Born to Mr. and Mrs. Joe M. Rollins Friday a son.

The first watermelons of the season arrived last week. The price was about 50 cents each or 5 cents a thump.

Mr. B. F. Clark, the man without hands, continues his pranks. He has been seen running an automobile, and he goes hunting when he pleases.

Mr. E. E. Porter is again in Chesterfield, being connected with the Chesterfield Loan & Insurance Co., says the Chesterfield Advertiser. The many friends of Mr. Porter are glad that he is again in Chesterfield.

The Jefferson Mercantile company of Jefferson has been chartered, with a capital of $6000. The officers are M. M. Johnson, president; L. E. Raley, vice president, and C. H. Raley, secretary and treasurer.

A horse ran away with Messrs. J. V. Thompson and Willie Sanders near Spring Hill church in Lancaster county Sunday and Mr. Thompson is suffering from a broken rib and other bruises sustained when the buggy turned over.

Misses Benton and Gullede, the popular milliners for Pageland Mercantile company and Carolina Supply company respectively during the past season left Thursday for their homes in Wadesboro. Miss Benton expects to return to Pageland next season and Miss Gullede may return also.

Mr. A. F. Funderburk, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Funderburk of Pageland, has been appointed city engineer, street commissioner and zoning inspector in Martinsburg, W. Va., at a salary of $900.00 per year. He is a Democrat and was appointed by a Republican mayor.

Cotton blooms are being reported on every hand. Messrs. G. W. Myers, J. D. Watts, W. E. Hancock and J. A. Arant report that each had a bloom on Tuesday 16th. Mr. J. R. Rollins brought one on Wednesday, and then the cotton began in earnest and we quit the game. Mr. C. L. Gullede says some of his cotton is nearly hip high and Mr. W. T. Edgeworth says he thinks his will be. Mr. Gullede would probably exhibit his stalk but he wants to keep it.

Mr. H. L. Johnson, who has been with The Journal for more than two years, left Monday morning to enter the summer school at Wofford college. He expects to enter the University of South Carolina at the opening of the next session. Mr. Johnson is an exceptionally fine young gentleman and his going is a distinct loss to The Journal. He is apt, honest, sober, moral and faithful to duty. A college course will better fit him for life's work and, while we feel the loss, we can't say we regret that he has gone. In his going the town loses one of its best young men.

Sunday was the longest day in the year, if we are to accept the statement of those who know, and the days now begin to shorten and the nights to lengthen. This time is called the summer solstice. The solstices fall on June 21st and December 22nd of each year, December 22nd being the shortest day. The equinoxes are March 21st and September 22nd. On these dates the days and nights are of equal length. On last Sunday it was nearly fifteen hours from sun rise until sun set. We are thankful that the shorter days are coming.

The Journal was in error last week in saying that Mr. Earl Griffith, of Jefferson, had an operation for appendicitis. It was his brother, Mr. Claude Griffith, who was operated on and he is doing nicely.

Mr. John D. Keziah, of near Matthews, N. C., died at his home Sunday afternoon about 4 o'clock. He had been sick several weeks with bone consumption and cancer of the stomach. He was about 46 years old and is survived by a wife and five children. He was a brother of Mrs. W. L. Marze, of Pageland, and he was a member of Pageland Baptist church. He was a native of Union county, but he lived near Pageland two years and moved back to his home last fall. He was a good citizen and neighbor, and he was highly respected by those who knew him. A good man has suffered and gone to his reward.

There are 25 methodist (church South) Sunday schools in Chesterfield county and each of these will send it's superintendent and one delegates to this conference.

Eastern Star Meeting.

All officers and members of the Pageland chapter of the Eastern Star are requested to be present at the regular meeting next Friday night at 8 o'clock to hear the report of the Grand chapter which recently closed at Clio, Paternally yours, Mrs. H. W. Crosswell, Worthy Matron.

Use Soda Now.

Now is the time to use Nitrate of Soda on the young crops as well as the older ones. The young plants need the soda to make them grow rapidly and mature before frost comes. The crops do not get as much benefit from the soda if it is applied late. Put the soda in early and cultivate shallow and often, keeping the land just as level as possible all the time. Do not plow up the feed roots, but allow them to grow and nourish the plants. Shallow and often from now on should be your aim.

J. A. Arant.

Route 1 Items.

Misses Annie and Desdine Lowery, of Altan, spent Sunday with relatives and friends in this section.

The Lord's supper was observed at Salem last Sunday at Rev. A. J. Crane's regular appointment.

Mr. Junius Horton, who attended the Presbyterian theological seminary in Richmond, Va., last session, is at the home of his father, Mr. H. H. Horton, and he will work in the Sunday school at Salem this summer. He was recently operated on for appendicitis.

There will be a debate at Mills school house next Saturday night. Subject: Should we as a State or a nation allow woman suffrage? Affirmative, L. B. Price, W. N. Knight, P. H. Mills. Negative J. F. Richardson, J. L. Griggs, E. Mills.

Miss Lela Wallace, of near Mt. Croghan, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. C. Sims.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our friends for their kindness to us during the sickness and death of our little Edith Elaine.

We had moved here as strangers in a strange land but these people have treated us as brothers and sisters and our hearts go out in gratitude to them for it. We find it to be true that, "A friend in need is a friend indeed." May God reward them as we never can.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Yarborough.
