There is a petition at the store of Mesers. Kennedy & McDowall to be presented to Congress asking for ar ppropriation to straighten, clear ut, and make navigable the Waterer iver. This is right and proper, and we trust that it will be generally igned. It will be of immense alantage to our State, and Mr. A. M. Kennedy deserves thanks for the a lefatigable energy displayed in his matter.

Tr. H nry Abbay's Poems.

Ve love received and read with: reat deal of pleasure Mr. Abbey's est litt'e volume of poems; all o chieb, he becaufully written. His tyle is very manly, graceful and yev, and evinces a high degree o' pocifical merit, abounding with paths, terseness and originality. We re particularly impressed with the beauty of several of his short poems. specially "Low Tide," and "While he Days go by," both of which are very happy efforts.
