Several persons hereabouts are taking the automobile fever. The writer had a light attack recently and went so far as to start on a trip in a worn-out runabout. Three hours flat on his back under the greasy thing, turning taps and driving keys, and a tramp of some less than twenty miles, followed by Dodson's liver tone, has completely cured the malady, it seems, and there is little to show for the experience save a half-moon of grease around the finger nails and a lesson not easily forgotten.

Huerta, the Mexican dictator, seems determined to have trouble with the United States government, and there is prospect of fighting, it seems at the time this is being written, but there is no cause for alarm.

If it comes to the worst it will hardly be more than the Spanish American War of 1898, which was little more than a breakfast job for the splendid army and navy of our government.

The writer is of the opinion that the rebel forces in Mexico will join with the United States against the Huerta regime, and thereby make it an easy task for the combined forces to put an end to the lawless Huerta government and establish constitutional government in this turbulent country.

Those of our people who are old enough to remember the Civil war view with alarm any war talk, for those four years of blood and misery followed by several of deepest humiliation are not soon forgotten. There is no cause for uneasiness at this time however. This little trouble is with the defacto government of a country already torn to pieces by trouble at home and almost ready to crumble. The rebel forces are gaining ground daily, and the old Huerta faction must go sooner or later even if the United States does not take a hand. War has not been declared and in all probability will not be. As will be observed by reading the dispatches found in another column our government simply insists that apology be made for the indignities to which the government has been subjected by the officers of this usurper, Huerta. President Wilson is being praised throughout the land for the decided stand he has taken, and the jingoes who have criticized him for his so-called indifferent attitude will now see that his "watchful waiting" was by no means a weakness, but the evidence of wisdom and firmness, and that his actions have been guided by a cool head and a clear brain.

A Freak Egg.

We saw the other day a curiosity in the shape of an egg. Mr. Abel Nelson brought it to The News office for us to look at. It was a hen egg of average size, but on one side was what looked like the dial of a watch, surrounded with marks resembling figures. These were placed at regular intervals like the hour marks on the face of a time piece. The egg really was quite a curiosity.—Lancaster News.

CHURCH NOTES

Methodist Episcopal
By Rev. J. A. McGraw

Beginning with next Sunday night we will preach each evening at 8.15 o'clock in the Pageland church. During this week of services we cordially invite all Christians to join with us in worship and in services. We will not have any visiting preacher to assist us this week but if the church people are true to their professions we do not need any. The best meeting that we have ever known was when the pastor and people had charge of all the services.

Preaching every night from next Sunday through the following Sunday night.

Mr. Dewitt Sanders who teaches the class of adult young people in the Pageland Sunday school has planned to give each member of his class a Young People's Visitor each Sunday. This at his own expense. This evidences the fact that when a person puts his whole heart into an enterprise or undertaking that they often find something to do outside of following in our old rut that has long been wheeled out.

Services next Sunday as follows: Mt. Croghan 11 a. m., Zion 3.30 p. m. and Pageland in evening at 8.15.

The Ladies' Aid Society meets with Mrs. McGraw Thursday afternoon at four o'clock. Each member is requested to bring a new member.

Baptist

J. M. Sullivan, Pastor.

Last Sunday it was our happy privilege to again be with Taxahaw and White Plains. Taxahaw in the forenoon, and glad to sav that we had a much larger congregation than before. It seems to us that it is a great pity that these good people haven't a railroad near or thru their little town.

At Plains we always find a large audience ready and waiting to hear the good news of life and salvation. We are delighted with the way in which our young people, appointed on committees to canvass for Home and Foreign missions, have succeeded in raising, or will by next Sunday, all of our apportionments for these worthy causes.

The ladies of Pageland church are observing this week a week of prayer. If you can not attend be sure to pray in your homes during this week as never before that God may bless our town and community and that our great mission work may see a better day. Not only pray but let us be willing to do something for our Lord.

The Woman's Missionary Union will have a public meeting Sunday evening beginning at 8 o'clock. Everybody invited to be present and learn more about the work being done by the ladies.

Next Sunday, Pageland 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.

White Plains B. Y. P. U. mission program beginning at 3 p. m. All who are in reach are cordially invited to come and hear our young people.

Principles of Banking ought to be understood by every young man — and even boys ought to be taught that they mean the conservation of the finances of the country, the restraint of spendthrift, reckless expenditure, and the orderly, systematic and profitable arrangement of loans to reliable firms and individuals on substantial security. The model of a perfect banking house is at our address.

ARE YOU GOING TO PAINT

YOUR HOUSE INSIDE OR OUTSIDE; YOUR BARN OR OTHER BULDINGS?

You cannot lose money that you pay for paint, for, like the bread on the waters, it will come back to you in a hundred ways. It preserves the wood and makes your house last years longer than it otherwise would, and at the same time it beautifies your place and makes it worth much more should you desire to sell or trade.

In the springtime or early summer when the weather is warm and the sun is continually shining is the ONLY time to paint if you are looking for the best results.

And the best paint that money can buy can be made by mixing Carters White Lead and Spencer-Kellogg's Pure Linseed Oil. These products mixed, makes the whitest paint known, but if you do not wish to paint your house white, our color chart is at your service, from this you can select colors that harmonize so perfectly that they will make the most common house look beautiful.

When in town ask to see this chart and talk over your paint proposition with us.
