

POETRY.

"GOOD BYE."

Farewell! farewell is often heard
From the lips of those who part
Tis a whispering tone—'tis a gentle word
But it springs not from the heart

Adieu! adieu! may greet the ear
In the guise of courtly speech
But when we leave the kind and dear
Tis not what the soul would teach

The mother sending forth her child
To meet with cares and strife
Breathes thro' her tears, her doubts and fears
For the loved one's future life

Go! watch the pale and dying one
When the glance has lost its beam
When the brow is cold as the marble stone
And the world a passing dream

MISCELLANEOUS.

DIVINITY OF PRINTING.—God was the first Printer: He gave from his hand amid the blackness of Sinai, the mind of God—the decalogue of all moral law, the claim of man upon man, and God upon all.

Love RHYMES.—It is singular how much amatory poetry is written before marriage, and how little after it. One may have but little of "the vision and the faculty divine," but on falling in love he finds that he is not without the "accomplishment of verse."

Capt. Thornton, on his arrival at Richmond, said that Ampudia was the first man he saw after the battle of the 9th of May. Ampudia pointed out to Captain Thornton his saddle, perforated with two bullet holes, but they were in the rear of the saddle, and it was very plain that they were fired when Ampudia was with his back, and not his face to the foe.

TAX THE BRANDY.—Why? "Brandy!" exclaimed a devotee at the bacchanalian shrine the other day, "brandy should come in free—and I vote for no man that goes against it."

CURIOUS LEGACY.—Mr. Tustin, late Chaplain to Congress, has had a call to the Presbyterian Church in Hagerstown, Md. Mr. Hugh Kennedy, who died some years ago, left a small annuity to that church on condition that they should sing nothing but the Psalms of David—when they depart from this they lose the legacy, which amounts to $800 per annum.

"AND-SO-FORTH."—A very witty man walked up to an oyster stand, which bore upon it, as a sign, "Oysters, &c.," and laid down a nine pence, saying he would take that money's worth of "and-so-forth."

"Tells me, will you, Pete," said Sam Johnson to Pete Gumbo, wh-wh-who does do poet speaks oh, when him beauteerfully see—

"Her walks in beauty like a thing of night," "Why, him means a nigger gal, to be sure, Sam," said Pete, "if him meant a white gal, of course he'd say like a thing of day."

"Don't understand do metamorphosis ob de figure, said Sam. As the baggage is to an army, so is riches to virtue—it cannot be spared nor left behind, but hindereth the march.

PROSPECTUS OF THE SUMTER BANNER.

Under the above Title, it is proposed to publish a paper in the Town of Sumterville. The paper will be issued weekly, on the morning of every Wednesday.

It is believed, that Sumter District affords as many capabilities for sustaining a weekly newspaper, as a medium of Advertisement, General News and Business, as any of her sister Districts in the State; and, confiding in this belief, we invite, to our columns, the attention of those, both in this and the surrounding Districts, who may be desirous of advertising and see fit to do so. It is well known, that the support of a paper in general, depends not so much on the magnitude of its subscription list, as on the advertising patronage which it may receive.

A strict attention will be paid to the local interests of the Town and District, and we shall endeavor to keep up, if necessary, the spirit and enthusiasm, which now exists, in regard to the connexion of Sumter with Charleston and Wilmington, (N. C.) by Rail Road.

In Politics, THE BANNER will be strictly Democratic, and will give a firm support to the National Administration, so far as it conforms to the principles upon which it secured the support of the Democratic party at the South.

The assistance of a friend, fully competent to the task, has been secured for the editorial department. It is not deemed necessary to make an exposition of the great variety of matter that will be contained in the pages of our paper; suffice it to say, that no pains will be spared to render it an acceptable visitor in every family in the District. The undersigned trusts, that the late failure in the attempt to establish a paper in this place, will not be permitted to operate unfavorably upon his enterprise.

The paper will be printed on a super-royal sheet, with five columns to the page, at Two Dollars and Fifty Cents, if paid in advance, Three Dollars, at the expiration of six months, or Three Dollars and Fifty Cents, at the end of the year.
WILLIAM J. FRANCIS,
Proprietor and Publisher.

N. B.—For further particulars, as regards advertising, &c. see terms on first page. Communications on business, &c., and subscriptions and advertisements, will be received at the office of Messrs. MAXWELL & RICHARDSON, or at the publishing room of the paper.

Subscriptions and advertisements are solicited.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE Session of Congress, which is about to terminate, will be long and gratefully remembered by all true republicans for the triumphant success of many of their cherished principles and measures. While we heartily rejoice at the triumph of the principles which it has been our constant effort to advocate and defend, and from which no prosperity, no adversity, can evert us, we cannot be unmindful of the attitude in which we are placed by a recent vote of both houses of Congress: we allude to the contemplated withdrawal of their patronage from the newspaper press.

It is known to every one, that the chief source of sustaining a newspaper is not the magnitude of its subscription list, so much as the advertising patronage which may be bestowed upon it. In large commercial cities, indeed, the latter is usually the concomitant of the former, as it becomes the obvious interest of mercantile men to advertise in those papers which are the most extensively circulated. Washington, however, is differently situated. Deprived of the advertising patronage incident to a mercantile community, and burdened with peculiar and enormous expenses which are not elsewhere incurred, nothing but a very long list of subscribing patrons can sustain a paper in usefulness—if, indeed, even in existence. The proprietors of the "Union" have, hitherto spared no pains, and no expense, to make their paper worthy of the metropolis, and worthy of the support of that great party under whose banner they are enlisted. In publishing the most full and ample debates of the two houses of Congress, it is believed, ever before attempted on this continent in a daily newspaper, they have secured the services of the best reporters which the country afforded, but at the enormous cost of $12,000 or $15,000 per year. Their extensive foreign and domestic correspondence is another large item of expense, but the instructive usefulness of which is so highly commended and appreciated as to justify almost any outlay to attain it. Still, it must be evident that these heavy expenses cannot be borne, unless the subscription list is commensurate to the undertaking; and although we can boast of 15,000 subscribers, (including daily, tri-weekly, and weekly,) but this list must be still considerably enlarged to enable the proprietors of the "Union" to sustain all its usefulness and to insure them against pecuniary loss.

Invoking then, again, the aid and support of all true friends of republican government, and pledging ourselves to renewed efforts in the cause of the glorious principles we cherish, we offer the following proposals:

The "DAILY UNION" will be published, as heretofore, at $10 per annum, payable in advance. Its character hitherto has been almost exclusively political. We purpose in future to devote a portion of its columns to domestic news of general interest, and to miscellaneous literature, which, without impairing its political influence, may render it the more acceptable to an extended class of readers.

The "SEMI-WEEKLY UNION" will be published every Monday and Thursday, during the recess of Congress, at $5 per annum. This contains all the matter contained in the "Daily Union," except local advertisements. During the sessions of Congress three numbers, instead of two, will be issued, without any extra charge on subscribers.

ENLARGEMENT OF THE WEEKLY UNION.
The "WEEKLY UNION" is issued every Saturday; and as arrangements are in progress to enlarge it near double its present size, we shall soon be enabled to give nearly every article which may appear in the daily and semi-weekly editions, at the extreme low rate of $2. We propose also to give, in this edition, a complete synoptical summary of the proceedings in both houses of Congress—thus rendering the "Weekly Union" a most valuable channel of information to all classes of our country. But, to remunerate us for this enterprise, an extensive subscription list is absolutely indispensable.

We seize this opportunity to add that some delay has taken place in putting our paper to press, which has prevented its early delivery to our readers, and consequently circumscribed its circulation. We shall make arrangements to remedy this defect, and to obviate this objection. After the present week we trust that no complaint will be made upon this subject.
CONGRESSIONAL REGISTER.
In addition to the foregoing, we have resolved to publish, during the sessions of the national legislature, a "Congressional Register," to be issued weekly, and to contain a FULL REPORT of the daily proceedings and debates of both houses. Indeed, the arrangements which we have made with the very best corps of reporters will enable us to give even more, full and extended reports than we have produced during this session, superior as we claim them to be to any preceding ones. The Register will be made up from the daily reports in the "Union," carefully revised by an experienced editor, and will constitute a complete and authentic record of the session. An appendix will be added, uniform with the Register, and to be sent gratuitously to subscribers, comprising a list of the acts passed during the session, with a synopsis of their contents, and a reference, when necessary, to previous legislation: This will form the most complete history of the sessions of Congress, and will be furnished at the low price of SEVENTY-FIVE CENTS for the next session.
POSTMASTERS are authorized to act as our agents; and by sending us five yearly subscribers, with the subscription money, for either the Daily Semi-Weekly, or Weekly, will be entitled to one copy of the same edition as they furnish us subscribers for.
THE CONGRESSIONAL REGISTER will be furnished them on the same terms.
NEWSPAPERS publishing our prospectus, with the notes attached, until the 1st of December next, will be entitled, during the next session of Congress, to receive a copy of the Congressional Union and Tri-Weekly Union.
Clubs will be furnished:
5 copies of the Daily for - $40 00
5 " " Semi-Weekly, 20 00
10 " " do, 35 00
5 " " Weekly, 8 00
10 " " " 15 00
20 " Congressional Register, 10 00
The name of no person will be entered upon our books unless the payment of the subscription be made in advance.
