ORANGEBURG AT WOFFORD.

Our Boys Take a Full Hand in College Life and Its Duties.

The college correspondent of The News and Courier says: There are quite a number of boys at Wofford from Orangeburg. For several years they have had a large county club. At the first meeting last week Arthur Ayers was elected president; P. D. Felder, Jr., vice president, and T. H. Hodges, secretary and treasurer. Ten new members were added to the roll. After the business meeting, an informal banquet was held. Hugo Sims was toastmaster. William H. Smith responded to a toast given by A. W. Ayers. Welcome addresses were made by several old members and were responded to by E. H. Blackman and J. W. Summers, of the freshman class.

Much interest is shown in the preliminary debates for the Wofford-Davidson debate, to take place in Charlotte on December 5. Last Saturday night representatives from the Preston, Carlisle and Calhoun literary societies spoke. The debate was, "Resolved, that England is more democratic than the United States. A committee of three members of the faculty acted as judges and chose the best four speakers, of whom two will be elected at a joint meeting of the societies for the final debate. The four selected were C. B. Haynes, R. T. Wilson, and H. R. Sims, from Preston Society, and R. L. Cox, from the Carlisle. All are members of the senior class except Mr. Sims who is a junior.

At a meeting of the student body recently the following officers were chosen for this year: President, J. L. Glenn, Jr., of Chester; vice president, J. E. Bethea, of Dillon; and treasurer, T. W. Gage, of Chester.

Uncle Eben.

"Us'n' profanly to a mule," said Uncle Eben, "don' ginerly accomplish much, 'cep' to give de mule a chance to show off his superior dignity."

Bachelors and Hypocrisy.

About the worst hypocrite in the world is an old bachelor who claims that he likes children.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Notice of Discharge and Call For Creditors.

On the 20th of November, 1911, we will file our final account as administrators of the estate of Mary Bozard, and will thereupon ask for our discharge.

All parties holding claim against the estate of the said Mary Bozard will file the same with us, at St. Matthews, R. F. D. No. 3, by November 19th, 1911, or be debarred payment of the same.

Would Be Rid of Undesirables.

Ambassadors from a besieged town were treating with Alexander the Great on the terms of surrender. Alexander ordered that Acuphis, the eldest of the ambassadors, should be the governor of the town, and that he should send immediately as hostages 100 of the best citizens. Acuphis then smilingly observed: "Sire, I could govern better if thou wouldst permit me to send thee 100 of the worst citizens instead of 100 of the best."

Dear Friend:

Mama says you ought to trade at a store that sends your goods home quick. They have two Phones at the PURE FOOD STORE, so Central can't tell you "line's busy" any more. You can always get
