BIBLE THOUGHTS
For This Week

Bible thoughts memorized will prove a priceless heritage in after years.

IT CAN'T BE DONE.—No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.—Matt. 6:24.

WHAT THE EDITOR SAYS

'Possums and 'taters are ripe. Yum, yum!

Tomorrow is Thanksgiving Day. Christmas next and time moves right on.

If all the brag was taken out of some individuals and some States, there would be nothing left but a pile of nothing.

If Truman H. Newberry who bought a seat in the United States Senate, looks like a picture of him recently published, the wonder is not that he got the Senate, but that the Senate did not quit him long ago.

Ex-governor Sidney J. Catts of Florida has been tried and acquitted of peonage. He is about the third governor or ex to be tried on different charges, but so far no damage done. It is said that where there is much smoke there must be some fire.

The Nationalist of Turkey have run the Sultan Mohammed VI out of Turkey. Now if the allies would do their duty and keep the Nationalist out of Europe it would be well for the future peace of the world. We fear the great powers lack the backbone to do what they really want to do and know what is best to do.

President Harding is considering the packing merger with "an open mind," we are told. If the President would close his mind occasionally he might be able to retain something on it.—Columbia Record.

And why should not the President consider the packing merger with "an open mind." He will more than likely be in the packing business two years hence.

Georges Clemenceau the wartime premier of France and who is known as the "Fiery Tiger," reached America Nov. 18. He has, of course, made speeches. He has told us that Germany is preparing for another war. It may be true. The Germans are none too good to revive the struggle if they thought they might win. The allies unfortunately made peace too soon, possibly leaving in the minds of the Germans that the great war was a draw. But we wonder how much Germany has been encouraged by Turkey's success in overridding the allies will? Then how much of Turkey's success against the Greeks is due to the moral and financial aid she received from France? Then, again, we wonder how much effort the "Tiger" put forth to keep France from aiding Turkey? If Germany has been encouraged to defy the allies because her ally Turkey succeeded in doing so, and France enabled Turkey to succeed, then France has encouraged Germany to do what she has and may do in the way of preparing for another war. If Germany does succeed in bringing on war in the future, France will be in part to blame. She will have to take her medicine.

WHO IS RIGHT?

The supreme court of the state has decided that Governor Harvey was wrong in revoking paroles. Of course this court is the last resort in South Carolina and right or wrong the decision stands until the people, who are the power, say it must stand no longer. It is our honest opinion that notwithstanding the decision of the court, Governor Harvey is right. The supreme court is made up of men who are in the office of government called by men who are not. They err just as other men. They are no more infallible than other men are. Proof of our contentment is the fact that they do not agree among themselves, who is no doubt just as true as the others, dissented, that Governor Harvey exceeded his authority. As proof that the court is wrong, is the fact that the law relative to paroles was made up of men who were just as good as those who have departed the law does not hold good, and further, used by governors without question for many years, ten, most of whom were able men, and if we mistake not, one of these governors now on the bench.

The decision of the supreme court will about do away with the parole system. If so, then for all good may come out of the mistake of the judges, if a change was made by them, for the system has been woefully abused in the past by some of our governors. Criminals are freed because one governor pardoned them conditionally and another governor has no authority to correct the mistakes of several fallible men have put out of his hands the power people gave him.

It is too bad that just as our governors are awaking to the necessity of law enforcement and lessening the evils of crime and paroles, some of our judges should, unilaterally throw obstacles in our way. We know of no governor of the state who has shown more determination, to enforce the law and give the people a good government than the present governor, Wilson G. Blythe. Yet we know of no one of our governors who has had so many obstacles in the way in the length of time. Discouraged but we are glad the governor is keeping up the fight. We will have another man for governor who we believe will correct this and other matters needing correction. They need an honest official in the efforts to serve them.
