CHURCH NOTES

Baptist

J. M. Sullivan, Pastor.

We were glad to have with us on last Sunday such a large audience, not only of our own members but many others of the other churches. Bro. J. V. Quick M. P., pastor was with us. We want to thank one and all for helping our Supt., to make the day a grand success. We rejoice to hear so many say that they enjoyed the service. Mothers we are glad to give service to honor you, if in and in your memory if dead.

"And I will bless her, and give thee a son also of her; yea, I will bless her, and she shall be a Mother of Nations; kings of people shall be of her." Gen. 17:16. Mothers be faithful God will take care of your efforts in behalf of your children. May you be a brave mother, a pious mother and a praying mother.

All the ladies are invited to meet with the Reading Circle Thursday, 4 p. m., at the home of Mrs. J. E. King.

We are under many obligations to Brethern Leon and Frank Funderburk for kindly consenting to fill our appointments next Sunday at Taxahaw 11 a. m., White Plains 3:30 p. m.

We feel under many obligations to those who are helping to send us to the convention. Especially would we remember our friends at Providence church for sending a nice little contribution. Thank you one and all. May God bless you all.

Methodist Protestant

By Jno. W. Quick, Pastor.

Two intelligent Christian men were conversing recently about the religious reading matter that comes into our homes, when one of them mentioned a certain religious weekly. The other one said, "What it contains is true, but it lacks fragrance, spiritual flavor." That was the point.

God or not. He added, "I have often seen sermons in print that were excellent in conception, in division, in language, in illustration, in logic, but lacking in spiritual power. They were cold and intellectual, not having spiritual flavor. Spiritual fragrance can only come through spiritual conditions. Preaching without spiritual power is like a rose without perfume. Christ's name is like ointment poured fourth. We can only get the perfume by getting more Christ."

We are not sure that our two friends were altogether generous in their criticism. Nevertheless there was a large element of truth in what they said and spiritual fragrance is something the possession of which is very much to be desired. "More of Thy spirit we pray."

Our appointment for next Sunday is at Rose Hill 11 a. m. Pray for us that we may be baptized with the spirit.
