By reference to the candidate's column it may be seen that the names of G. M. Rodgers and D. W. Knight have been dropped and W. P. Odom has been added. Mr. Knight was a candidate for auditor and Mr. Rodgers for magistrate. Mr. Odom is a candidate for representative.

Four meetings of the county campaign have been held, and the candidates are this week re-loading for the meetings yet to be held. The other meetings are as follows: Jefferson 18th; Pageland 19th; Mt. Croghan 20; Odom's Mill 21; Chesterfield 22. The first primary will be held on Tuesday, August 25th.

The protracted meeting is in progress at Rose Hill church, and Rev. W. D. Reid, of Stanley county, N. C., is doing the preaching. He is very plain and clear in his discourses, and he is uttering some very cutting truths. He is an able preacher and his sermons are logical and compelling, and there is much interested in the revival.

Miss Maude Mangum, the little blind girl who gave a musical entertainment here two years ago, will give another in the school auditorium next Tuesday night, August 18th. A large crowd attended before and all were pleased with her music, and she was made happy. She is now a graduate in music, and therefore much better prepared than she was at that time. Admission will be 15 and 25 cents. She will highly appreciate your presence.

Mr. John W. Huntley, of Rock Hill, is visiting old acquaintances in Union county. He formerly lived on the farm where Mr. John Deese now lives, and he was well known over the county. He invented a cotton planter before the war and manufactured a number of planters in the spring of 1860, the patent having been secured the year before. The planter was very much like the Lytch planter. The main difference was that the furrow was made by a very small plow and the feed was operated by a belt instead of a lever. The Civil war demoralized the cotton industry and there was no demand for planters. In 1872, he contracted with an impliment manufacturing company in Charlotte to make the planters for him. He says they didn't make the feeding arrangement just as he specified and the planters did not give entire satisfaction. His planters sold for $15. In the meantime, others had made improvements and secured patents on planters they could sell cheaper, and he was forced out of the business.

Mr. T. W. Gregory has sold his stock of groceries to Mr. W. F. Redfearn, who will carry a line of groceries in connection with the market.

Several weeks ago the news was passed along that the rural carriers would get a raise of $100.00 on July 1st, and all the carriers were requested to count and weigh the mail for two months. Now the word comes that the increase will be according to length of route, amount of mail carried, etc. and very few are getting any raise at all. Mr. D. F. Little gets four dollars a year more and Mr. J. T. Little doesn't get any more. None of the carriers at Marshville get a raise, and only two at Monroe get a raise. Mr. Adam Peneger on route one gets $52 more and Mr. Secrest gets $4 more. Eleven hundred was the salary for a standard route before the raise, and they all expected it to be $1,200 after July 1st. Mr. Finley is trying to get the raise for them as it was first announced.

Uncle Billy walked into the village store about the middle of the afternoon, and the storekeeper, waking from his nap, said, "Thought you'd gone to the state fair."

"I did," was the brief reply, as Uncle Billy helped himself to a chair.

"Didn't you like it?"

Uncle Billy looked round cautiously. The other village eaters were having a game of horseshoe in front of the blacksmith shop; so lowering his voice, he said, confidentially, "I'll tell you how it happened. I hadn't been to the state fair for twenty year, so I wasn't on to it very well. I decided I'd keep an eye on the crowds, and foller where they seemed the thickest. Well, it worked pretty well. I went around to a good many fine displays and shows and things. About noon, I saw a lot of fine dressed folks goin' all in one direction, so I took after 'em. They all pushed and jammed to get through an archway, and I pushed, too. Well, what d'you guess it was?"

"Give it up," the storekeeper said, eager for the climax.

"Well, they were all city folks, goin' home to dinner, and there I stood on the outside. I wasn't goin' to pay no fifty cents to get back in, so I lit out for home. I thought I'd stop in here for a spell, to keep the fam'ly from askin' questions about my gettin' home so early."

Stevenson's Platform

1. Equality for the voters of the Fifth District who are loyal citizens. They are now being discriminated against in the following particulars:

(a) Congress is wasting on the average $40,000,000 of dollars a year in River and Harbor projects which are practically useless to the Fifth District, and has utterly failed to comply with the Constitution to build and maintain its postroads. If it would spend $60,000,000 a year on the public roads which it uses for carrying the mails it would mean $1,000,000 a year for South Carolina roads and $142,857 in the Fifth District each year or $20,400 in each county of the District. This Congress with Mr. Finley's help has just passed a River and Harbor bill providing for spending $90,000,000. This would make $1,500,000 for South Carolina or $30,000 for each county in this District. Now the people are taxed that amount for Rivers and Harbors and get no benefit. Suppose our part was spent on the roads of the Fifth District. It would help every man in the District, especially the farmers. The value of their lands would be doubled.

(b) They are discriminated against in what is known as the Reclamation Service: $106,000,000 has been spent in building dams to irrigate the States of the West. Why not give the South some for it for public roads?

(c) The farmers of the Fifth District, as well as other citizens, were discriminated against by the act giving free tolls to the ship owners flying the U. S. flag and engaged in the coastwise trade when passing through the Canal and placing the burden of maintaining the canal on the people instead of those who use it. This amounts to millions of dollars and was merely a gift to people who are already rich. Morgan & Co., of New York, are dominant in this trade we are informed and the bonds of the shipping companies are held in Europe. There is no voter of the Fifth District who owns either stocks or bonds in such ships. Why tax them then give money to the millionaires of New York and New England and Europe? Yet Mr. Finley voted to do that thing. Woodrow Wilson said it was "wrong from any point of view." Mr. Finley followed Champ Clark against the request of Woodrow Wilson and voted to tax you to keep up the rich, yet when the Fifth District voter wants to ship his cotton or cotton goods or to import his nitrate of soda or Peruvian guano, this moves in ships engaged in foreign commerce, and they had to pay toll while the manufacturers of New England, New York and Pennsylvania ship their wares in large quantities coastwise to California, Oregon and Washington and hence get the benefit of free tolls if the shipper gets any and the Fifth District is discriminated against again and by the vote of Mr. Finley, its Congressman. Mr. Stevenson is opposed to this and stands with President Wilson on this issue.

Finally. He opposes giving away the great water powers. As late as February 24, 1911, with Mr. Finley in Congress, they gave away to a Power Corporation (Ozark Power Company) a water right that the Missouri Waterway Commission says will give a net income of $350,000 a year on the investment of $2,000,000. Thus the people are robbed for the rich and there are hundreds of other like projects. Do we ever hear of the congressman of the Fifth District objecting?

Try a new man. Stevenson is the candidate.
