RELIGIOUS NOTICE. Rev. A. I. Hartley will preach in the Baptist Church in this place on Sunday the 19th inst., at 10 o'clock A. M., and 1:31 o'clock P. M.

TRIAL JUSTICE'S COURTS. The usual amount of business has been done during the past week—most of the cases being unimportant, two or three cases of stealing seed cotton from the field were called, and upon conviction the parties were sentenced to the extent of the law.

DRS. SNIDER & CALVERT. See their Dental notice in another column. Patients attended to at all hours in the day, and all work carefully and scientifically executed, give these gentlemen a trial, and we are satisfied that you will come away well pleased.

BAR YOUR DOORS AT NIGHT. Dr. A. M. Snider's dwelling was entered by a robber on Tuesday night the 31st ult., and a lot of children's clothing and other property stolen. It was again entered Tuesday night the 7th inst. and his wife's best dresses were selected and carried away. Both acts were committed while his family were at tea. The Dr. was away.

SHUETZEN VEREIN, COLUMBIA. We acknowledge with pleasure an invitation from this Society to participate in their "Fest" to be held in that city on the 12, 13 and 14 of October.

RACE NOTES. A match was made up on Monday last, between "Mollie Darling" and the "Orangeburg Maid" to trot from Engine house to rail road and up the new back street to Engine house again, the race was pretty close until towards the home stretch, then Mollie's driver threw out his tobacco, gave a war whoop, and straightened up on the lines, the Darling came in just one minute, thirteen and a quarter seconds ahead of the Maid. If there is any fast horse around this neighborhood, Mollie would like to interview her, she or it. If Bonner had time to bring Dexter down here we believe Mollie's owner would trot her against him.

HOMICIDE. Two colored men, January Evans and Harvey Cousar, on Fry & Keeffe's turpentine farm, about five miles from this place, between whom there had been ill blood for sometime past, had an encounter on Saturday night last, which resulted in the death of January Evans, who was stabbed five times by Cousar. It is said that January and another, had sworn to kill Cousar, and had hunted him up for that purpose, and Cousar in defending himself inflicted the wounds. He fled, and has not been yet arrested. Cause of all this mischief, "woman." We get the above facts from Coroner Fordham, who held the inquest.

THE SIDEWALKS. Cannot the Town Marshal put a stop to this nuisance of horses and mules occupying the sidewalks? day after day numbers of them are stretched across it, and passers by, particularly ladies and children, are compelled to resort to the street to get around. There is an ordinance we believe, forbidding horses being carried on the sidewalks, and there appears very little difference between putting a horse there intentionally, and tying him just on the edge and allowing him to go on himself. The ladies declare that the other half of humanity shall not vote for this Council again, unless this thing is stopped.

HOME AGAIN. We had the pleasure on Thursday of shaking a "howdie do" with two of our townsmen who have for the past month, been enjoying the various pleasures of "a trip North." Col. W. J. DeTreville comes back with every evidence of having been well fed, and carefully looked after. If we were in his place we would spend "a month North" every week or two. Mr. C. B. Glover also puts in an appearance, and judging from his "ketter" we don't know but what he ought to do the same thing, he looks as if he was just in trim to run that office of his, and we would not fall into his clutches now for all the snakes in Ireland. We give them a warm welcome home.

BASE BALL. The Oranges have challenged the Athletics, of Aiken, to a trial game, which has been accepted, and it will be played on the grounds of the Oranges at this place, on Tuesday next. Success to our boys. This is the last game the Oranges propose to play this season and we hope they may retire victors.

BOARD OF EXAMINERS. The County Board of Examiners, held a meeting here on Monday last, to examine parties applying for the positions of teachers. We learn that the examination was very rigid, and that while over fifty applicants were examined, a great many, warned by the failures of those who had gone before, quietly took the back track for home to hunt up their old school hooks from which they had formerly gleaned their knowledge of Pathologomy, Astronomy, Quantification Mineralization &c. &c.

COON HUNT. Even enthusiastic sportsmen, with sixteen dogs, started out a few nights since for a good old fashioned coon hunt in the river swamp. Wearily they trudged along, the night was passing rapidly away, and no sight or smell of coon, to cheer either men or dogs. They had wandered far into the swamp, and began to feel homesick, when suddenly the well known yelp was heard, and sure enough the whole pack had a big coon safely treed, but how to get him out? the tree was an enormous one, but they buckled too at it with their axe, and after an hours hard work down it ed at 4 o'clock subject to the call of old Gaberlunzie. No Fish. DEARE FRIEND Thanks for interest, information and advice. I am not likely to be yoked with any one in a year. Excuse me if I decline to accept it in such daftful shape. If you can give me FACTS and PROOFS against his moral character I never will be yoked with him, but as I consider it a serious matter and no child's play. I must have distinct charges against his moral character and the PROOFS. If I am answering you as I feel sure I am you will understand me, if not, all right. A gentleman of this town received the above letter a few days since, and as it is perfectly incomprehensible to him, he has left it with us, in case the writer desires to reclaim it.
