The variety Troupe gave an exhibition last night at Elliott Hall.

The Annual Examination of Mr. T. K. Saspertas' public School came of a few days since with brilliant success.

The Examination of the School of Mr. V. D. Bowman and Mrs. E. J. Bowman came off on the 21st inst. The result was most favorable, and established the fact that children are safe in the hands of Mr. and Mrs. Bowman. Addresses were made by Messrs Marshal Jones, J. H. Wahlers and others.

Constable Whittemore arrested a colored man while attempting to enter Mr. A. Fischer's residence on the night of the 23rd inst. He had in his possession a pistol and moulds, a powder horn filled with powder and several other articles. He was released by the Mayor on the grounds that he would leave Town.

Under a warrant, Constable J. C. Whitemore followed the burglar who broke into Dr. Dukes' store lately, and captured him at Fort Motte, he managed to escape afterwards, but the Constable laid his plans so nicely, that the next day the thief was lodged in the Jail here. So much for a Constable who understands his duty.

Free of charge. Your Druggist will refund your money if Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup does not give you satisfaction and cure your cough.
