EPISCOPAL CHURCH-There will be service in this Church to-morrow at 101 A. M.

We would call attention to fine milch cow advertised for sale by Mr. W. A. Meroney in to-day's issue. Mr. M. says this is a good cow, and he will sell at a right price.

GIN AND PRESS FOR SALE-See Mr. Jas. H. Fowles' advertisement of gin gearing and cotton press for sale. They are in perfect order, and Mr. Fowles will sell them cheap, as he has no further use for them.

MILITARY INSTITUTE-We are in receipt of the official Register of the Carolina Military Institute for 1874 and '75. It is superintended by Col. J. P. Thomas, assisted by a full corps of professors, and numbers one hundred and twentyseven students. Such educational institutions should re eive our hearty support. Our best wishes attend Col. Thomas.

The Blackville, Sun credits us with certain remarks, and asks the assist ance of our cotemporary here, in explaining them. We used no such remarks, and to save our souls could not explain the ones he uses for us, and do not think the Professor cany so you must come out friend Sun and explain your joke, provided, however, that the fever, under whose influence the squib was gotten off; has abated.

BARBEROUS-"Old Brown's soul is marching on."

7m.

This is not John Brown, but the old man Moses. Being burnt out by the late fire, the old soul straightway took up his line of march, and has located himself directly under the "shadow of our wing." Moses Brown the barber has opened his shop next the newspaper office, and immediately in the rear of M7. A. Fischer's. He is all in order again and ready for any work in his line.

DROWNED-

On Wednesday last three small boys, (colored,) were upset from a batteau near Rowe's Pump, the eldest only eight years old, succeeded in getting out, but could afford no assistance to the other two, who were drowned. The body of the youngest, about three years of age, was recovered, and an inquest held upon it by Trial Jastice Webster. The jury found a verdict in accordance with the facts given above.

FAIR WARNING-

On Friday night last, a so-called serenading party paid our press room a visit, and after several songs of Faderland, took complete possession, and so demoralized all hands that we have not yet recovered from the shock. We give fair notice now that if Fritz, Dick and the rest of them, assault us again, we will publish their names throughout the length and breadth of our county. The same party, we learn serenaded the up night train, but strange to say it passed withou

We call the attention of our about $500 on Mr. Ways stock. We readers, to the advertisement in this issue, of a new enterprise, to be opened in our thriving Town. At the new brick building, next door to T. W. Albergotti, the baker, Mr. J. L. Morrison, will on the 1st day of September open a handsome stock of Dry Goods, Clothing, Boots, Shoes &c., which will be opened to the citizens of the Town and country at prices equal to any town or city in the South.

Mr. Morrison is a genileman whom we welcome in our midst as an enterprising and energetic merchant, who brings an honest face and good recommendations to our business circles. We bespeak for him & hearty-patronage.

AN EXCITEMENT-

Quite a number of our citizens made a rush for the river on Wednesday last, under a tremendous state of excitement, to see two bodies said to have been found there, and at first supposed to have been drowned, but foul play was evident, as their throat were cut from car to car. Anxious to give the public a true statement of the affair, we have tried to interview every one of the forty-two men that went down, but whenever we broach the subject, the invariable answer is, "Go to the ----- " or "Do let that thing drop." Now we don't like to push matters, but when forty-two men leave their business, and hire horses, or borrow buggies, to go a mile off, to see two murdered persons, they ought to give a poor newspaper man all the particulars. No inquest was held in this case.

ORANGE B. R. CLUB-

We learn that a meeting of this Club was hld a few days since, when it was thoroughly reorganized, and a committee of five appointed to select a "first nine," they have reported the following names, which were adopted by the Club.

- J L Wannamaker.
- P G Cannon.
- L L Soubereaux.
- L H Wannamaker.
- T L Wannamaker.
- W J DeTreville.
- A C Walker.
- A E Glover. S W A Gue.
- This is an excellent move, and has secured to the Club a capital "nine." Now, with a little practice, they may

If the incendiary could be discovered, he would be roughly handled: We cannot close this notice without paying our Fire Department a compliment for the prompt, systematic, and ordely manner in which the fire was managed, and thanking them in the name of the citizens for the property saved through their genorous efforts

ROOTS and ELCES. BACK STREET_ Cannot our Town Council de some thing with the weeds and grass, that are overgrowing some of our back streets, in some places they are overgrowing and overhanging the side walk so completely, that predestrians are almost compelled to give it up to them. We know our Mayor is doing all that he can, but the Council ought to furnish him the means to do more.

ELIZABETH T .--

The Doctor's fighting cat has had her hands, or rather claws, full this past week. She has been pitted ngainst three pet fighters of the canine specie, but one after another, Elizabeth has "cleaned out" Dixie Muss and Boll, and still the Doctor says "bring on your fighting pups."

THANKS-

Some of the young ladies, living not far, from the recent fire, desire to thank the young gentlemen of the fire companies for their kind assistance rendered at that time. This is a grateful task, to extend the thanks of "beauty" to "gallantry," and on their behalf, we say to you, that they appreciate your timely aid and efforts for their relief.

THE BILOXI MIRROR-

A very neatly gotten up sheet, bearing the above title, has just reached us. It is published weekly at Biloxi, Miss., and edited by Mr. C. K. Browning, a brother of the Messrs. Brownings of this place. Its articles ere clear, sharp, and pointed, and if this initial number be a good index of the future ones, it may safely look forward to a successful career. We place it with pleasure on our exchange list.

even a thank you.

LIGHTNING-

One of the severest storms of thun der and lightning passed over this place on Tuesday last that has been known for years. Several trees in various parts of the town were struck, and the wonder is that no lives were lost. We understand that the Dukes house was struck but the fluid was conducted off by the lightning rod without damage. The fowl house on Mr. DeMars' premises was struck and ten chickens killed, although feathers are supposed to be non-conductors. A heavy fall of rain accompanied this storm, and for a while fairly deluged our streets.

THE CHARLESTON FALL TRADE-The opening of the Fall Trade in Charleston is announced in our columns this morning, by two leading houses in different lines. Messrs. John G. Milnor & Co. have long been extensively engaged in Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Clothing, Hats, Etc., and our Merchants who do not already deal with them, would do well to cultivate their acquaintance. In the Boot and Shoe Trade the names of D. F. Fleming & Co. are as familiar as household words. They need no recomendation from us, but like all sensible business men, they believe in the power of Printers' Ink, and hence their card. Charleston has quite a number of other Jobbing Houses who would find it to their interest to consult our Agent, MR. ROSWELL T. LOGAN.

regain the prestige that they appeared lately to be loosing. Put yourselves in thorough training and go in and win.

FIRE-

The Kitchen just in the rear of Judge Glover's residence was discovered to be on fire last Saturday night, and although help arrived as soon as could be exposted, the building was entirely consumed, for some time, the fine residence of the Judge was in great danger, but by the excrtion of the Firemen and neighbors, and the shelter afforded by intervening shade trees, the fire was prevented from spreading. There is no accounting for the origin of this fire, it may have been from carelessness or accident.

Again on Wednesday night between one and two o'clock the Town was aroused by the cry of fire, this broke out in the room occupied by Mr. Way as a store, being a part of the large house next to Strauss & Co's Mills, Moses Brown using the other half of lower story as a barbar shop, and Mr. J. Strauss and family the entire upper story as a dwelling. Within a few minutes after its discovery it had communicated itself to all parts of the room, and soon to the entire house, finding it impossible to save it, the Firemen turned their principal attention to the preservation of the buildings around it, and right gallantly and well, did they perform their work, keeping the fire confined to the house that first caught and which was entirely consumed, the only insurance we can learn of was desire to purchase a Lot within the corporate limits of the Town for the purpose of building thereon 'a Public School House. Any Parties having suitable Lots for sale will please hand to the undersigned, on or before the fourteenth of August next, a full description of such Lots, giving size, price. terms, and location, and on what street situated.
