Eat less wheat and meat.

Usually the longer a man talks the less he says.

The new draft rules will get the fellow who is hiding behind a skirt.

Men, like axes, fly off the handle sometimes when they are not wedged.

There is less factionalism in Pageland than any other town in seven states.

A town or community is made up of individuals. What kind would yours be if they were all like you?

The laborer who began at the eleventh hour received as much as any. You will hardly make as much wheat as if you had sown earlier, but better late than never.

Labor has been scarce on the farms this year, but it will in all probability be much scarcer next year. Put your land in wheat and get ready for the scarcity. If you can't sow wheat, sow oats and rye. We can't let the ground lie idle when the whole world is calling for bread.

"I am too old to go, and they wouldn't have me because of my physical condition, but I can give to help those who do go, and I expect to do so as long as I have anything to give," said a prominent citizen of Pageland Sunday. "I can't go but if I've got anything they need they can have it, just so they don't take the last mouthful I've got," continued this patriot. Expressions like this do not come from the lips of slackers and traitors. Only loyal, true-blue citizens talk that way. This man was speaking of the great work and need of the Y. M. C. A., and his desire to do all in his power for the brave young men who are going away to fight for home and country. Oh, that every man were as loyal as this one.

SOW WHEAT, SOW WHEAT, SOW WHEAT

The Government is asking South Carolina to grow enough wheat to supply South Carolina's demands. Mr. Long and his demonstration agents throughout the state are begging the people to sow wheat. The newspapers are giving much space to the subject, and speakers are crying aloud for wheat to be sown. The wheat shortage has been talked until the subject is old, but it is one of such vital importance that it can not be safely ignored. If we fail to provide for ourselves in this trying time, who under Heaven will do it for us? The Government is giving us timely warning. If we go heedlessly along in our extravagance, and like the grasshopper, fail to provide, who can we blame? We could write and write along this line, but we want you to lay down the paper now and go sow wheat. If you haven't the land, rent some. If you can't rent, persuade someone else to sow it. Sow wheat, sow wheat, sow wheat now.

MT. CROGHAN LOCALS

Mt. Croghan, Nov. 19—Mr. Editor, was sorry to hear of your loss by fire several days ago, but I noticed you did not fail to get the Journal to your subscribers. It's hard to down a working man.

It was my pleasure to attend on November 14th the birthday dinner at the home of Mr. Robert Tucker near Mt. Croghan. A table in the yard about 150 feet long was piled high with good things to eat. There were about 150 present, including 5 children, 31 grandchildren, 11 great grandchildren, and one brother. This was Mr. Tucker's 80th birthday. May he have many more.

Mr. Mink, the horse man, left Saturday for Virginia to buy a drove of horses and mules. Before leaving he bought Mr. Jesse Burch's residence, and will move his family here.

Mr. J. O. Taylor was married in Gastonia, N. C. on the 8th. He and his bride left the same day for New York and other points. They returned to Mt. Croghan last Thursday, and are now boarding at the hotel.

Mr. N. T. Rivers returned home Saturday, after spending two weeks as jurymen in Federal court in Columbia.

Mr. Arthur Rivers returned to Wofford college Friday, after spending a week at home because of Grippe.

Mr. Rufus Nicholson was at home from Camp Jackson for a few days last week.

Mrs. Frank Hendrix of Asheville, N. C. has spent a week or two with Mr. Hendrix's mother. Mr. Hendrix came down Saturday for a few days.

I hear that a new mercantile concern will be opened up here about January 1st, with new men and new goods. There is always room for one more.

I think that teachers meetings should be held on Saturdays. There were many children who missed a day of school Friday because of the teacher's meeting at the county seat.

Mr. Carl Hilton recently came in from Hagan, Ga., having been discharged from the army because of bad health.

Misses Nora and Cora Hancock entertained at their country home quite a number of their friends with a musicale Saturday night.

Mr. Arthur Crawley came in Saturday from Camp Sevier at Greenville to visit friends and relatives for a few days. We are always glad to see the boys, if only for two or three days. G.
