

Local News

The ladies' aid society of the M. E. church will meet this afternoon with Mrs. J. E. Crosswell.

Mr. B. C. Ogburn and family moved to Cheraw last week, where they will run the Cheraw hotel.

Mr. J. L. Cato has moved from his farm just east of town into the old Fox house on Pearl street.

Mr. R. F. Smith has moved his family back from his farm 2 miles north of town to his residence in the western part of town.

The Journal is asked to say all who are interested are requested to meet at Liberty Hill church next Friday morning to clean off the cemetery.

All persons interested are requested to meet at Five Forks next Friday morning at 7 o'clock for the purpose of cleaning off the cemetery and church grounds.

Mr. J. C. Blackwell has purchased the large two-story house just south of Dr. B. C. Moore's from Mr. T. A. Gullidge and has moved his family into it. They will keep boarders.

There will be children's day exercises and a picnic dinner at Five Forks next Saturday. The public is invited to be present and to bring well filled baskets, especially the members of the church.

Mr. R. F. Smith has purchased the pool tables recently installed by Frank Salem in the Whitley building on Pearl street. Mr. Smith is opening up sale and exchange stables back of the pool room.

Mr. [redacted] on requests that [redacted] at all members of Mt. Moriah church are asked to be present at the church at 10 o'clock on the third Sunday in August, at which time a pastor for the next year will be called.

Rev. M. C. King asks us to say that a good meeting was held at Bethlehem last week and nine joined for baptism. Mr. B. B. Steen who is just entering the ministry assisted in the meeting. The ordinance of baptism will be administered at Steele's mill next Sunday.

Mr. James Baker's house in the Five Forks section barely escaped destruction by fire Monday afternoon of last week. About one fourth of the roof was burned before it was extinguished by the help of neighbors who hurried to the scene when the alarm was given.

The county campaign will open Thursday Aug. 6th at Brock's Mill, and continue as follows: Cheraw Aug 6 at night; Patrick 7th; McBee 8th; Jefferson 18th; Pageland 19th; Mt. Croghan 20; Odom's Mill 21; Chesterfield 22. The first primary will be held on Tuesday, August 25th.

Mr. L. C. Watford, of Lamar, has purchased an interest in the Pageland Hardware company and has taken a position there. This company is now composed by the two brothers, Messrs. L. J. and L. C. Watford and Mr. C. T. Williams, of Richmond. Mr. L. C. Watford has moved his family into the McCaskill house on Maple street.

Mr. N. S. Garner, of Route one, sent us a freak egg last week. It was long and small in the middle, resembling very much a small gourd that is large at each end. It was laid by an ordinary hen and the shell was like other egg shells. It looked so much like a gourd that a visitor pounced it against the desk and broke it. If you think we are lying about it, just say so to the other fellow. Don't come here with your fresh talk.

Mr. Roy L. Smith has purchased Mr. J. F. Porter's stock of gents' furnishings and will continue the business at the same stand. He has been with Mr. C. L. Gullidge at Guess for several months. He will move into the residence in the eastern part of town recently vacated by Mr. C. W. Clark.

On Friday, August 21st there will be a picnic and barbecue at Big Springs. Every body is invited to attend and carry a basket, with some extra, plain cornbread and pickle to go along with the barbecue, which will be furnished by the Resort Co., Among the noted speakers that have accepted invitations to speak are Hon. E. J. Watson, of Columbia, and Hon. David R. Coker, of Hartsville, S. C. Music by brass band throughout the day.

J. D. Redfearn, a young negro, is in jail at Chesterfield charged with drowning a negro boy in a pond at Thompson's creek trestle on the Seaboard in the lower part of the county Sunday, July 26th. An inquest was held over the body on the following day by Coroner Atkinson. It seems that neither of the negroes could swim and that the boy was persuaded or carried too far out by Redfearn. Some reports say that the boy was ducked twice and left to swim or drown.

The Appeal to Reason "I teach a primary grade," remarked a public school teacher recently, "and it has come to be my honest conviction that the average youngster needs a spanking at least once a day, just for the good of his soul; that certainly does quicken his moral sense as nothing else will. Here is an illustration: One of my boys had skipped his classes, deceived his mother, been found out, and had caused any amount of unhappiness all around. I took him aside, and we had a heart-to-heart talk. Johnny sat still, looked at me intently and seemed deeply impressed. I thought I was making great headway, and that my little sermon was surely penetrating Johnny's brain. I never saw a child who seemed so absorbed, even fascinated, by my line of argument. But you never can tell. Just as I had reached the climax, in my appeal to his better self, a light of discovery broke over Johnny: "Say, teacher," he said, "it's your lower jaw that moves, ain't it?"

W. O. W. Have you paid your assessment for last month No. 286; If not you are suspended for the month of August. I have made my report for the month. J. W. Quick, clerk.

A young man who last month received his diploma has been looking around successively for a position, employment, and a job. Entering an office the other day he asked to see the manager, and while waiting for that gentleman to become disengaged he said to the office boy; "Do you suppose there is any opening here for a college graduate?" "Well dere will be," was the reply. "If de boss don't raise me salary to t'ree dollars a week by tomorrer nite."—Ex
