THOUGHT HER DEATH NEAR

What a Lady in Valley Fork Discovered in Regard to Cardui.

Valley Fork, W. Va.—"I was so weak," writes Mrs. W. A. Thomas, of Valley Fork, "that I could hardly get around in the house. I used Cardui, and now I feel better, and my friends say I look better, than I have for a long time. I thought I would die, but Cardui brought me around all right. Cardui saved my life, and I do not want to be without it." The strength-giving properties of this purely vegetable, tonic remedy, for women, are not the result of powerful drugging, but of gentle, natural building action, on the womanly organs. As a general tonic for women, to improve the appetite and build up the system, Cardui is in a class by itself. As a quick relief from all forms of womanly trouble, no medicine is so good as Cardui, the woman's tonic. Try it today. Sold at all drug stores.

Down Goes the Price. The rush of cotton on the market has forced down the price below ten cents, and unless the cotton is held off the market the price will go to seven cents in a few weeks. Since the market first opened cotton has fallen off in price about twelve dollars per bale, and unless the receipts fall off the end is not yet. The matter of price is entirely in the hands of the farmers.

Appeal in Chestnut Case. Solicitor Hildebrand has been notified by the attorneys of R. Chestnut, who was convicted of manslaughter at the last term of Court, and sentenced to fifteen years' imprisonment for the killing of W. R. Sabin, that an appeal will be taken from the judgment in the case. The defendant is allowed thirty days in which to perfect his appeal, and the case will be passed upon by the Supreme Court in December. Grounds of appeal are not disclosed in the notice.

College Boys and Girls. Cotton Fire at Blackville. The freight depot of the Southern Railway at Blackville was destroyed by fire last Friday night. In addition to the depot several box cars were burned and with them nearly three hundred bales of cotton and other goods. The citizens of Blackville responded to the alarm and saved about twenty-five bales of cotton, but the rest went up in smoke with the other contents of the depot.

Every Horse Owner dreads that most dangerous disease, Colic. Be prepared for an emergency by having a bottle of Noah's Colic Remedy on hand. More animals die from Colic than all other non-contagious diseases combined. Nine out of every ten cases would have been cured if Noah's Colic Remedy had been given in time. It isn't a drench or dope, but is a remedy given on the tongue, so simple that a woman or child can give it. If it fails to cure, your money will be refunded. If your dealer cannot supply you send 50c in stamps and we will mail a bottle. Noah Remedy Co., Inc., Richmond, Va.
