We extend our sympathy to Mr. affliction that overtook him on the well attended. 7th inst.

Remember the colored Democrats, and give them the preference in everything, even to bringing a backet of water. Don't put bread in the mouths of your enemies.

The bulletin-board of THE NEWS AND HERALD attracted numbers of readors durnig the stirring event occurring at Columbia, for the pass week. Our telegrams were full and frequent.

We send out this week to all those now receiving The News and Herald a supplement, in which we offer special terms of subscription. These terms apply alike to those who have already paid in advance and to those who have not.

He had not slept a wink for twen ty-four hours, coughing all the time. His sister bought a 25 cent bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup at the nearest drug store, gave him a dose, and t lecough was broken at once and he slept quietly during the night.

How they would like to sit in Congress once more, but the "red shirt" boys objected, and so they will have to stay at home where they properly belong.

DEATH OF MRS. MARGARET CAMP-BELL.-Intelligence was received, on aturday last, of the death of Mrs. Margaret Campbell, the mother of Rev. W. H. Campbell. Mrs. Campbell spent the greater portion of her life in Winnel wo, and had here many warm friends. She was of a generous disposition, and was constantly doing acts of kindness to those with whom she came in contact. A communicant of the Presbyterian Church, she led a life of consistent and unostentations Christian piety. She had lived to a ripe E. M. Brayton (Rep.).....10,313 old age, being, at the time of her death, in her eighty-third year. Her remains were interred at Catholic Church, near Blackstock, in this county.

also a prisoner, came to his assistance very soon after the row commenced. Both of these "birds" are ed, the situation in Columbia was as now in irons, and will no doubt be follows: The Supreme Court had Lee.

"THE BOYS IN GREY."- We were wont to admire the boys who wore the grey, though it was not for the grey alone, but for the noble, chrivalrous hearts that beat under every land.
