

LOCAL.

We will publish the charges of his Honor Judge Reed, in our next issue.

We call attention to the advertisement of the sale of a fine business stand on main street.

Judge Reed was severe in nearly all of his sentences. The Judge, very properly, does not believe in milk and water justice.

A cotton plant, seven or eight inches high from the field of Mr. J. W. Way has been laid upon our table. Who can beat this?

The Installation of Rev. G. A. Hough as Pastor of the Lutheran Church will take place to-morrow, any visitors will be welcomed. Their new Organ will be used for the first time on that occasion.

Mrs. Ezekiel certainly deserves, and we gratefully offer our thanks for a lot of fine early cabbages sent us the other day they formed quite an addition to our table, and were highly enjoyed by all hands.

See Dr. A. C. Dukes' advertisement of "Green's August Flower." We are told that it works wonders. Go and get a sample vial at least, and while you are at the Doctors, sample his soda water too. It is good.

The Ladies of the Baptist congregation continue their Ice cream festivals on Friday evenings at the Fireman's Hall. Their object is a good one—to purchase an organ for their church, and we are glad to hear that they are making considerable progress.

The present Grand Jury is a fearless and faithful body, and we are satisfied that the committee appointed to investigate the affairs of the county, namely: Col. J. C. Edwards, J. Wallace Cannon and George Williams, will perform their whole duty honestly.

We regret to announce the serious illness of Mr. Luther Ransdale, at his residence in this place. It is to be earnestly hoped that a kind Providence will spare him for years yet to his family, and numerous friends. Since writing the above we learn that Mr. R. is improving.

Mr. Korjoh's cigars are excellent. His store is filled with such things as suit his customers, and at moderate prices. Mr. Charles G. Gabel, and John are his assistants, and are always ready and willing to wait upon buyers. Mr. Korjoh's cigars are excellent.

Mr. C. A. Riley, son of W. L. W. Riley, Esq., has returned from Poughkeepsie, N. Y. where he has been at College. He graduated with much credit to himself, and is now ready to begin the battle of life on his own account. We wish him success in his contemplated undertaking.

J. K. Blackman, Esq., of the News and Courier was in attendance upon the Court of Sessions the present week, representing that paper. He was besieged by those who wanted him to slander their superiors. No wonder he left before Court adjourned. Blackman, we felt for you.

It is with melancholy regret that we announce the death, on Wednesday last, of the only child of Mr. G. W. Baxter. We extend to the bereaved family our sincere sympathies. Their lost one was a very interesting child, and we know its absence, from the family circle, will be borne with pain and anguish by its parents.

W. K. CROOK— Can boast of as neat a grocery store as there is in any town in the State. His groceries are always fresh, and just the kind for family purposes. His motto is to live and let live. Hence, his customers never fail to get bargains at his store. Give him a call and save your money.

Among the cases disposed of during the recent term of the Circuit Court was the case of Dukes vs. DeHay, which had become quite a cause celebre. The case had been on the docket since 1872 and numerous issues both of law and fact were involved. The final decree was rendered on Thursday May 13th, by which the defendant's ditch is to be re-opened, the same having been kept shut up by an order of injunction for three years. Malcolm I. Browning Esq., represented the defendant and Messrs Izlar & Dibble for the plaintiff. The conduct of the case reflects great credit upon the counsel engaged.

The Grand Jury presented Wesley Washington for cursing the Solicitor, and recommended that the Clerk be required to make him enter into surety for his good behavior, or be sent to Jail. Judge Reed ordered the Clerk to issue a bench warrant for the chap, and put him under a bond of six hundred dollars, or be committed. Washington has absconded, but officers are on the look out for him. This much good the present fearless Grand Jury have already accomplished.

Fischer is a prince of good fellows, while perhaps he does not know "how to keep a hotel" he certainly knows how to keep a complete grocery, and a well stocked and well kept bar. This we know "for sure" as his Ganymede walked quietly into our sanctum a few days since and deposited a waiter of good things well calculated to please our Editorial palates. We had an intimation some time since from Fischer of this affair, but must confess to surprise at the Champagne, Segars, Ice, and—but hold up, we can't tell all.

WALLACE CANNON— This gentleman always has an eye to the interest of his patrons, and never allows his stock to run down. And no better evidence of his success need be wanted than the extensive use he makes of printer's ink. Those who sell great quantities of goods, can afford to advertise, while those whose customers are few and far between, cannot afford to spend money for advertising, because their income is too scanty. Cannon does a lively business, and like a progressive man, he finds it profitable to invest a part of his profits in printer's ink. And it pays him. Witness his success, and you will say that his head is level. He makes quick sales, and sells goods low. Let one and all drop in and see him.

A SMALL GOLIATH— Our efficient Clerk of the Court, whom the Grand Jury so highly complimented for the neatness, and good order of his office, was carried before his Honor, Mayor Moseley, on Wednesday last, for fighting in the streets, and fined one dollar. The Mayor considered that the Clerk had been grossly slandered by the party he chastised, and very properly placed a moderate fine upon him. Considering the circumstances all round, and the very great provocation given to Mr. Boliver, we cannot extend much sympathy to the whipped party, or wish that his hat had not gone up into the air. Mr. B. sent his adversary's back to the dust, with one straight sockdologer from his shoulder, which sprang his hand slightly. Except this and the dollar he had to pay, he came out all right.

At a regular meeting of the Orangeburg Brass Band the following officers were elected:

Captain, J. Hammond Fordham. 1st and 2d, Lieut. Wesley Meyers and Peter McFall.

1st and 2d, Sergeant, Cephus Miller and William C. Glover.

Coporal, C. S. Fleming.

Major, M. Balesford.

Sec't. P. T. Burwick.

Tros. J. C. Dickson.

"Capt. Jack" as he is generally called who is the organizer of this Band desires us to say that he is patiently waiting the actions of the subscribing members, never was a set of young men more hungry for music than his twenty, he promises to please us with music sixty days from the time he is in possession of instruments.

The following sentences were pronounced by Judge Reed, at the close of the Sessions of Court on Wednesday last:

The State vs. Jess. Briggmann, indictment for burglary and grand larceny—Sentence—two years in the Penitentiary at hard labor.

The State vs. Richard Wilson, indictment grand larceny—same sentence.

The State vs. Amos Jones, for petit larceny—Sentence—nine months in Penitentiary at hard labor.

The State vs. Esau Hill, resistance to peace officer—Sentence—one month in County Jail.

The State vs. Ambrose Pearson—same offence—two weeks in jail.

The State vs. Murray Robinson jr, and William F. Robinson, indictment for malicious killing hound dog—two cases—Sentence—to pay $25.00, for the two, in each case, and cost, or be committed to county jail for one month.

The Mint on the Congaree.

Columbia is certainly becoming a city of sensations. Sometimes they come singly, like the Parker, and Bowley, and Snalls wonders, and sometimes they come together, as did the county commissioners' fiasco and the diamond dash, but the latest sensation is the discovery of a gang of counterfeiters within the walls of the penitentiary. It seems incredible that we should, and without our knowledge, have upon the banks of the Congaree an auxiliary mint, and yet such is the fact. For some time past several cigar dealers and other merchants found the number of nickles in their drawers on the increase. The parties presenting them were watched and found to be guards and others having business with the penitentiary.

An investigation held yesterday disclosed the fact that for some time past United States nickle five cent pieces have been manufactured at the above named penal institution. The names of all the parties engaged in this nefarious business have not yet been made public. It is known, however, that George Thompson, the convict recently pardoned, is the man who was discovered circulating them in this city. But it is impossible he could manufacture them unassisted. It is even rumored that some of the guards are mixed up in the business. There is but little doubt, if any, that some of the guards are no better than the criminals they watch over. It was only on Saturday that one of them was sentenced to five years in the institution for murdering a convict; another was tried at the last session of the court for larceny. It is but a few days since five of the convicts either connived with the guards while out at work and were permitted to escape, or which is as bad, cut their way, unarmed as they were, through their armed guardsmen. To this they add the almost incredible crime, under the circumstances, of counterfeiting. The public mind is being prepared by easy stages for anything up to a general revolt. We trust Colonel T. W. Parmele, the new superintendent, will put the screws down at once, and reduce the disorder and negligence so painfully apparent to a state of the most rigid discipline. He can do it, and the confidence of the people in his determination to do it is unshaken. Officers were on the track of Thompson last night.

THE NEW SYRUP.

Further evidence of the counterfeiting at the penitentiary was brought to light yesterday, and a thorough inspection and investigation of the prisoners and the buildings made by Col. Parmele, the superintendent, and Deputy United States Marshal Canton. The spurious coin was made from lead taken from the roof of the shoe shop, and cast in moulds made from dies formed of the genuine five cent piece. Everything connected with the manufacture of the counterfeit stuff has been captured, and a small quantity of the base money, a sample of which can be seen in our office. It is a poor substitute for the fine, bright nickle of Uncle Sam. But a few days will elapse until all engaged in the business will be in the hands of United States officers.—Union Herald.

There is no case of Dyspepsia that Green's August Flower will not cure. Come to the Drug Store of Dr. A. C. DUKES, and inquire about it.
