RAILROAD SCREDULE.

LOCAL.

We don't like to "tell tales out of school," but we would like to know if uncle Zeke has found those books yet CORN-

There has been quite a demand for, and quite a scarcity of, this article for a week or more past, but we see Frantz Briggmann has a large lot on hand that he is selling cheap, those in want had better call on him.

"All is well that ends well" is no less old than true, but when you begin with a well, well what then? We our axx Court House has been begun by digging a well, hurry it up gentlemen, let us see how it will end, we suppose well, well, that's all,

FOR RENT-Our readers will see from the advertisement that the Cannon Hous! is offered for rent, this house is finely situated in the central business pertion of the Town and is very desirable, either as a private residence, or as a herel.

SOME POPATORS

We think that it is rather early to talk about big potatoes, but we saw some yesterday, yams and red whites, about nine inches in length and a couple of inches in diameter. T. K. Sasportas is the man who comes to the front so early, and says he has lots of them at home.

BASE BALL ti curiff private me ba

Some of our base ballists (colored) went over to Columbia on Tuesday, to try, the skill of one of the clubs there: We have not heard from them what the result was, but the Union-Herald says they got badly bealen. The whole truth of the matter is, and we presume to give the advice to all of our clubs, you want practice, practice,

DR. A. C. DUKES-

With this issue puts out a new advertisement telling of all the pure Drugs and Chemicals he has for sale, it is no use for us to puff the Doctor, his many customers can vouch for the quality of his goods, his low prices, and the courteous attentiou paid to be yers. Don't forget either to look over his fine lot of segars and tobacco, we hear they are first rate.

Mr. F. A. Schiffley-has arrived in Town and has spread his Photographic tent on the vacant lot just South of the Hook and Ladder House, all of those anxious to have a good lock at their pretty faces, can call on him there, he will take a new picture of you, or restore an old one, or enlarge one already taken, or do anything else in the picture line that you may want. Go and see him.

GONE NORTH-

Our friend Jno. M. Danner left on Thursday night for New York, Mr. Cornelson is determined to be prepared for the approaching fall trade, so Danner goes on to lav, in a stock, that he says will surprise the Orangeburgers, we have no doubt of it, there are two things Danner does well at, one is to buy a good stock of goods, and the other is to sell them.

ECLECTIC MAGAZINE-

The September number of this staunch old Magazine has reached us. We have not space to notice each arlight but there are several in this Issue, each one of which is worth the subscription price, Cladstone, on 9the Church of England," the Duke of Argyll on "Adimal Instinct," are fine, in fact the entire table of contents is well worth y a Aret class Magazine.

TO THE PLANTERS-

Just now the condition, and promises, of the coming crops, is a subject that almost every one is interested in, and if any of our friends throughout the county can give us any information in the matter, we will take it as a favor. Never mind to write a finished article, all ready for publication, (unless you desire) but give us the facts and figures, and we will arrange them.

J. FELDER WEYERS, ESQ.-

Our notice of the departure of this gentleman was crewded out of our last issue. We are pleased to announce to his friends, that his wound is rapidly healing, and that finding himself strong enough, he removed on Friday last to Blackville, where he can better overlook and direct his beloved Son. This same Son is a spicy chap, and talks "sassy" sometimes. However its strokes are never fatal.

Who says that Orangeburg is not "moving," go ahead town! Mr. Ezekiel is moving his Grange store from its old situation on Market street, and intends taking it down near Meroney's hotel, and locating it upon the lot formerly becapied by Mr. Rich. The Cdd Fellows occupy the upper story as their hall for meetings, and we hear it whispered that they intend to hold their regular meeting there on Monday night, no matter where the hall may be.

GOTTON PRESS-

See the advertisement of Shearers ress in another column, this thing is no; liumberg, as any one can convince themselves, by calling on the Agent for this County, Mr. Van Tassel, who has a model on exhibition. It has a great many advantages to recommend it to planters, it is compact, partable bashy Indjusted or worked not liable ito: get-but of order, and if any breakage occurs, any one can easily repair it. Call and soo Mr. Van Tassel, or write for particulars.

The state of the s BROWN THE BARBER-Comes out this week in an entirely new dress, we don't mean Brown's person, but his advertisement, and the public will find that Brown means what he says and is all fixed up to accommodate them, a new shop, new chairs, new comb and brush, new razors, every thing new, except Brown, he is "old as the hills" although you would never think so to see him waltzing around a chair with a razor in one hand, and a towelin the other.

WALLACE CANSON-

This one hundred and sixty two pounder is still fireing off his goods in every direction, he has an immence stock of ammunition on hand, in the way of bacon, flour, tobacco, liquors, canned goods, in short groceries of all kinds and sorts, and he wishes in his next quarterly return to report all material now on hand, as "expended," try him just for the fun of it, and he will shoot a sack of flour, or side of bacon, or something else, into your wagon, at prices that will almost take your breath away.

The children of the M. E. Sabbath school (colored) together with their friends, spent an exceedingly pleasant day on Thursday last at Sunny Side. Addresses were made by Rev. Thes. Phillips, T. K. Sasportas and others. The various scholars delivered speeches showing a marked improvement. A bountiful supply of eatables were promptly disposed of, and in fact "all went merry as a marriage bell.". The children in the early part of the day marched in procession through the streets of the town, carrying banners inscribed with various mottocs, and forming quite an imposing array. Everything passed off pleasantly and harmoniously, and old and young join in praise of the Thursday spent at Sanny Side.

A lot of choice hams just received at J. W. Cannon's.

MPORTANT-

"Where can I buy the best goods or the least money?" this is what hat man asked the crowd sitting on be court house yard steps, they all aid, "go to Dick Kortjohn's" the man had a thick looking pocket book in his hand, and started down for Kortjohn's. Out of curiosity we followed down in about an hour, and sure enough that man was loading up his wagon, and Dick, all smiles, busy assisting him, after they had finished, and Dick had got his money, and made out, and receipted the bill, the man pulled off his hat, wiped his face with his handkerchief and said, 'Kortjohn that derned paper the NEWS & TIMES said you were selling goods cheap, but I didn't know, and asked a crowd up street, but they all told me to come here, and by jingo I believe they are right. Good-bye old fellow, if you come out our way stop and see me." Dick laughed, and said he would, the man then came up to the office, paid for one year in advance, and said "I want that paper to keep coming, I like to read the adver

INTERNATIONAL-

Since the sensation created by the rifle team that went over and whipped out England, Ireland and Wales, nothing has so stirred the hearts, and awakened the entheisiasm, of the sports of our Town as the advent on Tuesday last of a team from Sweden, who arrived at this place to contest the matter with our celebrated team here, as to which could throw a brick nearest the mark. Our team were eager for the work, and meeting the Swedish team at the Depot, escorted them out to Andrews fish trap, where the trial took place before an assembled crowd of several hundred. Eighteen dozen bottles of lager were provided, and as each bottle was emptied it was placed, mouth downward, upon a three foot stick driven in the ground, each of the team took his "throw" from a mark thirty feet off. When we name our team the public will at once anticipate the result. The redoubtable Fritz, the undaunted George, and the intrepid Gus, the first bottle was placed, and with one sweep of his stalworth arm Fritz knocked it into next week, another was placed, and George coming to the scratch, opened one eye, and the next moment that bottle was a shattered wreck, Gus came up smiling, and making one mighty heave, sat down to rest, but the bottle was gone, and the man that was fishing on the other side of the river, asked them to stop throwing glass at him. The Swedes have gone home, they say they wont throw with any such crowd as that.

The first nine of the "Oranges" took a "fly" to Camden on Wednesday to give the "Kershaws" there a tussle at the bat. We asked one of the nine to report the game for us, but his account is so incoherent that we must try and put it in "ship shape." The young la dies worried our friend, and when he tells us of a beautiful "fly" caught by about one hundred young ladies who were present, and that the "catching" of Miss ---- was universally admired, we are inclined to believe that the ladies of Camden are responsible for the defeat of our boys, that player at any rate was not minding his busi-

The game began at 4 P. M., the 'Kershaws" going to the bat; the first, fourth and eighth innings were badly played on both side, the ninth very badly by the Oranges. The third, fifth, sixth and seventh were suporb, and worthy of a professional club, whitewash followed whitewash, and but for the unfortunate break in the last inning the "Oranges" would have made a good showing at the end, as it was, the score stood 25 to 15 in favor of the "Kershaws," and we congratulate them on the result. But those ladies, they caused this defeat, and we are now organizing a club of old married values to go over there and beat those fellows. When we do go, the bewitching smiles, and bewildering graces of those ladies will have no effect on us. We mean business.

Just here one of the nine says "say something about the cordial way in which the 'Kershaws' treated us," all we will say is, come over here and let these boys get hold of you.

Just received at J. W. Cannon's a fresh supply of potatoes, cabbages and Memphis has another living curiosiy-a cross eyed cat.

A couple of fellows who were pretty theroughly soaked with whisky, got in o the gutter. After floundering for ome time one of them said: "Let's go to another house, this hotel leaks."

Out Rocky Gulch, Nevada, there was plenty of murder, robbery and garroting going on, until one night the citzens hung up eleven men to a hickory tree, and now you can leave your clothes out nights.
