

Orangeburg News & Times

TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM.

GOD AND OUR COUNTRY.

ALWAYS IN ADVANCE.

VOLUME 9.

SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 5, 1875.

NUMBER 16.

DENTISTRY

B. F. MUCKENFUSS, Dentist
OF CHARLESTON, can be found at his OFFICE above Captain HAMIL-TON'S STORE, on Market Street.
References—Drs. J. P. PATRICK, B. A.
MUCKENFUSS, A. P. PELZER, M. D., and MESSRS. PELZER, RODGERS & CO.

NOTICE

TO THE
LADIES AND GENTLEMEN
OF ORANGEBURG,
MOSES M. BROWN, the Barber pledges himself to keep up with the times in all the LATE IMPROVEMENTS, as his business is sufficient to guarantee the above. He will be found at his old stand, ever ready to serve his customers at the shortest notice. apl 11

Nine Years' Experience

IN
DRUGS and MEDICINES.
PAINTS, OILS,
BRUSHES, AND
PATENT MEDICINES,
TOILET ARTICLES,
CANDLES,
CUTLERY,
SEWERS,
TOBACCO, &c.
I have on hand also a supply of SEEDS and OXION SETTS.
Prescriptions carefully compounded, orders from the country strictly attended to at the Popular Drug Store of DR. A. C. DUKES,
jan 23 1874 1y

Horses and Mules

AT BAMBERG SLATER'S STABLES
IN REAR OF
J. GEO. VOSE'S STORE.
Where you will find a COMPLETE stock of the finest HORSES and MULES that can be procured from the BEST MARKETS in the United States.
Our prices range from $50 to $250. All orders filled at the shortest notice.
If our stock on hand do not please we will order for you at once.
BAMBERG & SLATER,
dec 18 1874 6m

DENTAL NOTICE

THE undersigned takes pleasure in announcing to his many friends and patrons that he has permanently located at Orangeburg, S. C., where he will devote his entire time, from every Monday till Saturday noon to the PRACTICE OF DENTISTRY
in all its Departments. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed in all operations entrusted to his care. Charges very moderate.
Office at Dr. Ferson's old stand over Wilcock's Store.
A. M. SNIDER, D. S.
L. S. WOLFE.

THE ORANGEBURG HIGH SCHOOL

IN THE BASEMENT OF DUKES' HOTEL,
For terms apply to
S. R. MELLICHAMP,
Principal.

FIRE INSURANCE AGENCY.

Having secured the AGENCY of the
"City Insurance Company
OF
"Provident, R. I."
Capital, $210,051.
With that of participating Companies,
The "Fireman's Fund," Capital $500,000.
And the
"Atlantic," of New York.

SPECIAL RISKS

I am prepared to take RISKS of any amount, dividing them in several 1st Class COMPANIES, to which I call the attention of property holders.
JOHN A. HAMILTON,
Fire Insurance Agent,
apl 3 1875 1y

An Irreverent Clucker.

They have had more trouble at our Methodist meeting-house. Last Sunday Rev. Mr. Moody was just beginning his sermon, and had uttered the words, "Brethren, I wish to direct your attention this morning to the fourth verse of the twentieth chapter of Saint—" when a hen emerged from the recess beneath the pulpit.
As she had just laid an egg, she interrupted Mr. Moody, to announce the fact to the congregation; and he stopped short as she walked out into the aisle, screeching: "Kuk-kuk-kuk-kukte-ho! Kuk-kuk-kuk-kuk-te-ho!" Mr. Moody contemplated her for a moment, and then concluded to go on; but the sound of his voice seemed to provoke her to rivalry, so she put on a pressure of five or six pounds to the square inch, and made such a racket that the preacher stopped again and said:
"Will Deacon Grimes please remove that disgraceful chicken from the meeting-house?"
The deacon rose and proceeded with the task. He first tried to drive her toward the door, but she dodged him, and, still clucking vigorously, got under the seat in the front pew.
Then the deacon seized his umbrella and scooped her out into the aisle again, after which he tried to "shoo" her toward the door; but she darted into the pew, hopped over the partition, came down into the opposite pew, and in the side aisle, making a noise like a steam plaining mill. The deacon didn't like to climb after her, so he went around, and just as he got into the side aisle, the hen flew into the middle aisle again. Then the boys in the gallery laughed, and the deacon began to grow red in the face.
At last Mr. Binns came out of his pew to help, and as both he and the deacon made a dash at the chicken in opposite directions she flew up with a

The Revenge of the Beasts.

One day a number of animals that had been highly aggrieved by the tyranny and injustice of man, resolved to petition Jupiter, for satisfaction.
"Oh, Jupiter!" exclaimed the camel, "revenge me on this indolent tyrant, who instead of carrying his own burthens, caps them on my back, and drives me into the desert, where I travel whole days without a drop of water." "Oh, Jupiter!" cried a great fat green turtle, "revenge me on this glutton, who kidnaps me while I am sleeping in the sun—starves me for weeks on board of a ship, and eats me afterwards, though he gives me nothing to eat." "Oh, Jupiter!" squeaked the pig, "he stuffs me first, and then stuffs himself with me afterwards!"
"Oh, Jupiter!" brayed the ass, "he leads me with panniers of liquor and delicious fruits, and gives me nothing but water and thistles; I beseech thee to revenge us!" "Behold!" answered Jupiter, "thou art revenged already!
Dost see that turbid wretch yonder, chewing opium, and dozing away a miserable existence? And dost thou see yonder Christian, in his nightgown and slippers, taking doses of physic, and making wry faces? And dost thou see that wretch, reeling along, with his blood-red face, and curled-up nose? The one is martyr to indolence; he is thy victim, oh, humpbacked camel; he is reaping the fruits of making thee bear his burthens, instead of carrying them himself. The physic-taking mortal, oh, pig and turtle! And the reeling wretch is securing to himself a life of guilt, misery and disgrace, by means of the liquor thou carriest on thy back, oh, most unreasonable donkey! Go thy ways in quiet, for again I say thou art amply revenged!" The petitioners departed; but the camel being a quadruped of great gravity, and somewhat of a philoso-

Saving is Wealth.

One great cause of the poverty of the present day, wisely says an exchange, is a failure of our common people to appreciate small things.
They do not realize how a daily addition, be it ever so small, will soon make a large pile. If the young men and women of to-day will only begin, and begin now, to save a little from their earnings and plant it in the soil of some good savings bank, and weekly or monthly add their mite, they will wear a happy smile of competence when they reach middle life. Not only the desire but the ability to increase it will also grow. Let clerk and tradesman, laborer and artisan, make now, and at once, a beginning. Store up some of your youthful force for future contingency.
Let parents teach their children to begin early to save. Begin at the fountain head to control the stream of extravagance—to choose between poverty and riches. Let our youth go on in the habits of extravagance for fifty years past, and we shall have a nation of beggars, with a moneyed aristocracy. Let a generation of such as save in small sums be reared, and we will be free from want. Do not be ambitious for extravagant fortunes, but seek that which it is the duty of every one to obtain—independence and a comfortable home. Wealth, and enough of it, is within the reach of all. It is obtained by one process, and one only—saving.

The new building of the New York

Tribune is nine stories high. When a man comes in and wants to know who wrote that article? he is told that the author is on the top floor with the elevator broken.

A Green Bay couple walked four miles on snowshoes to get married, and it probably won't be over a month before he will tell her to split her own wood if she wants any.

Beaten With Dutch Cheese.

Limburger cheese is "strong" enough to put one to flight without being fired at him, but the kind referred to below seems to have been that sometimes known as "white-oak cheese," such as the hard-headed old negro mistook for a grindstone. An exchange publishes a queer sea story, showing how this cheese once saved a hero's victory.
The greatest ammunition that we have heard of lately was used by the celebrated Commodore Coc of the Montevidian Navy, who, in an engagement with Admiral Brown, of the Buenos Ayres service, fired every shot from his locker.
"What shall we do, sir?" asked the First Lieutenant; "we've not a single shot aboard—round, grape, canister and double-headed, all gone."
"Never gone?" asked Coc.
"No, sir; got lots of that."
"We had a can of pounded hard cheese, a round Dutch one for dessert at dinner to-day; don't you remember it?" said Coc.
"I ought to; I broke the carving knife in trying to cut it, sir."
"Are there any on board?"
"About two dozen, took 'em from a drover."
"Will they go into the eighteen pounders?"
"Capital, Commodore! That's the idea!" "I'll try 'em," cried the First Lieutenant.
And in a few minutes the fire of the old Santa Maria (Coc's ship), which had ceased entirely, was reopened and Admiral Brown's four more shot flying over his head. Directly one of them struck the mainmast, and as it did so scattered and flew in every direction.
"What is that the enemy are doing?" asked Brown; but nobody could tell, for the other one came and hit Directly another one came and hit the bulwarks, burst into splinters.

He Bet Because the Odds Were Great.

A son of the fairland, says an exchange, went into Barney Gulligan's saloon the other day and called for a drink. Barney observed how looking he was with the "rosy" already, and shook his head, saying "You have had enough." "Enough of what, I guess?" asked the "Tontoon." "Enough to drink." "Who is ruining my machine?" you or I?" "You are; and you are running it in the ground."
"I had you ten dollars bet I am a liar," said he, slamming his hand down upon the bar. "No bet there," said Barney, laughing. "Give us a drink."
"No; you are drunk now."
"I had you ten dollars bet I am a liar," said he, slamming his hand
down upon the bar. "No bet there,"
said Barney, laughing. "Give us a drink."
"No; you are drunk now."
"Well, I will bet you fifty dollars to one that you are drunk," said Barney, while quite a number of bystanders gathered around to see the fun.
"Good enough, I had you," said he, pulling out fractional currency enough to make up a dollar. "Now, who will you leave it mid?"
"I'll leave it to yourself." Are you not drunk?"
"Yes, by jingoes, I am," said he morosely, "dako der toller." A friend of his happened to be in the crowd, and upbraided him for defending against himself.
"But it was the truth."
"Well, supposing it was; what did you want to be fool enough to bet for-then?"
"I couldn't help it—der odds was so great," he replied, turning away, more in sorrow than anger.
Loafers are an expensive luxury.
We have known a wife to work hard, sweat, and it took almost every cent to support her husband, who was a loaf. If any young ladies aspire to the position of a loafer's wife, they must make up their minds they have got to work. Who has not seen a

HOME CHEERFULNESS.

Many a child goes astray, not because there is a want of prayer or virtue at home, but simply because home lacks sunshine. A child needs smiles as much as flowers need sunlight. Children look little beyond the present moment.
If a thing pleases they are apt to seek it. If home is the place where smiles are scarce and words harsh, and faithfulness as much as possible, they will go. Let every mother, when mother, then try to be happy. Let them talk to their children, especially the little ones, in such a way as to make them happy.

Women require more sleep than men, and farmers less than those engaged in other occupations. Editors, reporters, printers and telegraph operators require no sleep at all. Lawyers can sleep as much as they choose, as they will thus be kept out of mischief. Clergymen are allowed to sleep twenty-four hours, and to put their parishioners to sleep once a week!

Reason is the glory of human nature and one of the chief attributes whereby we are raised above the beasts in this lower world.

ADMINISTRATORS SALE.

In accordance with the Order of Honorable Augustus B. Knowlton, Judge of Probate, I will sell at public outcry at Orangeburg, S. C., commencing on Monday the 21st of June 1875 to continue from day to day until all the perishable property of the late Mrs. M. N. Adams, deceased, remaining unsold, consisting of Groceries, Dry Goods, Household and Kitchen furniture, 1 Horse, 1 Wagon &c.
May 28th 1875. CHARLES R. JONES, Administrator.

Lord of Roanoke.

The history of North Carolina is full of curious and romantic incidents.
Among the most curious is the circumstance of the creation of a "peerage" in the person of an "Indian" Chief.
Sir Walter Raleigh, on the Island of Crotan on the 13th of August, 1587, attended the baptism of Manteo, a faithful Indian Chief, and afterwards made him a feudal Baron under the name of the Lord of Roanoke. This was the first and last "peerage" ever created by English authority on American soil. The name of Manteo is preserved in the title of the Judge of Old Felt low in the city of Raleigh.

These are desirable, but cannot be had, unless parents faithfully perform their duties toward their children, in early life. It is desirable that the parents of to-day, are rather careless with their children. This charge appears true, when we compare the children of the present with those of the past.

Parents take heed. Remember your sons, and daughter, as you would be and women of the future. In what kind shall these be? God says to you, train up a child in the way he should go, how should they go? How are they going?
Do your duty in this matter, and you will send blessings into coming years, and reap a harvest of joy to yourselves.

Why do people call for a piece of string, and did any body ever hear of me calling for a whole one?

When old Sam Crowder, down in

Pike, was running for Justice of the Peace, his wife, in anticipation of honors in store for her, said: "My dear, when you get to be Justice of the Peace, what will I be?" "You," said old Sam, "why you'll be the same old fool you always was."

The experiment of transfusing blood has just been applied to Gen. Frank Blair, who has long been prostrated with paralysis, at his home in St Louis.

Six ounces of blood were injected into his veins, and the result is said to be favorable.

An assessor asked a woman how many chickens she had, and, doubting her word, proceeded to count them.

She took him to the bee hive, kicked it over, and invited him to count the bees.

These are desirable, but cannot be

had, unless parents faithfully perform
their duties toward their children, in early life. It is desirable that the parents of to-day, are rather careless with
their children. This charge appears
true, when we compare the children
of the present with those of the past.
Parents take heed. Remember your
sons, and daughter, as you would be
and women of the future. In what
kind shall these be? God says to you,
train up a child in the way he should go,
how should they go? How are they going?
Do your duty in this matter, and you will send blessings into coming years,
and reap a harvest of joy to yourselves.

Why do people call for a piece of

string, and did any body ever hear of
me calling for a whole one?

When old Sam Crowder, down in

Pike, was running for Justice of the Peace, his wife, in anticipation of honors in store for her, said: "My dear,
when you get to be Justice of the Peace, what will I be?" "You," said
old Sam, "why you'll be the same old
fool you always was."

The experiment of transfusing blood

has just been applied to Gen. Frank Blair, who has long been prostrated with paralysis, at his home in St Louis.
Six ounces of blood were injected into
his veins, and the result is said to be favorable.

An assessor asked a woman how

many chickens she had, and, doubting her word, proceeded to count them.
She took him to the bee hive, kicked
it over, and invited him to count the bees.

These are desirable, but cannot be

had, unless parents faithfully perform
their duties toward their children, in early life. It is desirable that the parents of to-day, are rather careless with
their children. This charge appears
true, when we compare the children
of the present with those of the past.
Parents take heed. Remember your
sons, and daughter, as you would be
and women of the future. In what
kind shall these be? God says to you,
train up a child in the way he should go,
how should they go? How are they going?
Do your duty in this matter, and you will send blessings into coming years,
and reap a harvest of joy to yourselves.

Why do people call for a piece of

string, and did any body ever hear of
me calling for a whole one?

When old Sam Crowder, down in

Pike, was running for Justice of the Peace, his wife, in anticipation of honors in store for her, said: "My dear,
when you get to be Justice of the Peace, what will I be?" "You," said
old Sam, "why you'll be the same old
fool you always was."

The experiment of transfusing blood

has just been applied to Gen. Frank Blair, who has long been prostrated
with paralysis, at his home in St Louis.
Six ounces of blood were injected into
his veins, and the result is said to be favorable.

An assessor asked a woman how

many chickens she had, and, doubting her word, proceeded to count them.
She took him to the bee hive, kicked
it over, and invited him to count the bees.

These are desirable, but cannot be

had, unless parents faithfully perform
their duties toward their children, in early life. It is desirable that the parents of to-day, are rather careless with
their children. This charge appears
true, when we compare the children
of the present with those of the past.
Parents take heed. Remember your
sons, and daughter, as you would be
and women of the future. In what
kind shall these be? God says to you,
train up a child in the way he should go,
how should they go? How are they going?
Do your duty in this matter, and you will send blessings into coming years,
and reap a harvest of joy to yourselves.

Why do people call for a piece of

string, and did any body ever hear of
me calling for a whole one?

When old Sam Crowder, down in

Pike, was running for Justice of the Peace, his wife, in anticipation of honors in store for her, said: "My dear,
when you get to be Justice of the Peace, what will I be?" "You," said
old Sam, "why you'll be the same old
fool you always was."

The experiment of transfusing blood

has just been applied to Gen. Frank Blair, who has long been prostrated
with paralysis, at his home in St Louis.
Six ounces of blood were injected into
his veins, and the result is said to be favorable.

An assessor asked a woman how

many chickens she had, and, doubting her word, proceeded to count them.
She took him to the bee hive, kicked
it over, and invited him to count the bees.

These are desirable, but cannot be

had, unless parents faithfully perform
their duties toward their children, in early life. It is desirable that the parents of to-day, are rather careless with
their children. This charge appears
true, when we compare the children
of the present with those of the past.
Parents take heed. Remember your
sons, and daughter, as you would be
and women of the future. In what
kind shall these be? God says to you,
train up a child in the way he should go,
how should they go? How are they going?
Do your duty in this matter, and you will send blessings into coming years,
and reap a harvest of joy to yourselves.

Why do people call for a piece of

string, and did any body ever hear of
me calling for a whole one?

When old Sam Crowder, down in

Pike, was running for Justice of the Peace, his wife, in anticipation of honors in store for her, said: "My dear,
when you get to be Justice of the Peace, what will I be?" "You," said
old Sam, "why you'll be the same old
fool you always was."

The experiment of transfusing blood

has just been applied to Gen. Frank Blair, who has long been prostrated
with paralysis, at his home in St Louis.
Six ounces of blood were injected into
his veins, and the result is said to be favorable.

An assessor asked a woman how

many chickens she had, and, doubting her word, proceeded to count them.
She took him to the bee hive, kicked
it over, and invited him to count the bees.