Listen Listen

We are now making the greatest slaughter in shoe prices ever seen in Pageland.

For the next 15 days we will conduct a special shoe sale.

All $4.50 shoes will be reduced to $3.00 all $3.50 shoes $2.75 all $2.50 shoes $1.75. We have several dozen of shoes in broken sizes at about one half their actual value. All ladies Oxfords absolutely at cost. We have a lot of men's and boy's Oxfords, nice new goods that will be offered at cost while this sale lasts.

Now this is not a fake in any way but a straight, bona fide offer, made for one purpose only, viz to reduce our shoe stock.

Now do not fail to avail yourself of this great opportunity to supply yourself and family with shoes at less than wholesale prices

All shoes will be placed on a table and marked plainly. You can examine them and if convinced that we are offering bargains such as you never saw before we will gladly wait on you. Otherwise we don't ask you to buy. Remember this sale will begin Saturday Aug. 29th and last for 15 days.

Yours for business

PAGELAND MERCANTILE CO.

For Ten Cents.

We now offer to send The Pageland Journal to all new subscribers until January 1, 1915 for only 10 cents. Just think of getting a bright, clean home paper four long months for only 10 cents.

You say you don't see how we can afford it? Well, we can't. But we believe that once you try The Journal for a few weeks you will become a regular subscriber. That is our only reason for making this ridiculously low rate.

We are mailing several hundred sample copies this week, and if you get one, it is just a polite invitation to accept our trial offer of ten cents for remaining part of this year.

Stamps or silver will be accepted. Just place a dime or ten cents in stamps in an envelope and mail to The Journal, Pageland, S. C., and we will enter your name and start the paper at once. Do not wait until tomorrow for the earlier you send your name the more papers you get for the dime, and then you might forget it.
