He entered and laid down some suspicious-looking bills, with a genuine dollar bill on top. "I came to pay for that barrel of potatoes I got."
"Can't take this money," said the dealer.
"Why not?"
"Most of it isn't good."
"The top layer is good, is it not?"
"Yes."
"That's the way it was with the potatoes."

May was jolly over everything. Nothing appealed to her very seriously, so one day her mother decided to invite a serious parson to dinner, and he was placed next to the light-hearted girl. Everything went smoothly until she asked him what his mission was:
"You speak of everybody having a mission. What is yours?"
"My mission," replied he, "is to save young men."
"Fine," said the girl. "I am glad to meet you. I wish you would save one for me, please."
