SUBSCRIPTION, $1.50 A YEAR Entered at the Camden Post Office as Second Class Mail Matter.

THURSDAY, DEC. 12, 1889.

LOCAL ITEMS.

It would be doing us quite a favor if those of our subscribers who are in arrears would settle their little accounts, as we have obligations to meet.

Children Enjoy.

The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative and if the father or mother be positive or bilious the most gratifying results follow its use, so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have a bottle.

New Crop Nuts.

Almonds, Butter Nuts, English Walnuts, Pecans, and Filberts, at W. J. Jones'.

Consumption Surely Cured.

TO THE EDITOR—Please inform your reader that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been already cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy free to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their express and post office address. Respectfully,
T. A. SLOCUM, M. C., 131 Pearl St., New York.

Masonic Election.

At a meeting of Kershaw Lodge No. 29, A. F. M., held on Tuesday evening 3rd inst., the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:
M. S. Bamberg, W. M.; J. McSmryl, S. W.; John Glass, J. W.; Jas. I. Villepigue, T.; Jno. R. Goodale, S.

Death of a Little Child.

We deeply sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Nicholson in the death of their little child, Una, which occurred on Saturday last. Una was a sweet little girl, about two years and six months old. It seems hard to part with the dear little ones, but it is God's will, and oh, how comforting to know that they are forever best, "for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

Lecture on China.

Gen. Kennedy will deliver a Lecture on China, at the Opera House on Monday evening 16th inst., for the benefit of the Sewing Society of the Presbyterian church. Music will be furnished for the occasion by some of the finest lady performers. Also lunch will be served. Admission 25 cents.

Death of a Good Woman.

Mrs. Rebecca McLain, wife of our popular barber, George McLain, died at her home in Camden on Monday morning, 2nd inst. She was about 40 years of age, was a consistent member of the colored M. E. Church, and was well liked by all who knew her, both white and colored. She was the mother of 12 children, the youngest one being a babe only a few days old.

The Conference Reception Committee.

Too much praise cannot be bestowed upon the young gentlemen composing this committee, consisting of Messrs. Frank M. Zemp, J. E. Vaughan, N. T. Parry, W. J. Jones and E. C. Zemp, who worked unceasingly night and day in receiving and assigning the clergy and lay delegates to their respective homes. Their hearts were in their work, they did it well, and deserve great credit for their energy and good judgment. It was our intention to have made mention of this in our last issue, but it was inadvertently omitted.

Personal.

Mr. J. T. Hay, of the Camden Bar, was in attendance at the Supreme Court in Columbia this week.

Gen. Kennedy may now be found during office hours in his law office on Law Range, over the Treasurer's office.

Col. L. C. Hough of Westville was in town on Saturday.

Brevities.

Fresh Dates at W. J. Jones'.

King's Quick-Shot Powder at J. J. Watkin's.

A new lot of those Fancy Smoked Shoulders, 7 1/2 cents, just received at Arthur's.

Cranberry Sauce, 12 cents, at W. J. Jones'.

King's Quick-Shot Powder, at J. J. Watkin's.

Dried Figs, 12 1/2 cents, at W. J. Jones'.

Those of our subscribers who notice the X mark on their paper will know that the time is out, and we would request that they come in to settle.

Now is a good time to subscribe to the CAMDEN JOURNAL.

Death of Mrs. Nettles.

Mrs. Ann Nettles, relict of the late Mr. Jesse S. Nettles, died at the residence of her son, Mr. Edward S. Nettles, in Kirkwood, on Saturday last, in her eighty-first year. Her funeral was preached at the Baptist Church by Rev. P. V. Bomar on Sunday morning, and was attended by a large concourse of relatives and friends. Mrs. Nettles was one of the oldest members of the Camden Baptist church, having been baptised in 1856, and she died as she had lived, a truly consistent and devoted Christian woman, and with a full assurance of a glorious resurrection. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." To the large circle of relatives and friends we extend our sympathies.

Our American Cousin

Was so handsomely rendered last Tuesday evening by the amateurs of Camden, it has been decided to repeat the performance on Friday evening December 20th at the Opera House. Reserved Seats, 35 cents. General Admission 25 cents.

CITATION.

South Carolina—Kershaw County.
By J. T. Mickle, Judge Probate.
Whereas, Cora M. Arrants made suit to me, to grant her Letters of Administration of the Estate of and effects of Thomas B. Arrants.
There are therefore to cite and admonish all and singular the kindred and creditors of the said Thomas B.
Arrants, deceased, that they be and appear, before me, in the Court of Probate, to be held at Camden on December 31st, 1889, next, after publication hereof, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any they have, why the said Administration should not be granted.
Given under my hand, this 10th day of December A. D. 1889.
J. T. MICKLE,
Judge of Probate.

PURE LARD—FINE FLOUR.

(My Trade Mark.)
NEVER before in the years that I have done business in Camden, have I offered to this community as complete a Stock of

FINE GROCERIES
As is now exhibited in my store. A careful study of the wants of the public, and an abiding faith in their appreciation of QUALITY

Has not led me into any miscalculations as to the success of my enterprise.
In these days of adulteration and fraud,
it would be well for every purchaser to enquire into the quality of the different food products offered for sale. It is not hard to learn if you give it proper attention, and your Grocer, if he knows anything about his business, should be able to give you all the information you desire.

But do not make the mistake to suppose that you "know it all," because you have read a paragraph here and there in the newspapers.
All Butter is not oleomargarine; all Sugar is not glucose; all Lard is not cotton seed oil, tallow, starch and alum; but there is a good deal of it "built that way," and in a great many cases the seller is just about as ignorant as the buyer of the analysis of the goods that are being exchanged between them.

My Goods are intelligently selected, and purity of quality always is and always shall be the first consideration.
