"Everything That a Drug Store Should Have"

This is the compliment that one of our patrons paid us. It is so true of the real method behind our business that we are quoting it.

Primarily this business makes the prescription department the main object of its care. Experts check every prescription and our large files show that our care is not in vain. Every new and worthy drug is immediately bought and placed on our shelves so that we need never say "we are just out of it," but we say, "We have it now."

ALWAYS TROUBLE.
"There goes Swift in his airship. He says he is at home in an airship, yet he is always falling out."
"Well, that's the way he is at home."

SUMMER ENGAGEMENTS.
"When shall we get married?"
"Oh! Fred, why do you take our engagement so seriously?"

FARSIGHTED GIRL.
"Maud isn't going to give her consent to Harold until the fall."
"Why not?"
"She doesn't know just how he'll look in football togs."

A RULING PASSION.
"The thermometer was a hundred at noon yesterday. Today it is down to 82."
"My! Isn't that a bargain?"

SHOCK.
"At the restaurant the other night George asked Miss Wrink how she would like a little wild duck."
"What did she answer?"
"She changed color, and said, 'Oh! this is so sudden!' and fainted."

THE DOCTOR'S LUCK.
"So you're not going abroad this summer?"
"No, you see, we had a lot of sickness in the family, and..."
"I see. When does your doctor call?"

NOISY.
Owl—What are you calling the janitor down for?
Squirrel—I was mistaken. I thought the steam pipes were making that terrible racket we heard, but it seems it was that woodpecker family that has moved in above us.

IN PROGLAND.
Billy Frog—Tell me what kind of flowers and what kind of candy you prefer, for I faint would make a gift to the fairest lily of the swamp?
Daisy Frog—Oh! you foolish boy. Crock-kusses and marshmallows, of course.

WITH A PURPOSE.
Mrs. Buttin—I hate to mention it, but I've seen your husband kissing the cook nearly every day.
Mrs. Subbubs—Isn't it thoughtful of him? He does it every morning, and the poor woman appreciates it so much that we've had her two weeks.

LOSING FLESH.
"Hello, old man! You seem to be getting fatter and fatter."
"On the contrary, I'm losing flesh every day."
"Well, you don't look it."
"But I feel it. I'm learning to shave myself."

FLY IN THE OINTMENT.
Mrs. De Flat—Oh! dear! I wish housecleaning was over.
Mr. De Flat—Why so, dear?
Mrs. De Flat—Because it dirties everything up so.

A NATURAL RESULT.
Uncle Jack—What happened when the army fell into the ambush?
Little Ethel—Why, they were all scratched up.

Record of the Oldest Policy.

The Oldest Policy now on the books of The Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co., No 795, was issued on January 21, 1846, to Joseph L. Winslow (at age 15.) of Portland, Maine, on the Ordinary Life Plan, for $3,500, at an annual premium of $54.60. All dividends have been used to reduce the yearly cost.

Premiums for 66 years have amounted to $3,603.60
Mr. Winslow has received dividends amounting to $2,236.16
Making net outlay for 66 years only $1,367.44

This is, the average yearly cost per thousand has been only $5.92. The cost in 1911 is only $1.37, or $39 per $1000.

The Company would now loan on the policy $3,041.57, although the policy as originally written contained no loan or non-foreiture features.

By the payment this year of the small sum of $1.37 the cash and loan values were increased $45.19.

This is indeed a great record, and one of which no other company can boast. If you are thinking of giving to your wife and children the protection that they need it would be well for you to look into the policy contracts of the Old Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company.

dreads that most dangerous disease, Colic. Be prepared for an emergency by having a bottle of Noah's Colic Remedy on hand. More animals die from Colic than all other non-contagious diseases combined. Nine out of every ten cases would have been cured if Noah's Colic Remedy had been given in time. It isn't a drench or dope, but a remedy given on the tongue, so simple that a woman or child can give it. If it fails to cure, your money will be refunded. If your dealer cannot supply you send 50c in stamps and we will mail a bottle.
