Dr. J. Monroe Rallings has accepted a position as cattle tick inspector and will begin work May 1st. He will be located here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Little gave a very delightful informal party to a number of their young friends last Thursday night, which was greatly enjoyed.

Mr. Zeb Perry, of Wingate, and Miss Fannie Tadlock, of Marshville township were married by Rev. E. C. Snider at his home in Wingate Friday night.

Mr. W. A. Pigg, Sr. asks us to say that his oats are being walked on and mashed down by children from town who are looking for minnows in the little branch, and that he desires that this be stopped.

Mr. J. D. Redfearn has installed a dynamo, gasoline engine and moving picture machine, and expects to open up his show about two nights in a week, probably Tuesday and Saturday, beginning next Tuesday night.

The Journal is asked to say that a meeting will be held at Bethlehem (formerly called Menden) next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 to organize a Sunday school. All who are interested are invited to be present.

Mr. Monroe Mills a white man about 30 years old, had several fingers cut off by an edger at Mr. J. A. Smith's saw mill on Mr. E. S. Johns' farm three miles east of town Monday. Dr. I. S. Funderburk, of Mt. Croghan, dressed the wound and Mr. Mills is getting along very well.

The Democratic clubs all over the state met Saturday and elected delegates to the county convention which will be held at the county seats next Monday, May 4th. The club at Pageland met in the afternoon and elected thirteen delegates.

Mrs. Alice Nelson, of Lancaster county, died Monday night, after an illness of several weeks with gall stones and cancer of the liver. Her death was not unexpected for her condition had been very critical for more than a month. She was a member of old Tirzah Presbyterian church and was an upright christian lady. Her body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Tirzah yesterday afternoon. Her husband and six children survive. Mr. R. H. Nelson, of Pageland is a son.

The newspaper man is in a peculiar position. He has from 2,000 to 3,000 chances to make an ass of himself every day, and there is no glossing over his errors. The lawyer can have his corrected by a higher court, the doctor buries his, but the newspaper man is at the mercy of the public. Therefore if the writer makes a mistake now and then don't jump upon him.

The annual commencement of Wingate School is just over. Medals were awarded as follows: debater, J. Collie Meigs; declaimer, Cecil C. Perry; reciter, Miss Willie Braswell; orator, C. C. Burrus. Rev. Bruce Benton, of Rockingham, N. C., preached the annual sermon Sunday, and John A. McRae, of Charlotte, delivered the address Monday afternoon. Prof. J. G. Carroll has been re-elected principal for the next term, but Prof. G. C. Buck will go elsewhere. The members of the graduating class are as follows: C. C. Burrus, Pres.; W. C. Austin, V. Pres.; W. A. Redfearn, Sec.; Estelle Barrett, Treas.; Mavis Funderburk, Maude Funderburk, Edna Wimberley, Blanche Chaney, Marietta Plyler, Maggie Jerome and Ruth Redfearn.

The last few days have been warm and fair and the farmers are making use of the time at home and the merchants are taking a rest.

Three cases were tried in the civil court at Chesterfield last week after we went to press. John T. Gullledge vs. J. T. Woodard, dispute over land line; verdict for Woodard for about 25 acres, and about 10 for Gullledge Griggs Bros. vs. L. Graves; dispute over mortgaged saw mill and bill of lumber; verdict for Griggs Bros. for $200. Jermon vs. Seaboard, for killing 2 mules and damaging wagon at Cheraw, verdict for Jermon for about $590.

Mr. Bradley F. Teal, was married last evening at 6:30 o'clock to Miss Mattie Beulah Griggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Calvin Griggs, says the Chesterfield Advertiser. The marriage was solemnized by Rev. J. E. Woolsey, of Morven in New Hope church, Wadesboro, N. C. Mr. and Mrs. Teal are now in Chesterfield receiving the best wishes of a host of friends. Mr. Teal came to Chesterfield Jan. 1. He is a member of the firm of Teal-Jones and is an upright Christian gentleman. His bride is one of Anson's fairest and noblest daughters.

Mr. C. C. Griffin, a stockholder in the Davis-Ross Company and an employee of that firm, found a grit sack containing five fine new suits of clothes and three extra pairs of pants under A. P. Phifer's fertilizer warehouse yesterday, says the Marshville Home. The clothes were of the brand handled by J. C. Austin & Company and bore his mark. It seems almost certain that they were placed there by a thief who, in all probability, robbed the store of J. C. Austin & Company and then set fire to it a few weeks ago. It was suspected at the time that such was the case, as those who reathed the burning building first discovered that an entrance had been made through the back door. The finding of the sack of clothes yesterday has added strength to this theory.

The lumber plant of the C. C. Osborne Lumber company at Mt. Croghan was burned Saturday afternoon about 3 o'clock, together with about two hundred thousand feet of lumber on the yard and two car loads ready for shipment. The fire originated in the oil house and had gained considerable headway before it was discovered. It was impossible to save the plant and efforts were directed toward saving the thousands of feet of lumber on the adjacent yard. The boiler was not injured and the engine may be repaired, but all of the other machinery was totally destroyed. The plant was shut down and the hands were away, and it is impossible to say how the fire originated. A bill of lading had been issued by the railroad for one of the cars of lumber and it is thought the loss of this will fall on the railroad. The fire occurred just before the afternoon passenger train was due at Mt. Croghan, and the train was delayed until about night because of the burned ties and hot rails, the lumber plant being only a few yards from the track and not far from the depot. It was thought for a while that the depot and cotton platform would be burned. The total loss to the lumber company is estimated at about $7,000.00, and there was not a dollar of insurance. Plans are being made to rebuild.

Latest Revised Marriage Service

Wilt thou take this brown-stone front,

These carriages, this diamond, To be the husband of thy choice Fast locked in band of Hymen? And wilt thou leave thy home and friends

To be his loving wife, And help to spend his income, So long as thou has life? "I will," the modest maid replies "The love light beaming from her eyes.

And wilt thou take this water fall This ostentatious pride, With all these unpaid milliners' bills,

To be thy chosen bride? And wilt thou love and cherish her, Wilt thou hast life and health; And die as soon as possible

And leave her all thy wealth? "I will," the fearless mate replies And eager waits the nuptial ties.

Then I pronounce you man and wife, And what I've joined forever, The next best lawyer may dis-unite.
