As expected, the political trials in Columbia came to an ignominious end on last Thursday. The collapse was rather more sudden than was looked for considering the great pomp and pre-partion that was displayed on the part cf the prosecution. On Thursday morning, Melton and Speer paraded into the Court room loaded, as usual, with books and papers, and it was presumed from this fact that the Fairfield Demorats, whose cases came next, were to be the subjects of a demolishing onslaught. As soon as Judge Bond took his seat, Col. Haskell, counsel for the Democrats asked for time as several sential witnesses for the defence were absent. Melton rose and objected to the delay with considerable vigor. To the complete discomfiture of Melton and Speer, Judge Bond, evidently dis-gusted at the whole affair, said: "I don't think it is worth while to pro ceed with this case or any of these cases. The juries have been locked up for several days with no result. It seems to me that we are making no progress whatever, and I think that the cases should be continued to the next term." Judge Melton demurred at this continuance of all the political cases until the next term. Thus ended the farce for the present, and probably for all time. Melton went out as he came in, having accomplished nothing. Speer hastened back accross the Savannah without a single Democrat scalp to adorn his fame, and the pliant and disappointed Greenbackers scampered back to their various hiding places Speer has evidently found out now that juries in South Carolina, although "packed" as they were in Columbia with such care for his special benefit, are not quite as plastic and unanimous as they are in Northern Georgia where THE Louisville Courier-Journal puts he succeeded recently in convicting a number of Democrats. We hope he the country on notice that it will not goes home a wiser if not a better man. The result of the trials has been, two

The Legislature. Since our last issue the Legislature has done very little. In the Senate the Divoice Bill came up and was killed. This disposes of this question in South Carolina, and we are glad of it.

The most important matter that has been brought up this session in either House, was a bill to amend the present Railroad law. After a long and tedious discussion in the House it was passed by a vote of 50 to 57. The colored members voted solidly for the bill. It is claimed that this measure practically repeals the Railroad law passed last winter. The opponents of the bill claim that it will not pass the Senate, and will therefore be defeated. The House has also passed a bill repealing the Lien Law, to go into effect on the first of January, 1885, but the Senate refused to oncur, so the bill was killed.

WOMAN | HER BEST FRIEND! DR. J. BRADFIELD'S

FEMALE REGULATOR. This famous remedy most happily meet the demand of the age for woman's peculiar and multiform afflictions. It is a remedy for WOMAN ONLY, and for ONE SPECIAL CLAS of her diseases. It is a specific for certain diseased conditions of the womb, and pro-poses to se control the Menstrual Function as to regulate all the derangements and ir-regularities of Woman's MONTHLY SICKNESS. Its proprietor claims for it no other medi-cal property, and to doubt the fact that this medicine does positively possess such con-trolling and regulating powers is simply to discredit the voluntary testimony of thousands of living witnesses who are to-day ex ilting in their restoration to sound health and happiness.

BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR

is strictly a vegetable compound, and is the product of medical science and practical experience directed towards the benefit of SUFFERING WOMAN! It is the studied prescription of a learned physician whose specialty was Woman, and whose fame became enviable and boundless because of his wonderful success in the treatment and cure of female complaints The Regulator is the Grandest Remedy known, and richly deserves its name: WOMAN'S BEST FRIEND, Because it controls a class of functions the various derangements of which cause more ill health than all other causes combined and thus rescues her from a long train of af flictions which sorely embitter her life, and prematurely end her existence!

Oh! what a multitude of living witnesses can testify to its charming effects. Woman take to your confidence this PRECIOUS BOON OF HEALTH! It will relieve you of nearly all the cora-plaints peculiar to your sex! Rely upon it as your safeguard for health, happiness and
