

DOINGS OF SOCIETY

SOCIAL EVENTS OF RECENT INTEREST JOTTED DOWN.

Expressly for The Times and Democrat by Its Special Society Reporter.

The following invitation of national interest have been received in this city: "Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Ryan Tillman request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Marguerite Melona and Mr. Charles Sumner Moore, on the evening of Wednesday, the twenty-sixth of April at half after eight o'clock. The Church of Our Savior, Thenton, South Carolina." Miss Tillman is the oldest daughter of Senator and Mrs. Benj. Tillman, and is well known over the country. Mr. Moore is a prominent Atlantic City attorney and a descendant of Charles Sumner, a drastic anti-slavery statesman. This is truly a union of the North and the South. Mr. and Mrs. Moore will reside in Atlantic City, N. J.

Thursday afternoon Little Will Shecut Sease will celebrate his fourth birthday with an Easter party. Thirty-five invitations have been sent out among the youngest set and an ideal time is awaiting the young guests. Rabbits, chickens and eggs will be in abundance and the Easter scheme of decorations will be carried out in entirety.

Things are looking good for the Dixie Library now. Application has been made for their charter and the first payment has been made on the building. Another payment will be made as soon as the charter is granted and it is hoped that it will not be very long before the entire sum will be paid up. Contributions are coming in. One of special interest has been made lately. Mr. A. M. Huger, of Hendersonville, gave one dollar, and promised to contribute ten dollars for every hundred that is donated to the Library by next fall. Mr. Huger has been visiting at the home of Mrs. Cornelia Davis on Glover Street and promises to return to this city next fall.

Let Us Have Co-operation.

Mr. Editor: I will give a few dots on co-operation as we have had some little experience in this line. We had the chain gang two weeks. The people joined in and hauled on the Woodford road last Saturday. Everything seemed like a frolic. Even the gang sang and worked more lively. Mr. S. B. Knotts treated them to a fish fry and also pork and potatoes. I called the attention of all present to co-operation. We could easily see what could be done if farmers would concentrate their hearts and minds together. Mr. H. Berry and I with quite a number of others went to the camp on Sunday afternoon and held a service with reading the scriptures and prayer. The convicts showed their appreciation and their singing was excellent. I wish very much that many of our readers could have seen this work of co-operation. Men furnished wagons and teams for several days to work in the interest of good roads. Now let us extend this idea of co-operation to all our business. We don't know what we can do till we try. If we don't try we certainly will do nothing. Let us all work heartily on a co-operative basis for our God, for our country, for our Union and for ourselves. J. A. Long, Trinity Union No. 290. March 23, 1911.

Overhauled Escaped Prisoner.

Bill Esau, who made his escape from the jail at St. Matthews last fall and was captured, escaped again on Saturday night when Deputy Sheriff Hill entered the jail to lodge other prisoners. Esau, who had been making good time with a piece of iron secured in some mysterious way, was at the doorway awaiting his chance. Just as Mr. Hill entered Esau took his departure. Mr. Hill immediately lodged his prisoners and went after the fugitive in a wagon, which he appropriated for the chase. Esau, whose wind had been curtailed by confinement, could not distance the mules and was overtaken. He was again persuaded to accompany the officer back to his involuntary abode.

Corner Stone Laying.

Next Wednesday week has been fixed as the day for laying of the cornerstone to the new graded school building now being erected at St. Matthews by the Masons. Grand Master Johnson of Charleston will conduct the Masonic ceremonies of the day. An interesting program has been arranged. The exercises will be held at the school building at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. On the evening of the same day Izlar lodge will hold a special communication.

Election Declared.

The State Election Commissioners for Orangeburg County met on Tuesday and tabulated the votes cast in the election on the 6th instant, for Judge of Probate, and have announced the following results: Andrew C. Dibble, 587; Dr. L. K. Sturkie, 510, and E. B. Friday, 344. Major Dibble was declared elected and will probably arrange to take charge of the office about May 1.

Meeting of Missionary Society.

The district meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Orangeburg District, will be held at Bowman, May 12th, 13th and 14th. Names of delegates should be sent at once to Miss Ethel Evans, Bowman, S. C. All preachers and their wives are cordially invited to meet with us. Mrs. A. S. Jennings, Secretary.

COPE HAPPENINGS.

Gun Accidentally Goes Off.—Married Men to Play Ball Game.

Cope, April 11th.—Special: This morning as Mr. R. C. Carter's pet dog was acting rather strangely, it was decided by several parties, that it was going mad, and same was soon dispatched, by the gun route. While Mr. Edgar Jernigan was getting his hammerless breach loader in readiness to take part in the dog killing, it was accidentally discharged, boring a hole in the store floor, just inside of the window. Mr. Sydney Kittrell, who was standing just outside of the window watching Edgar, sure had a close call, for had the gun been the least bit elevated, he would have received the entire load.

Mr. W. M. Hughes, who was quite sick since Saturday, is out again. Mr. Nelson Burnett, of Pendleton, is here on a visit to his sister, Mrs. S. B. Cope. There is to be a game of base ball at the school house grounds, between the boys and the married men's pine of Cope. The married men are beginning to brush up, as they feel that the youngsters who are in good practice are going to give them a good game. The event is scheduled for Friday afternoon, and is free to all comers.

Dots Around Elloroe.

The Misses Johnson, Parler and Wessinger and Prof. Read spent Saturday in the City by the Sea. They report a very pleasant time. Mr. G. N. Collier spent Sunday and Monday in town. We are glad to see Mr. Evans Keller at home and to know he stood the operation so well. Mr. Archie Harbeson's little boy is improving. Mrs. E. F. Martin is visiting relatives in town. Mrs. A. L. Singletary spent Friday and Saturday in Orangeburg. The many friends of Mr. Geo. Ulmer regret to hear of his illness. Miss Grace Irick of Parlers, S. C., spent the week and with her sister, Mrs. John Harbeson. Miss Lent Ballard returned last week after a pleasant visit to relatives in Florida. We had a much needed rain on Saturday night. It's a wise fellow that was 10 his girl to purchase her new spring hat before entering into matrimony. Mr. Ernest Peary was noted in town Saturday and Sunday. "Ned"

Passing of Another Veteran.

A correspondent writes The Times and Democrat that the many friends and relatives of Mr. Jos. L. Shuler were grieved by his death last Friday evening, April 7, which occurred at the residence of his brother, S. R. Shuler, in the Providence section, where he had made his home for several years. He was laid to rest in the family grave yard nearby, by the side of his wife who preceded him about nine years ago. Rev. J. J. Stevenson conducted the funeral services, a large crowd of friends and loved ones were present at the last sad rites. He leaves two brothers, S. R. and Abram Shuler, and two sisters, Mrs. S. E. Shuler and Mrs. M. A. Dantzier, besides a host of relatives to mourn his loss. He was in his 66th year.

Harness Dressing.

A horseman in "Farm, Stock and Home" says he has found the following preparation very satisfactory for use as a harness dressing: First, clean and wash them in warm water. When dry, apply the following dressing: By warming it first it can be more easily applied: Neat's foot oil, one gallon; bayberry tallow, three pounds; beeswax, two pounds. Put the above in a pan over a moderate fire. When thoroughly dissolved add castor oil—two quarts. While on the fire stir in two ounces lamp black. Mix well. Strain through fine cloth. Keep in tin cans. Harness should be cleaned.

Bryan Will Come.

Manager O'Dowd, of the Academy of Music, announces with much regret the failure of the plan to hold here in the summer a Chautauqua; but what will be of great interest to the people of this community is the further announcement that William Jennings Bryan, the "Great Commoner," has been secured for one of his interesting lectures some time in June, perhaps the first week. In order to get this renowned orator and lecturer here, a large guarantee was necessary, but it is more than likely that this will be met, as hundreds will wish to hear him.

NEWS FROM FOUR HOLES.

The Passing Away of Mrs. Frank L. Ulmer.—Other News.

Whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth. Just three weeks and three days ago the beloved daughter, Mrs. Minnie F. Burke, was called by her Saviour to himself, and now the faithful and beloved wife of Mr. Frank L. Ulmer, Mrs. Elizabeth Ulmer, after an illness of only four or five days, was called to the better land to join her ones gone before, and to await the coming of those she left behind. She leaves a husband, two sons and two daughters, and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss. She died as she had lived, a consistent member of the Four Holes Baptist church. The family have the sympathy of the entire community.

Mr. Fred H. Gramling is still improving at his home. Mr. M. W. Gramling, Mr. H. J. Dantzier and families were visiting at the home of their father, Mr. Fred H. Gramling, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gramling and baby were visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Riley on Sunday.

Miss Reana Bozard is spending a while at the home of Mrs. Bertha Gramling.

Your scribe attended the play at the Fair school near Mr. J. W. Moorcer's Saturday night. Can say it was a treat to all who heard it. Quite a neat little sum was taken at the door.

Master John Lawrence Gramling, Mr. Add Austin, and Brother Milledge and Miss Pearl Bair attended the play at the Fair school also and all enjoyed it.

We had quite a nice rain on Tuesday night. Mr. D. W. Champy, who has been sick at his home, is some better. We hope to see him out soon.

Card From Maj. Dibble.

Mr. Editor: I ask the privilege of the columns of your paper to most heartily express my gratitude to the many kind friends who stood by me in my campaign for Probate Judge of Orangeburg County, and who by their support brought to me success. That I did not have the pleasure of moving more freely among the people, as it was expected that I should do is a source of genuine regret to me; but as I held a public office in Orangeburg city, which called for almost constant demands, I felt that I should not seek the advantages of my own personal aims at the expense of the public interests under my care. I did, however, as opportunity offered, make brief visits to several sections of the county and was always kindly received by the people, and was specially gratified to find that those who knew me best when I served as Master some years ago were almost universally glad to give my candidacy their support.

I shall enter upon the work to which I have been called by the vote of the people with a kindly feeling for everyone, whether or not they supported me in the campaign just closed, and with a sincere desire to mete out justice in all cases coming before me, and to discharge all the duties imposed upon me by law in such a way as will command the confidence and esteem of all classes of our people.

I thank you, Mr. Editor, for enabling me to place these expressions before the people.

Andrew C. Dibble.

Fell in Open Well.

Mr. A. R. Byrd, a prosperous farmer who lives near Branchville, came very near losing a fine horse Tuesday morning, when the animal fell into a twelve-foot well in the field, where he was ploughing. The horse stepped close to the open well when a large part of the ground around it caved in and the animal was precipitated to the bottom. As it fell it rested on its haunches with its head up so that the water contained therein did not get into the nostrils. Mr. Byrd hurriedly came to town, got some hands and rope, went back, dug out a trench and with the rope succeeded in taking the horse from the well. It came out not much the worse from the experience as no bones were broken and only a few scratches had been suffered.

Ball Game at Branchville.

Orangeburg College and Branchville base ball teams crossed bats at Branchville Tuesday afternoon, and although Branchville has the reputation of having one of the very best ball teams in this section the game resulted in a victory for the College boys. This is the ninth game the boys have played this season, and as yet, they have not lost a single game. The features of the game were the fine pitching of Shuler for Orangeburg, and two double plays gotten off by Branchville. Score: Branchville 2; Orangeburg 3; Hits, Branchville, 4; Orangeburg 10; Errors, Branchville 3; Orangeburg 2; Batteries: Branchville, Dukes and Williams; Orangeburg, Shuler and Griffin; Struck out: by Shuler 13; by Dukes, 4.

Southern Educational Conference.

On account of the Southern Educational Conference, Jacksonville, Fla., April 19th to 21st, 1911, the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company has authorized special low rates April 17th and 18th, with final limit tickets to reach original starting point not later than midnight of April 30th. For rates and information apply to nearest agent, or to T. C. White, General Passenger Agent, Wilmington, N. C.

Found the Body.

The body of Francis Goldbach, professor in Latin, Greek and English classics at Georgetown University, who was drowned on the Potomac river at Washington, D. C., when his canoe capsized was recovered early Wednesday morning.

TO BOOST THE SOUTH.

Another Man Appointed by the Southern Railway.

As a further step in the direction of aiding in the development of the territory along the lines of the Southern Railway System, Mr. M. V. Richards, Land and Industrial Agent, announces the appointment of Mr. W. C. Olds, as Traveling Industrial Agent of that system, with headquarters at Washington, D. C.

Mr. Olds is a man of large experience in manufacturing in the United States and foreign countries, and is to work for the establishment of industrial plants along the lines of the Southern Railway System. He is to give special attention to getting into touch with manufacturers in other parts of the country who are seeking new locations. He is to place before them information as to the natural resources of the South, as to sources of supplies for their raw materials, facilities for obtaining coal or utilizing hydro-electric power, market opportunities, the character of labor available, and all other facts relative to the advantages of manufacturing sites along the lines of the system.

UNION MEETING

Of the First Division of the Orangeburg Baptist Association.

The union meeting of the First Division of the Orangeburg Baptist Association will meet with the Four Holes Baptist church on Saturday, April 29, 1911, at 10 o'clock a. m.

The following is the program: Devotional exercise. Enrollment of delegates. Introductory sermon by Geo. E. Davis.

Discussion of Church Discipline, by E. H. Graves, Jno. A. Brunson and T. H. Heape. Recess for dinner. Afternoon Session:

Discussion of the custom of our churches in calling their pastors annually by J. R. Fizer, Geo. E. Davis and R. H. Riley.

Discussion of the Laymen's Movement, by J. Hartwell Edwards, Stiles R. Melchamp and D. H. Crosland.

Sunday Morning: Mission sermon by Jno. A. Brunson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Locke Coming.

Music lovers in Orangeburg will be fortunate in hearing Mr. W. G. Locke of Charleston, on the occasion of the coming concert of the Mendelssohn Choral Club. Mr. Locke is well known as a singer of great artistic merit. His voice is one of unusually fine and beautiful quality and this combined with a highly sensitive musical temperament, renders his work most thoroughly enjoyable. Mr. Locke has sung in a number of Oratorios and Cantatas, in which the beauty of his voice has been generally admired. He is particularly happy in the selection of his songs. Mr. Locke will be accompanied by his wife. The New York Symphony Orchestra says, "Too much cannot be said of the magnificent accompaniments of Mrs. W. G. Locke. The strong, vigorous touch, her great facility, her splendid reading and best of all, her intelligent and sympathetic conception has been of wonderful service in the study of this unusually difficult composition." The success of the concert seems to be an assured fact.

Rains Have Come.

According to the weather reports all sections of the country have been visited by good showers of rain, and it is expected that with the showers will end the cold spell, which has prevailed for the last few days, and this will be a great boon to the truck crops in this section. The peas and beans in particular have suffered through the cold. Tuesday and Tuesday night rain fell in nearly every section of the country. It extended throughout the Southeastern and Gulf States, the Mississippi Valley and the Northwest. The only sections which were dry Wednesday were a small part of New England and the Southwestern States. The fall was particularly heavy in Alabama and Louisiana and the Gulf States in general.

Easter Services.

At St. Matthews Lutheran church next Friday, April 14, there will be divine services celebrating the festival Good Friday. The service will consist of sermon and public confession preparatory to the Holy Communion. Good Friday service will be at 10 o'clock. On Sunday following (Easter Sunday) the Sunday-school will celebrate the resurrection at 9:30 a. m. At 11 o'clock there will be sermon and confirmation of class of catechumens, followed by the observance of the Lord's Supper. In the afternoon at 3:30 o'clock Mt. Lebanon Sunday-school will celebrate the Easter season with interesting and appropriate service. All are invited to these services.

Feast of the Passover.

Wednesday evening ushered in the Feast of the Passover, one of the Jewish major festivals. It will be imitated and will be observed by the Jewish people, the world over, for the following seven days. Passover, in accordance with the scriptural injunction as set forth in Exodus 12, begins with the eve of the 14th day of the month of Nisan, or Abib, which usually corresponds with April. It is observed in commemoration of the Exodus from Egypt.

Death of a Child.

The thirteen-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Fogle, died at the family home about four miles from this city on Monday. It is hard to give up these little buds, but when they are taken we have the consolation of knowing they are safe in the Saviour's arms.
