

GREAT BOOK CLEARANCE SALE!

Last year we bought the largest stock of books ever brought to Orangeburg, and now again we are about to receive large shipments. Some of our old stock is yet on hand, and in order to clear our shelves for the new goods, we are going to sell all our books at prices greatly reduced. The sale begins Tuesday. Be on hand as soon as possible to get the desired books before they go. This is absolutely the greatest chance ever given Orangeburg people to get good books at practically cost. All goods sold for cash. Stock up now for your summer reading. They won't last long.

BOOKS FOR BOYS

We have the books that will please the boys. They were not written to teach any great lesson, but simply to tell a story of adventure and courage in a way that appeals to the younger generation. And they were told, too. The popularity of such writers as Henry, Alger, Marryat, Cooper, Optic, etc., all show that boys can appreciate a good story, written in an interesting manner. This is the chance of your life to get these books at low prices. All during the sale we will sell them at 17c and 22c.

Sale starts Tuesday the 18th

Every book in our stock—bibles, copyright fiction, popular novels, down to the 10c paper covered novels at 6c—will be sold at cost. We have an entire fresh supply coming and cannot afford to mix the two stocks. The sale will not last forever—only a limited time during which you will have this opportunity offered you, and at the end of that time all books will be sold at their former prices. All mail orders received during the sale will be attended to at sale prices, plus the postage.

Be on hand early when the sale starts

BOOKS FOR GIRLS

We have a large number of books that were ordered especially to please the girls, which are to be sold at cost. Books by Augusta J. Evans, Southworth, Correlli, Breame, Meade, all going at this reduced price. We call especially attention to this class of books, containing such as St. Elmo, Wormwood, etc. They appeal to every person, and especially to girls. These are only a few of the books that we intend to offer at this reduced price, but we want them all to go, and you can get them at prices below cost.
