OUR EXCHANGES

The Kershaw Era.

It was a very gracious act on the part of the railroads in South Carolina to announce that they will transport Confederate veterans free to and from the State Fair. Sometimes the railroads get accused of being soulless corporations, but occasionally some event transpires in their experience which indicates that they are not altogether soulless and we take pleasure in calling attention thereto in this instance rare character about with unand add a word of commenda- gainliness and cdium, as the burr tion for this fine consideration that protects the fruit .-- Emerson. shown the old Vets. Autumn

Western winds of autumn, sighing

Long and low beneath the trees,

Where the tinted leaves are lying,

Friend of sorrow! bring thy balming

Scarcely rustled by the brees

To the weary sons of strife, ay thy quiet hand of calming

Golden autumn, how I love thee!

With thy low, deep, mellow song,

Lessons thou hast taught me long;

Chanting round, beneath, above me.

essons of the heart's submission,

Solemn chords of soul-contrition

Blending into one deep psalm.

There is autumn time for me,

Merges into melody;

Where its dim, perplexing hist'ry

Bright the blooms of hope supernal

Youth's sweet hours before me sprea

Round my feet their petals shed.

Though life's hollow echoes thunder

Neath God's autumn winds of sorrow

Hope shall find in that glad morrow

A Higher Destiny

We are born for a higher destiny than that of earth; there is a realm where the rainbow never fades, where the stars will be spread before us like islands that slumber on the ocean, and where the beings that pass before us like shadows will stay in our presence forever.- Lytton.

A Neglected Bible

A neglected Bible means a starved and strengthless spirit; a comfortless heart; a barren life; and a grieved Holy Ghost. If the people, who are now perpetually running about to meetings for crumbs of help and comfort, would only stay at home and search their Bibles there would be more happiness in the Church, and more blessing in the world. It is prosaic counsel; but it is true.-F. B. Meyer.

Keeping the Heart

If we are to keep our hearts with all diligence, we must be kept by the power of God and that power is not merely to make division outside the beleagured fortress which may force the beseigers to retreat and give up For a spot where it snugly could their effort, but is to enter in and possess the soul which it wills to defend.
