LOCAL

Do let up (f) friend Speights, or you will Run-i-on into the Asylum. Spikes will split a three quarter board.

Bids are invited for repairs to Jones Bridge, and will be received at the Bridge, at 12 o'clock M., June 8, 1875.

We are sorry to learn that J. Eelder Meyers Esq., is confined to his home in this place by an attack of bilious fever.

We call attention to the advertisement of the Blackville Sun, to be found in another column. We bespeak for this paper a generous support from this county...

ANOTHER BASE BALL MATCH—The "Crescents" of Bamberg have challenged our Orange Club, to a trial of skill on the 16th of this month...

A Western paper speaks of a new paper mill which will be made of brick one hundred and seventy-five feet long.

What a providential thing it is, that it is not to be built in little Rhode Island.

We have received a paper from Frank Justice, M. F. Fouries on publication. We have made it a rule to publish no communication of a personal nature, only, as an advertisement...

Our thanks are tendered to Rev. S. T. Hollman for fine specimens of cucumbers from his garden, they are unusually large for the season.

We are much gratified to learn that our old friend, and fellow citizen, Mr. Wm. R. Bull, who for the past three months has been suffering with a painful disease of the throat, is now slightly better, and improving slowly but surely.

"Here's a chunk of wisdom: Truth may bark so closely at the heels of error as to get his brains kicked out." Nonsense! Truth cannot get error to "kick," for fear that the leg may be caught, and error upset, try again, even Tappers Proverbial Philosophy beats that "chunk."

Mr. J. Geo. Vose puts in a new advertisement to-day of his new goods at new and old prices, he has now all sorts of goods, dry goods, shoes, farming implements, or anything else you want; he would like particularly to show you some of those choice hams.

C. D. (alias "Dick") Kortjohn comes to the front this week, with a notice that he is selling his fine liquors, sugar, &c. at cost, and other groceries, tin ware &c. at just a trifle above.

THE McMICHAEL HOUSE—On Thursday last just at the hour of lunch time, "Ab" of the McMichael House waited on us with a specimen lunch, the empty plates will tell how we enjoyed it, we were "too full for utterance;" when such eatables are furnished, we do not wonder that people stay at that House, they must enjoy a chronic state of "inertia" that prevents their ever attempting to leave.

We particularly call the attention of our readers to the notice of Mr. James Van Tassel, County Auditor, as to the dates, upon which he will be at the various stations in the County to receive Returns of Personal Property for 1875...

We were pleased to meet his Honor Judge T. H. Cook in our Town last Thursday. The Judge, shows, just a little, that like the rest of us, he is growing older every day, and yet neither his face or manner, shows any loss of that hearty good nature which has won him so many friends.

The friends of the Temperance cause will be pleased to hear that the order here intend keeping up, as far as possible, the course of interesting lectures which they have been offering to the public this year. Col. F. F. Warley, formerly Grand Lecturer of the State, will deliver a lecture here on the evening of Wednesday 16 inst.

On the corner, near Meroney's old hotel, our friend Franz Briggmann is rapidly running up a large store for the better accommodation of his friends and customers, and hopes to be able to take possession of it on, or before the 1st July next.

The child found in New Street early on the morning of 18th ulto, died on the 29th and a Jury of Inquest called by Coroner J. H. Fordham, found, that "the child came to its death from inflammation of the bowels or inanition brought on by undue exposure at the hands of some unknown person, probably its mother."

Dr. W. F. Barton's two story brick building on Russell Street is rapidly approaching completion, and when finished will be, indeed, an ornament to the Town as it is the first brick building put up in that section.

the Town as it is the first brick building put up in that section. Its front is 32 feet and depth 47 feet with a height of 28 feet, the lower story is divided into two stores, which are already engaged, one to be used as a grocery and liquor store, and the other as a millinery establishment.

The Base Ball season opens fairly, and it will be largely in the power of our "Orange" boys to furnish amusement through our long summer afternoons, as well for themselves, as for a large body of our citizens who take an interest in Base Ball.

Beat them if you can boys, for the more Clubs you beat, the more will come here to try you.

The following officers have been elected by the Oranges for the ensuing season: President—J. S. ALBERGOTTI. Vice President—P. G. CANNON.

In doing anything, no matter what, do it skillfully and promptly, we saw a piece of work performed on Monday last, that reflected great credit on all parties concerned for the exhibition of the above virtues. Together with several other parties we were informed that Mr. W. K. Crook desired the pleasure of our company at 5 sharp.

and destroyed with a celerity that surpassed the first attempt. The only mar to our thorough enjoyment of the occasion was chancing to notice one of the party, a man with soft blue eyes, from whose liquid depths, there went out such sympathising regret for the departing Punch, that we sadly laid aside our straw, drank off our punch, and walked mournfully back to our office.

KISSING IN CHINA.—What a strange fascination there is in that labial process called kissing, it is that those who never heard of it very soon learn to love it, as is the case with the Chinese maidens.

It is a singular fact that the custom is altogether unknown in that country. The Chinese, indeed, have no word or term of expressing love as we understand the tender passion. An American navy officer voyaging Chinawards narrates an amusing experience of the Chinese incident on kissing. Wishing to complete a conquest he had made of a young Mee-jim (beautiful lady), he invited her—using the English words—to give him a kiss. Finding her comprehension of his request somewhat obscure, he suited the action to the word and took a delicious kiss.

The latest railroad project is the construction of a road from Pine house, on the Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta railroad, to connect with the Atlanta and Richmond Air Line railroad, by way of the road now building from Elberton to Tocco City.

A few days ago a colored boy was burned to death by the explosion of a kerosene lamp at Graniteville. He was passing the table on which the lamp stood, when it exploded, and he was hurled into the air.
