared. The Stables will be attended by careful and attentive hostlers. Drovers can be well accommodated, as any number of horses and mules can be ept in the stables and lots expressly prepared for them. Nov. 1, 1530. 86 tf Nov. 1, 1850.

MANSIONHOUSE. CAMDEN, S. C.

THE subscriber respectfully announces to his friends and the TRAVELLING PUBLIC generally, that he has opened, as a HOTEL, that large and commodio's house in Log Town, formerly the private residence of B. Perkins, esq. The building is admirably adapted for that purpose, being situated in the n ost healthy and pleasant part of Camden, combining all the advanta ges of the town with the balmy atmosphere of the country, and within a tew minutes' walk of any part of Camden. The rooms are large and airy, his Servants respectful and attentive, and he pledges himself to spare no pains in keeping up an attractive and well supplied TABLE, and to use every exertion to please those who may call upon him.

His STABLE - will be found commodious, and always fully supplied with Provender, The House being conducted on Temperance Principles, he flatters himself that those who favor him with a call will find the MANSION HOUSE not only the comforts and attention of a well regulated Hotel, but the quiet retirement of a Home. Charges moderate.

GAll the Stages arriving in the place, and the Omnibuses running to the Depot, will call at the House when desired.

E. G. ROBINSON. 27 uí Camden, Sept. 1.

HUNTER'S HOTEL, CAMDEN, S. C.

THE subscriber having located in Camden, would respectfully say to the public that he has opened a Public House two doors below the Post Office, and hopes by strict attention to busi ness to share a liberal patronage.

My Stables are good, and well supplied with Provender, and my Table shall always be supplied with as good as the market affords.

I am certain that those who once favor me with a call will be willing to call again.

I have also, a good Wagon Yard, with wood, water and house convenient, for the accommodation of Wagoners.

I will also attend to the Commission Business, and all Goods consigned to my care, or left with ne for sale shall meet with prompt attention.

D'Charges moderate. JAMES M. HUNTER. 93 Nov. 26.
