verily believe separate State action would be accordance with the wishes of our enemies. Although not an advocate for separate State action or secession, nevertheless continued agression from Northern fanaticism, of the infringement of State Rights by Federal legislation would impel me to advocate it as a dernier

In conclusion, I beg leave to say, that whilst I appreciate the compliment conferred by my nomination, yet it was neither expected nor desired, and I shall be gratified at the selection of those who are more able and gifted to represent the District, but as I have never refused to discharge any duty required of me by my fellow-citizens, neither now will I shrink from responsibility, but with this proviso, that it elected to the Convention, I am to go free and untrammelled by any pledge in the exercise of my judgement, in whatever may affect the interest and honor of South Carolina.

January 27th, 1851. C. J. SHANNON.

Correspondence of the Mercury

Washington, Jan. 23, 1851. I alluded in my last letter to the grand Afriean Colonization Meeting which was held on Tuesday night. The chief orators were Mr. Clay and the Rev. Dr. Fuller of Baltimore .-They mutually exalted each other by a profusion of flattering compliments; and the Divine and the Politician; each in his own vein. worked admirably to the same end, to aid in billeting the Colonization Society, with all its trumpery, on the United States Treasury. Mr. Clay erged at length, and with much earnestness, the propriety of Congress taking in hand this business of colonizing the free negroes, by supporting the African line of steamers. But Mr. Fuller went far beyond Mr. Clay, in his projects on the Treasury. He proposed and urged that Congress should make an annual appropriation to buy up the slaves at the South, in order to ship them to Africa. This is cool, certainly. The Southern slaveholder to furnish Depass. money, in the first place, to buy up his own slaves, and in the second, to pay for transporting them to Africa. And yet Mr. Fuller claimed to be a Southern man, to abhor the schemes of the Abolitionists, and to consider the Union in extreme danger from the agitation of the slavery queston, at the very moment that he was opening this fathomless abyss of agitation. There seems absolutely no limit to the infatuation of so called philanthropy, when it has once entered the brain of an unhappy mortal.

"The Mutual Insurance Association," as they call the new league between certain members of Congress, to keep out of office, State and Federal, all who will not pledge themselves to at and by the "Compromise," and to appropriate all the said offices to themselves, came up in the Senate yesterday. Mr. Clay and Mr. Foote were of course head members of of the "Asso ciation." But only nine Demscrats have taken stock in the concern, and we may guess that the pressing motive that drew Mr. Foote and Mr. Cobb into it, was the extreme need they felt of being "insured" by somebody. They are in a predicament-groping in the most bewildering darkness, with both hands stretched out to feel for the dangers ahead which they fear all the more from not being able to tell when or in what precise shape they will start up. Hence they are trying to get up all sort; of new platforms. The Whigs are swallowing them; they feel it; they are trying, but in vain, to escape their jaws. Their position, and their struggles to mend it, are becoming equally ridi-

OUR RAILROAD. - In a late table, prepared and published at the North, we see, in a comparative statement as to the rate per mile, that the fare from Charleston to Hamburg is placed at 8 dollars. This is an error. It is four dollars; and the same to Columbia.

While writing on this topic it is but justice to say that, the Road from Hamburg to Charlestou, over which we have lately travel ed is being made one of the most delightful in the Southwest. The moment a traveller enters on it, so smooth is the motion, so splendid and comfortable the cars, so polite and attentive the conductors, that general exclamations of satisfaction, come from the passengers. The arrangements at the Charleston Depot, are superior to anything of the same nature in the country .- Evening News.

What is beautiful? A good man struggling with misfortune, and preserving untainted his reputation. A dutiful child obeying mandates of parents, and walking in the way of righteous.

VALUABLE TESTIMONY FROM THE SOUTH. We like at all times, to give credit when credit is due, and if at the same time we can relieve the distressed, we and it at the same time we can relieve the distressed, we are doubly gratified; we, therefore, give the following voluntary testimony as to the beneficial effects of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, by the editor of the Columbia South Carolinian, who appears to have obtained great relief by its use.—[Old Dominion Portsmouth, Va. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

We seldom resort to patent medicines, having a great respect for the skill of the regular profession, but chance threw into our way the above named medicine, immediately after the close of the last session of the Legislature, when our lungs were almost dried up by the highly rarified atmosphere of our stove-warmed State House. The Balsam immediately relieved us of a most harassing cough, which threatened our health in a serious degree. We feel that we are indebted to it for some fifteen pounds of animal weight—which addition once FELT, cannot be forgotton CALTION—The only require and original article. CAUTION.—The only genuine and original article, was first introduced in the year 1833. It has been well tested, and appreciated for ten years, in all the complaints for which it has been recommended, viz:—Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Bronchitis, Ashma, and Consumption, in its incipient stages. No other medicine has proved more efficacious. On account of the unbounded popularity of efficacions. On account of the unbounded popularity of this article, it has been extensively counterfeited, by per-sons who know nothing of the ingredients of this original compound

None genuine unless signed I. BUTTS on the wrapper, bor sale in Camden at McKAINS' Drug Store. Wholesale by P. M. COHEN & Co., Charleston, S. C., and by Drugists generally throughout the State.

Probably no article has ever enjoyed a wider popularity in all diseases of the lungs than 'l'ar. In the shape of Tarwater, Tar funigations, and plasters, it has been used almost from time in morial. Liverwort, too, has been universally regarded as one of nature's choicest horbs. But it was reserve for Prof. Regers to discover the art of extracting, by a new chemical process, their peculiar virtues, and combining them in a manner heretofore unknown, so as to present a preparation unrivaled for its concentration, energy, simplicity, and innocence. This he has done in his Syrup of Liverwort and Tar. UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA, PRANKLIN COLLEGE. I take much pleasure in adding my individual testimony to the public vouchers which the bearer, Mr. John Ronnie Blake, of Abbeville, S. C., will receive from the authorities of this Institution. An intimate connection with him for the past three years has, in the minds of the Faculty, gained for him a high reputation both for intellectual and moral excellence. As a general scholar, he secured a high honor in his class, and never, during his sojourn among us, did he become amenable to discipline.

In my own department, I consider Mr. Blake eminently and decidedly qualified to make a very superior Instructor—and as such I would, with best wishes and in all good faith, recommend him to any community who may wish for a man of good solid acquirements and fine taste.

JAS. WADDEL, Prof. of Ancient Literature in the University of Ga, August 6th, 1846.

Understanding that Mr. Jno. Rennie Blake designs to seek employment as a Teacher, it gives me sincere pleasure to say, that I consider him em inently qualified to engage in the duties of that arduous and highly respectable profession. Mr. Blake'; attainments in scholarship, his persevering industry, his correct moral habits, and Gentlemanly deportment will insure him success. I cordially recommend him to the patronage of the Trustees of schools and others who may need H. HULL, Prof. Math.

Aug. 1st, 1846. Franklin College. LT Very satisfactory communications have also been received from Gov. J. H. Hammond and other gentlemen who have had observation upon Mr.

Blake's success in the management of large Academies. These, also, represent him not only as a scholar, but as a ditigen! and faithful Instructor. Other certificates have been obtained, but the above are deemed sufficient,

The South Carolina Normal School

N accordance with the views presented to the public, in the "Journal" of December 20th, the subscriber will open a Normal School near Russell Place, Kershaw District, on the 20th of January

The School will be one of high order, in which all the branches of thorough English and Glassical educations shall be taught.

The Institution is designed, primarily for the training of teachers, and to turnish a liberal education to those desirous of becoming teachers, whose means are limited. Nevertheless, its advantages, as a place of instruction, will be open to all; and the wealthy and benevolent will render it important aid, by sending their sons to the school.

The boarding department will be so managed, as merely to cover expenses. And both board and tuition will be furnished five, to as many indigent pupils, as can be supported by the funds of the Institution.

In the higher, or teacher's class, every one shall be entitled to free tuition who shall sign an obligation to devote, at least two years after leaving the Institution, to the business of teaching, within the State,—the preserence being given to the district from which the pupil comes.

Testimonials of good moral character will be required in every instance. Those friendly to the enterprize, are desired to pledge themselves for a definite sum, to be paid over by instalments as they may be needed; forward their pledges to the subscriber; and, as soon as convenient, organize themselves into a Society for the management of the funds.

The necessary expenses of the Institution will be the erection of suitable plain buildings; the board of indigent pupils, and the salary of a competent superintendent teacher, as soon as the school shall be firmly established. No salary having as yet been fixed, arrangements will be made, for the present, with the friends of the cause; with the aid derived from a few paying pupils, to commence the exercises at time specified.

The price of paying pupils will vary from $7 to $16 per session of five months, invariably in advance.
