SERBOUS ACCIDENT ON THE MODILE AND Onto Extendate.-The mail train which left the city at a quarier past six o'clock last night net with a scrious accident about 7 miles from the city, between eight mile and Kushla stations. The cars seemed to be going on at a moderate rate of speed, and the first notice the passengers had of danger was a sudden shock and the peculiar grating sound which to a protracted car, in railway travelling, conveys the unpleasant informa-tion that the cars are off the track. The shock was not very severe as far back as the ladies' and sleeping cars-but when it was over, and the various passengers had time to look forward, the picture of desolution was serious enough.

The locomomorive was careened over on the side, lying partly on the track and partly in the disch. The tender was lying directly neross the rack, and sad to relate, pressing down with all its heavy weight upon the prostraje form of the Engineer, Mr. James Smith, who appears to have been instantly killedand the Express car was thrown entirely off the rails to one side of the track.

The damage, except in the loss of life and The damage, except in the loss of the and the delay of trains, will not be very great.

The fiteman and wood passer were saved by jumping off the opposite side of the engine from the Engineer. Some of the men received confusions or sprains, but nothing serious. The unfor whate engineer, thus suddenly cut off, leaves a wife and two children to mourn his untimely fate.

Moldie Advertiser and Register.

By a private letter received from, Mobile, we are induced to believe that the engineer killed by the above accident was Mr. T. H. Smith, who was for so many yeers'a resident of this place, and an engineer on our Rai Road, and who had but to ently 'of us, with the hope of bettering his situation.

AN OUTDAGE .- On Christmas Eve night. about the rising of the moon, a band of seven or eight men rode up to the door of Mr. James McCarty, an old man living on the Columbia Road, about fourteen miles from this place. Three of them dismounted, entered the house, represented themselves as "Yan-kees," demanded Mr.-McCarty's keys, forced them from him, unlocked a small from safe in which he kept his money and papers, and took from it one thousand and sixteen dollars in gold; one hundred and thirty old in silver; one hundred and fifty in greenbacks and ten thousand dollars worth of notes and accounts. They then left the house and rejoined their camrades at the gate, taking with them the said money and papers- They took with them also, Mr. McCarry's shot gun, already loaded. Mr. McCarry and his wife followed them into the piazza, and anothey made ready to ride off, denomined them. At this, the old man's own gut was fixed at him. He received in one leg some thirty or forty squirrel shot. Mrs. McCarly was also painfully wounded in the thigh, one large ball, apparently from a revolver, passing entirely through the leg. After this the desperadoes rode off with their boory.—Edg-field Advertiser.

DESTRUCTION OF THE VAUCLUSE MILLS.-We briefly alluded, yesterday, to the destruc-tion by fire, on the night of the 3d insi., of the Vauciuse Mills, situated on Horse Creek, about three and a half miles above Graniteville, S. C. Further particulars of the unfortunate acol leat have come into our possession and are as follows:

sion and are as follows:

The fire was first discovered by the Watchman, to be in the fifth slory. By the time the shain was given, the entire sto waite and reaf, were in flames, which in a few moments, wrappe the whole building within their desiructive embrace. The mill and making the state of the last the state of machinery are a total loss. The building was a granite one of five stories, and was eighty feet in length, by forty feet in width. The factory ran four thousand spindles—manufacturing fine yarns and cloth. It had but recently been relitied and supplied with new and costly machinery, and was owned by James J. Gregg. Jr.

Upwards of one hambred and twenty operatives were constantly employed in the building. This untimely conflagration leaves three hundred persons in a precarious condition .- Any. Chronicle.

The Hon. Arthur P. Hayne, a venerable and estremed citizen of Charlesion, departed this life on Monday. He was a man of the highest character and the most irreproachable integrity, and had discharged many positions of honor out trust, and had always fulfilled their duties with credit to biases? and the State. He was on the scaff of Gen. Jackson at the memorable battle of New Crleans-thy-one years ago. Mr. Hayne was a resident of this city during the war. Columbia Phonix.

Washington: I learn from a reliable source that the Hou.

Mr. Morris, formerly a member of Congress from lilinois, and other prominent Conserva-tives of that State, intend to meet to-morrow night at Springachi for the purpose of cousidering a proposition to nominate General Grant for the next President. Some of the parties intend to urge the proposed Considutional Amendment as part of the platorin in this movement, but this proposition is not likely to meet with unanimous favor. Leading Democrats of other States have been invited to join the Illinoisians in their meet-

The Instead Post asks. "If the present Congress can abrogale the present the rents of the Southern States, why can't the next Congress abrogate Governments recognized by this Congress, and one Congress after another go on in the same way? The question is pertinent. The decirines of the radicals tend ultimately to anarchy."
