THE BROOKLYN TABERNACLE BIBLE STUDIES HEZEKIAH'S GREAT REFORM II Chronicles 30—June 11
Man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart.—I Samuel 16:7.

KING HEZEKIAH of Judah has a wonderful record as a man of God, a reformer, a patriot, yet he was the son of a bad father, who in turn was the son of a good father, who in turn was the son of a bad father. The alternation between good and bad for four generations illustrates the fact that, although heredity has much to do with every member of our race, nevertheless, there are counter-balances in nature.
We are all members of Adam's family, and as such we are all sharers in the general weakness, mental, moral and physical, which for six thousand years has descended upon us. St. Paul refers to this, saying, "By one man's disobedience sin entered into the world, and death as the result of sin; and thus death passed upon all men, because all are sinners. — Romans 5:12.
The downward or sinful tendency labored in our very constitution is so strong that none is able fully to overcome it.
The best that any of us can do is to set our wills in opposition to our inherited weaknesses and to fight courageously against them. The Apostle assures us that if it were possible for humanity to fully gain such a victory over its fallen self as to bring itself back to perfection, then doubtless God would have provided that way of salvation.

Hezekiah the Reformer
The King's father had introduced idolatrous worship—erecting altars and groves to the worship of Baal. God's temple was strewn with rubbish. Under the direction of the King, the Levites began a cleansing work. It required eight days to carry out the rubbish from the court, etc. Then the priests, who alone were authorized to enter into the Holy, or temple proper, were directed to cleanse the temple itself.
But as a preliminary work, before the cleansing of the court or the temple began, the King directed that the priests and the Levites sanctify themselves afresh to the Lord and His service. How appropriate! How in harmony with the words of the Prophet Isaiah, who lived at that time and who was the King's counselor—"Be ye clean, that bear the vessels of the Lord's house!"—Isa. 52:11.
But let us not forget the instruction of St. Peter upon this subject. Comparing the priesthood of Israel with the institutions of the Christian church, St. Peter gives us the thought that the priests of olden times do not find their antitypes in the clergy of today, but in God's saintly or sanctified people, whether in or out of the public ministry.
Thus St. Peter says to all of the consecrated Church of Christ, "Ye are a Royal Priesthood, a Holy Nation, a peculiar people, that ye should show forth the praises of Him who has called you out of darkness into His marvelous light."

The Divine Blessing
The conclusion of the feast was a Divine blessing upon all the people, through the Priests and Levites. So there goes out a Divine blessing from the Lord's sanctified people—from all the consecrated of the household of faith—to the people in general—to their neighbors, their friends and visitors from afar.
Let such be our influence amongst men. In this connection let us remember the power of the tongue, of which the Apostle said, "Therewith praise we God, and therewith curse (or injure) we men." Let our tongues and all our powers be used in blessing the people as well as in praising our God.
The King wisely began his reformation at the temple and gave the priests and Levites the first share therein. It was later that the idols of the city of Jerusalem were gathered and hurled into the valley of Kedron, and it was after the fervor of the Passover occasion that the zeal of the people in general rose high, and they went forth all over the land, destroying the idols, the groves of Baal, and every symbol of disloyalty to God.
And so today: Everywhere the light of our day is showing more and more of the meanness, selfishness, corruption—some of it centuries old, and some of it bred of special privilege and opportunity. The call for reform is heard on every hand, although sometimes but feeble. The proper place for reform is, as in Hezekiah's day, with the sanctification of the priests and the Levites themselves.
If the Church of Christ could but faithfully perform her responsibility, under the direction of the King, it would mean a great revival of religion.

Notice of Appointment of Guardian
The State of South Carolina, County of Orangeburg.
To the Honorable Robert E. Copes, Judge of the First Judicial Circuit, in and for the said State:
The Petition of Lula R. Livingston and Livy Livingston, of the County of Orangeburg, and State aforesaid, respectfully shows:
That your Petitioner, Lula R. Livingston, is the mother of Livy Livingston at the age of sixteen (16) years, Henry B. Livingston of the age of thirteen (13) years, Lula M. Livingston of the age of ten (10) years, Lucy I. Livingston, of the age of eight (8) years, and Rachel M. Livingston, of the age of four (4) years; all of whom reside with their mother, your Petitioner, in the County and State aforesaid, and are children of your Petitioner, Lula R. Livingston, and the late W. M. J. Livingston, now deceased.
That the said minor children, and each of them, is entitled to a sum of money amounting to One Hundred and Twenty-five ($125.00) Dollars, derived from the Masonic Mutual Life Association in which the said W. M. J. Livingston was insured at the time of his death, which occurred on the twenty-fifth day of December, A. D. 1910.
That said Minor Children have no General or Testamentary Guardian, and that no fit, competent or responsible person can be found who is willing to assume said trust.
Wherefore your Petitioners pray that the Probate Judge in and for the County of Orangeburg, be appointed the Guardian of the estates of the said minor children, as provided by law.
(Signed) Lula R. Livingston,
(Signed) Livy Livingston.

The State of South Carolina, County of Orangeburg.
Mrs. Lula R. Livingston, one of the Petitioners above named, being duly sworn, says that the foregoing Petition is true of her own knowledge.
(Signed) Lula R. Livingston.
Sworn to before me this the 11th day of March, A. D. 1911.

SORROW CHASERS.

George O. Baker.

CERTAINLY WOULD.
Wife—This morning's paper tells about a man with 18 wives.
Hubby—Well, he could organize them into two baseball teams and then, if they played games enough, they would be able to support him nicely.

IMPOSSIBLE.
First Chappie—I have had a notion—aw—to drown myself, old chap, doncher know.
Second Chappie—Oh! dear boy, you mustn't! You know how—aw—these beastly flannel suits shwink when wet.

OUTCLASSED.
"I'm afraid you don't appreciate your wife's remarkable intellectuality."
"I know I don't. It makes no difference whether she is explaining the psychic energy of the telepathic wave or telling exactly what happened in a bridge whist game. I go to sleep.

BETWEEN FRIENDS.
Evelyn—How does my new tailor-made costume fit, dear?
Gwendolyn—Absolutely perfect. Why, it fits every angle as if you had been molded in it.

TOO EMINENT.
"Why don't you ask your office boy to wash those windows?"
"I ain't got the nerve to do it, old man. He was the valedictorian of his class."

HER SCORE.
"What did you go around the links in?"
"Wh! just a plain blue skirt and white shirtwaist."

dreads that most dangerous disease, Colic. Be prepared for an emergency by having a bottle of Noah's Colic Remedy on hand. More animals die from Colic than all other non-contagious diseases combined. Nine out of every ten cases would have been cured if Noah's Colic Remedy had been given in time. It isn't a drench or dope, but is a remedy given on the tongue, so simple that a woman or child can give it. If it fails to cure, your money will be refunded. If your dealer cannot supply you send 50c in stamps and we will mail a bottle.
