NARROW ESCAPE

(Continued from first page.) carried the women for 100 yards against the full force of the hurricane. On one trip they had been blown off the road and into the deep ditch, and it was only with the greatest difficulty they had been able to get back to the house. Yet after a short rest they were out again bringing in more people from threatened houses and carrying reassurance to neighboring cottages.

This is only one of the many cases in which people were saved by heroic efforts, the soldiers from Fort Moultrie having scoured the island in the vicinity of the post all night, and rescued many residents in wrecked houses there.

That the damage on the upper end of the island was greater than at the lower stations, is due only to the methods of construction, the houses at the lower end being older and more substantial. The storm was just as violent in one place as the other, but the more sheltered position and strong buildings kept the houses below the reservation from suffering as much.

The roof of the barrack's piazza was blown off, but beyond this and the overturning of the sentry boxes and outhouses the government property withstood the storm well. In the opinion of many of the Sullivan's Island residents who went through the storm of '93, Sunday's gale was more severe, and did more damage than the one 18 years ago. There is no positive way of telling, but several permanent residents on the island say that this one was the more severe. At any rate everybody who went through Sunday's storm on the island is unanimous in declaring that it was an experience which they are willing not to repeat.

Every Horse Owner

dreads that most dangerous disease, Colic. Be prepared for an emergency by having a bottle of Noah's Colic Remedy on hand. More animals die from Colic than all other non-contagious diseases combined. Nine out of every ten cases would have been cured if Noah's Colic Remedy had been given in time. It isn't a drench or dope, but is a remedy given on the tongue, so simple that a woman or child can give it. If it fails to cure, your money will be refunded. If your dealer cannot supply you send 50c in stamps and we will mail a bottle.

TEXAS WOMAN GETS RESULTS

When the Doctor Failed to Help Mrs. Moncrief, She Helped Herself With Cardui.

Belton, Tex.—In a letter written from this place, Mrs. Ethel Moncrief says: "I suffered with womanly troubles ever since I first entered womanhood. The doctors failed to help, so I began with Cardui. From the first, I could see good results, and I kept on taking it. I was relieved of all my dreadful suffering. Cardui has built up my system, and my friends are all surprised to see the good results I obtained. Cardui is as good a doctor as any woman needs. It can't be beat. I cannot praise Cardui too highly."

For more than half a century, Cardui has been used successfully to prevent unnecessary pains caused by womanly troubles, such as headache, backache, side ache, dragging sensations, etc. It also acts as a general tonic, for the weak, tired, worn-out womanly system. Whether seriously sick, or simply weak and ailing, take Cardui. It helped a million others. It will help you, too.
