Congressman John T. Johnson is good senatorial timber, and South Carolina would do the right thing if she was to give him a seat in that body.

The crop outlook in this county at this time is said to be fine. But it is a long way to maturity yet, and our high hopes may be dashed to the ground in a week.

Don't lick a postage stamp if you have anything to matter with your lips or tongue. A young lady clerk in the Fayette City, Pa., postoffice has a serious case of blood poisoning from licking a postage stamp when she had a blister on her lips.

That innocent little paragraph that appeared in the Times and Democrat a short time ago about a Columbia editor training for the congressional race in this district has stirred up quite a discussion in several of the leading daily newspapers.

We were in favor of the people instructing the delegates from this State to the National Democratic Convention in 1898, and we are in favor of the people instructing the delegates again next year.

The Times and Democrat has determined to put on a voting contest this fall with a three hundred dollar piano as the first prize.

The Newberry Observer seems to think that Felder's unpopularity among certain people is the result of his doing "what he was employed to do by the winding-up commission in making a gang of grafters disgorge thousands of dollars and turn it into the State treasury."

While attending the Press Association meeting in Columbia recently we had the pleasure of seeing the machinery of the State in operation.

Gov. Bleasoe says there will be no change in the State Board of Education before the 17th instant.

A dispatch from Washington to The State says it is probable that Representative Johnson of South Carolina will speak on the wool schedule before the debate on that part of the tariff schedule closes this week.

The reactionaries in the Democratic party are tarred with the same stick that the reactionaries in the Republican party are tarred with.

Tote Fair, Mr. Taft. The New York World thinks that "if Mr. Taft were more friendly to the Democratic free list he would find smoother going for reciprocity."

"When a question of justice, courage and good faith presents itself, Congresses are not split by party but by character."

"Democrats who are loyally co-operating with Mr. Taft know that they are likely to increase the prestige of a Republican Administration."

China is Now Awake.

A decade ago all China had only 300 miles of railroad. Today she has 6,000 miles. And 10,000 additional miles have been projected and will soon be under construction.

"But knowledge respecting the extent of the land's riches is vague and measured more by myths than actuality. Once the railroad begins its magic of unfolding, promoters and surveyors will swarm the land."

Timely Warning to Farmers.

The farmers in the hilly country should take what Mr. Parker says about the cotton picker as a warning. As the State says, "if they must readjust themselves to a new agricultural condition, the time for readjustment is now."

Still on the Down Grade.

The special election held a few days ago in the ninth congressional district of Iowa resulted in the reduction of the usual Republican majority and this is interpreted as an indication that the reciprocity agreement is not unpopular with the farmers of the Middle West.

principle in general." We agree with the Record. The grand old party seems to be still on the down grade, and the day of Democratic ascendancy is at hand.

Tribute of Respect.

Just as twilight was gathering and all nature was being hushed to sleep on the evening of June 2, 1911, God sent his angels and bore to the realms of light the spirit of Mrs. Mary Frances Pike, whom we, the Eutaw Chapter D. A. R. were honored to count among our number.

A breach has been made in a happy family circle by the reaper. Death, who, in his gleamings is no respecter of age, person or station.

Therefore, be it resolved: I. That in the death of Mrs. Mary Frances Pike, Eutaw Chapter has sustained a loss which will be long felt, and that as a chapter we mourn her loss.

II. That the heart of each individual member of this chapter goes out in loving sympathy to the members of her bereaved family. May He that doeth all things wisely and well, and who knows each heart and how to comfort, go to the sorrowing sons and daughters, and to that husband, whose heart and home is left so vacant, and bring them the solace they need.

III. That we who are left recognize a Ruler omniscient and omnipotent, who overshadows us with a great love and doth all for the good of those who trust in Him. Therefore, while we mourn our loss, we bow in humble submission to the Divine will and pray that we may each so live that when our summons comes, we too may be crowned with glorious immortality and live with God forever.

IV. That our sympathy be expressed by sending a copy of these resolutions to the bereaved family; that they be published in the county papers, and that a page in our record book be inscribed to the memory of our deceased member. Mrs. Lizzie C. Salley, Mrs. Georgia S. Sims, Mrs. Julia S. Herbert, Committee.

John Wanamaker, whose life has been insured for a million and a half, once said:

From the day an honest man pays the first premium for life insurance, that first receipt of his gives a new impulse, a new light to his eye and a new hope to his heart.

The late Grover Cleveland said: Get a policy and then hold on to it. It means self-respect; it means that nobody will have to put something in a hat for you or your dependent ones.

Dr. Lyman Abbott said: One could easily bear to take his wife and children down with him into poverty so long as he could be with them to help carry the load but to go off to his eternal rest and leave them to go down into poverty and to fight the wolf from the door, what more terrible prospect?

The Rev. T. De Witt Talmage said:

It is a mean thing to go up to heaven while your family go to the poorhouse. When they are out at the elbows the thought of your splendid robe in Heaven will not keep them warm.
