by accidents to their machines. Navigation of the air is far from being safe yet.Gov. Blease seems to be sanguine of reelection no matter who opposes him. This may be so but the Governor had better not holler too loud until he gets out of the woods.President Taft says that the wool and cotton schedules are indefensible, yet he attacks the Democrats for attempting to remedy the situation.
After the next election President Taft will be numbered among the has-beens.We have no idea that Senator Tillman will take an active part in next year's campaign against Gov. Blease or any other candidate. The indications are that the Senator will be entirely to Washington without opposition. Therefore, he should be hands off.Gov. Foss of Massachusetts, says the tariff commission on which the president will base his recommendations for revision is nothing more than a body of clerks and absolutely without power. It is not for the Democrats to attack President Taft.
The Republicans will show him up.It is said that Governor Noel of Mississippi will try to prevent James K. Vardaman from taking his seat in the United States senate by claiming that when Vardaman was governor he spent several funds appropriated by the Legislature and has never given a proper accounting for them.Those of us who are qualified to vote in the municipal election next Tuesday should study the candidates who have announced themselves, and try and pick out those who will best serve the city as Mayor and Aldermen.
Vote for the best man, regardless of likes and dislikes.Food riots throughout northern France reached their most serious stage when troops arrived on the scene and were attacked by mobs of frenzied men and women. Whole families are literally starving to death in the departments of Nord and Aisne and throughout other districts as a result of the high prices.That it would be far better to send 5,000 childless wives out of this country and bring in an equal number of old-fashioned wives, was the statement made at the Winona, N. Y., Bible conference by the Rev. George Stuart, of Cleveland, Tenn. "Women and lap dogs do not make a country; it takes fathers, mothers, and children," said Dr. Stuart.United States Senator Lorimer became an issue again in the Grand Army of the Republic when he spoke in Illinois before the Marion county soldiers reunion, and as a result the veterans are split into factions for and against him. The senator called down particular ire when he denounced the recall and declared that he stood for the "old methods."Governor Foss, of Massachusetts, accuses President Taft of inconsistency and dangerous conservatism. "In order to be effective progressive Republicans must come into the Democratic ranks," said the governor.
"The speeches of President Taft and Senator Lodge on the tariff at the Essex county Republican outing only serve to widen the breach in the Republican party."If what the Georgetown Times says about Charleston is true the old city must be in a bad fix politically.
Our contemporary says "The News and Courier seems to be making a desperate fight for clean politics in Charleston; but we are afraid the hums have that town about cinched.
The blind tigers and criminal element have been given too much latitude by Mayor Rhett in the past."Congressman Underwood places the responsibility for the failure of this congress to enact tariff reform measures upon the President. That is exactly where it belongs, and unless public sentiment changes before the election next year Mr. Taft will realize his mistake after the opportunity to save himself from defeat and his party from annihilation at the polls has passed.The Rock Hill Herald says: "up to the present time over 1,300 applications for admission to Winthrop college have been received. Of this number only about 700 can be admitted on account of lack of dormitory room. Here is something for the lawbreakers to ponder over. Thirteen hundred girls seeking education at Winthrop and only room for seven hundred! It is a shame on the State." The Herald must remember that there is a limit to the money raising capacity of even the State.Strong Political Combine.While Senator Tillman has never said so publicly, there seems to be a well developed notion in some quarters that he will fight Blease in the campaign next year. The Sumter Watchman and Southron says it has been wandering what would be the political outcome of Senator Till-man's and Chief Justice Jones' visit to Mr. John G. Richards, of Liberty, and while we have not yet found an answer, the following editorial in the Lancaster News is somewhat illuminating."It is very gratifying to Judge Jones' friends here to know that their distinguished fellow townsman is being urged to enter the gov-ernatorial race, and it is earnestly hoped by them that he will be pre-valled upon to do so."Judge Jones would make an ideal chief executive. His irreproachable private character and spotless public record, his preeminent ability, fine discriminating judgment and universally recognized impartiality in the administration of justice, his wide knowledge of men and affairs, peculiarly and happily fit him for the office of governor of South Carolina."As a candidate for the office, Judge Jones would be irresistible. He has no superior in the State as a stump speaker. Ever cool and deliberate, quick and ready in debate, resourceful, firm and courageous, eloquent and forceful in delivery, the judge is a man few if any would care to tackle in public campaign."Commenting on the above the Watchman and Southron says "if Chief Justice Jones should enter the race against Gov. Blease, and if he has the assurance of the support of Senator Tillman, Mr. Richards and their friends, Cole Blease will not serve two terms as governor, all precedents to the contrary notwithstanding.
Chief Justice Jones is a strong man and if the prohibition-local-optinion whiskey abomination is kept out of the campaign and the contest made strictly on the merits of the two men and on their official records Jones will win if any one brought out to defeat Blease can turn the trick."Very Good Idea.Mr. John Wood, secretary of the Spartanburg Board of Trade, has issued a call to about two hundred representative citizens of Spartanburg county together in the rooms of the Board of Trade one Monday for the purpose of organizing a Spartanburg County Board of Trade. Mr.
Wood wants every township in the county to be represented and in the organization each township will have a vice president and a member of the executive committee. In his circular letter to the farmers, asking them to join in the meeting Mr. Wood, among other things, asks the following questions:"Now, we are going to try to do business with this organization. Come to the meeting at the court house on saturday and bring along some of your neighbors. Don't you want to get rid of grade crossings? Don't you want better telephones? Don't you want to keep some of the money at home that is being sent away every year? Don't you want to have the very best agricultural paper to be had? Don't you want to know whether or not you can make more money off of your farm? Don't you want to hear addresses on live subjects by the best men to be had? Don't you want a market for the stuff you can "raise at home? Don't you think the people of Spartanburg county ought to get closer together, and pull together better, and prove that we have the best county on earth? Do you want to sell your land, Do you want to trade? Don't you honestly believe that we could do a thousand things for ourselves if we got together and talked about it without somebody trying to get a job every time we met? We know you do and we can get anything on earth if we "go after it?"The Greenville Daily Piedmont says the idea of the Spartanburg secretary strikes us as being a very good one if it can be put into practice. If a city board of trade can accomplish anything for a city we see no reason why a county one should not accomplish much for a county.
We shall watch with interest the result of Secretary Wood's efforts in his county board of trade scheme.
We are satisfied that its possibilities are great. It would bring the country and the county seat very close together, and they could pull together and help each other in many ways.Southern Railway Helping."To clothe the whole of humanity would require 42,000,000 bales of cotton each year." This statement was made by President Hobbs of the National association of Cotton Manufacturers, at its recent annual meeting in Boston, Mass. Mr. Hobbs said that of the 1,500,000,000 inhabitants of the world only 500,000,000 are only completely clothed, while 750,000,000 are partially clothed and 250,000,000 are practically not clothed at all.As civilization advances, the proportion of the partially clothed and the unclothed will decrease, and this with the increase of population in civilized countries, will call for an increased supply of cotton. The cotton belt of the United States now furnishes fully two-thirds of the world's supply of cotton and still supply of cotton, and, as the demand increases, will be called upon greatly to increase its annual production.It is a clear understanding of this condition that has led the Southern Railway company to organize a Cotton culture department, to work in cooperation with the United States agricultural department and the agricultural authorities of the Southern states, to keep the cotton production of the South abreast of the demand by bringing about the adoption of those cultural methods which will result in larger acreage yield per acre thus increasing the profitableness of cotton growing and leav-ing surplus lands to be devoted to other crops and the growing of live stock.It is clearly more profitable to a farmer to produce fifty bales of cotton on fifty acres than to produce peppery and no income comes up acres, for he will receive the same amount for his cotton and will have fifty acres for other uses. Under ordinary circumstances, every increase in the average yield of cotton per acre reduces the cost of production per pound and yields the farmer a larger margin of profit between the cost of growing his crop and the selling price.CLASSIFIED COLUMNOne-half Cent a Word
