

Local News

Mr. H. M. Simpson has opened up a livery business in the stables recently vacated by Mr. P. F. Smith.

A bill to add two more members to the school board of Pageland district was passed by the legislature last week.

Mr. Coit M. Graves, formerly of Pageland, who has been in Wilwood Fla. for several months, has entered Massey business college at Jacksonville Fla.

Mr. A. W. Funderburk, who has served the town for more than a year as policeman, has resigned and will farm this year. Mr. R. P. Whitmore has been elected to succeed him.

Mr. Zeb Long has sold his dray wagon to Mr. A. G. Anderson, and Mr. W. J. Blakeney has bought the Pageland Mercantile dray, thus giving us two public drays.

Thirty years ago last Thursday night, February 19, 1894, destructive cyclones swept over parts of Union county, wounding many persons and destroying thousands of dollars worth of property.

Miss Wincey Horn died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harrison Ragsdale, near Plains, last Saturday and was buried at Plains Sunday. She was 12 years old, and had been sick with measles only a few days.

Mr. J. H. Gullede, of Ruby, has moved to Florence, S. C., where he expects to farm during the summer months and run his saw mill during the winter. He says he will plant part of his crop this year in tobacco.

"It pays to Advertise," said Mr. S. H. Laney last Friday morning, "I got my cuff link." Just a 10-cent adv. in our business local column did it. Try one if you have anything you don't want, or want anything you don't have.

Mr. Robt. Mangum, son of Mr. John Mangum of route one, and Miss Laura Miles, daughter of Mr. James Miles, were married last night about 7 o'clock at the home of Mr. Solomon Jordon by Rev. J. A. McGraw. This is a popular young couple with many friends to wish them happiness.

There will be a joint meeting of the teachers and trustees of the county at Cheraw next Saturday, February 28th. Special schedules on the railroads and free entertainment while in Cheraw, says Supt. Rouse, and he urges every teacher and trustee to be present.

Mr. G. C. Deese, better known as "Dock," and Miss Beatrice Lowery, were married by Rev. J. M. Sullivan at his home Sunday evening about 8:30. Mr. Deese is a son of Mr. John H. Deese, of Lanes Creek township, and is well known here. Mrs. Deese is a daughter of Mrs. Margaret Lowery. These young people deserve the respect and best wishes of their many friends.

A small child of Mr. and Mrs. Errier Whitley's, of Buford township, died Thursday afternoon shortly after taking a capsule given by Mr. Whitney. The child was about two years old and was able to be carried about. The capsule was given and in a few minutes the child was dead. It is believed that the capsule got into the wind pipe and cut off the child's breath.

Sue Timmons, an aged colored woman, was burned to death at her cabin near Guess last Tuesday afternoon. The fire and its contents were so hot, and as she lived alone she knows how the fire started. Charred remains were found in the ashes, but she didn't deem an inquest necessary. Those living near the scene when the smoke, but arrived in time for service.

Mr. S. I. Evans is opening a grocery store in the small room on the corner of Pearl and McGregor streets.

Sunday was George Washington's birthday, and Monday was observed as a legal holiday by the postmasters and rural carriers.

At a stockholders' meeting last Tuesday the Pageland Mercantile company was reorganized with the following officers: R. H. Blakeney, pres.; J. E. King, vice pres.; J. Monroe Rallings, sec.; S. W. Watts, mgr. The stockholders since the reorganization are W. J. Blakeney, Joe M. Rallings, J. A. Mills, J. A. Turner and the officers mentioned above.

Mungo Brothers have bought Mr. G. M. Rodgers' stock of merchandise and have enlarged their store so that both rooms of the building are now used by them. This gives them twice as much floor space and they are now better prepared to take care of their growing trade. Mr. Rodgers, who is magistrate for this township, has purchased an interest in the telephone exchange here and will devote part of his time to it.

John Edgeworth, a negro about 40 years old, died alone in his cabin near Crowburk last Thursday morning and was found dead by other negroes in a few hours after his death. He had been sick some time and had been at the home of some of his people about a mile away, but a few days before his death he was carried home and left alone. He had to get his own wood, and pneumonia was contracted, which resulted in his death. His brother spent the night with him before he died in the morning, and said he seemed better. Dr. Eubanks examined the body and found no evidences of foul play, and no inquest was held.
