

Baptist

J. M. Sullivan, Pastor.

To be conscious of the fact that we have done our duty is something to be coveted.

We are persuaded to believe that our services last Sunday at Pageland were not a failure. Tho at the same time we realized that we were trying to handle a mighty "big" subject. "The Christ crowded out."

Sunday afternoon at White Plains with the B. Y. P. U., was a service we hope will linger in the hearts and lives of our people for months and years to come. These young people are doing a work that will tell in years to come. Sometimes we are persuaded to believe that one of these days we are to have a missionary from this dear old church. All the prayers and efforts of the Fathers in Israel are not to be forever lost.

A report of the committee appointed to canvass for Home and Foreign missions, reported $23.00 for these great causes.

In some respects last Sunday was a "Red letter day" in our work here and at White Plains. Especially if we take in the facts as they are, so many good things were said at Plains by the young people and then in the evening hour at Pageland with the ladies in charge. This being the closing service with them following the week of prayer, which in every way has proven a great blessing to them and us. In work they have raised within the last few months including week of prayer nearly $32.00 this is very good indeed, enough to put our male members to shame.

The following is the program: Devotional Mrs. J. E. King; Duet "Over the ocean waves," by Mesdames Stewart and Laney; Three readings by Mrs. A. F. Funderburk, 1st, "I am the Mission study class," 2nd, "Objections to Foreign Missions" 3rd, "Jerry's Parable of the Talent," Solo, Somebody, Mrs. Duncan.

Next Sunday White Plains 11 a. m. Center Grove school house 3:30 p. m. Plains Saturday 3:00 p. m. Off to the Southern Baptist Convention, Nashville, Tenn., May 13-20. We want to thank the brother who said he would give $5.00 on sending his pastor.

Governor Cannot Lead Militia

Washington, April 24th.—The volunteer army bill which places the National Guard on a war footing, subject to the call and direction of the president, was passed by both Houses of Congress today and was sent to the president for his signature.

As perfected in conference the measure takes from the governors of the several States the right to officer the companies and regiments and confers upon the president the appointment of all commissioned officers.

His Explanation.

The man who lived at No. 29 went across to the man who lived at No. 31 and called him to account.

"You spanked my little boy!" said the man who lived at 29.

"I did!" confessed the man who lived at 31. "Your boy called me a darned old bonehead. Now, how would you like to have a boy call you a bonehead. I mean if you wasn't one?"—Ex.

James's Economy.

"Papa," asked James, wouldn't you be glad if I saved a dollar for you?"

"Certainly, my son," said Papa so delighted at this evidence of budding business ability that he handed the youth a dime.

"Well I saved it all right," said James, disappearing. "You said if I brought a good report from my teacher you would give me a dollar; but I didn't.—Selected.
