

SHOT HIM DOWN

HENRY CORLEY SHOOTS HENRY COOPER AT SALLEY.

Wounded Man Makes Dying Statement as Physicians Have Little Hope of His Recovery.

An unfortunate difficulty took place in the usually quiet little town in Salley on Friday evening, in which Howell W. Cooper, a prominent young merchant of that town, was shot and probably fatally wounded by Henry H. Corley...

In what is supposed to be his dying testimony, given before Mr. James H. Fanning, attorney and notary public of Springfield, Mr. Fanning having been sent for Saturday morning, Mr. Cooper, who seems to realize that he cannot live, stated that Friday evening he entered the store of Mr. Corley...

Continuing, the wounded man said that somewhere near the water trough Mr. Corley called to him and told him not to follow him, and that he replied that he was not following him...

Mr. Howell Cooper was raised from his infancy by his uncle and aunt, the Rev. and Mrs. Howell W. Cooper, the former of which died several years ago.

Corley states that Friday night Cooper came into his, Corley's store in a drunken condition. He says that Cooper began to curse him in a vile manner and drew his pistol from his manner and threw it on the floor...

BRILLIANT COUNTY WEDDING.

Two Prominent Young People Joined in Holy Wedlock.

At Jericho Methodist Church, near Cameron, at half-past seven o'clock on last Wednesday evening Mr. Boyce Ulmer and Miss Louise Tilley, two prominent young people of that section, were joined in holy wedlock in the presence of a large and fashionable audience...

The church was beautifully decorated, the color scheme being white and green. The bride and groom stood under a beautiful trellis of Southern smilax and white Cherokee roses...

Mrs. Frank Keller, of Creston, the stately dame of honor, in her bridal robe of chiffon marquisette, over white satin, entered alone. The bride was given away by her brother, W. E. Tilley. The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's bridal chorus...

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party and invited guests were driven to the home of the bride's mother, where an elegant reception was held. The guests were received by Mrs. J. J. Gee and Mrs. W. E. Tilley...

What's De Use?

What's de use in allus grumblin Bout de sunshine and de rain, Better hush, and be contented, Wait a minute, I'll explain.

Now suppose de good Lord sent us Only dis, de bright sunshine, Den would dar be any melous Smiling out dar on de vine?

Life is mighty like de weather A little sunshine den some rain, Den a little bit of pleasure, Den a little bit of pain.

Bless de Lord I ain't complaining With piccaninies, and woman true, All de world seems sort of rosy; I can't see so much dats blue.

Got besides, a bale of cotton, Yes perhaps, a bale or two, So I go my way rejoicing; Happy, child, de whole day through.

Pow'ful glad I got my health child My old woman, babies five, Jes' glad to be allowed to stay here; Mighty glad I'm just alive.

Cotton Picker a Success.

The Raleigh Times says the most interesting exhibition we saw at the fair was a cotton picker at work. We had hardly ever expected to see a machine that would do the work so nearly perfectly as this one. The machine gets the cotton, all of it and gets it rapidly...

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

U. S. Marine Band Attraction This Afternoon at 2:30.

In speaking of the U. S. Marine Band which appears here at the Academy of Music this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the Baltimore American says: "Professor William H. Santelmann's work as director is not marred by any of the fantastic mannerism noticeable in so many leaders, yet he by no means fails to put color and imagination into his effect..."

Creator's Band.

An event in the musical world of this city will be the appearance of Sig. Creator and His band at the Academy of Music, Nov. 3rd. If Creator could describe the force which emanates from him when he takes the baton he might be able to answer the question: What is genius? No one can tell what it is, but everyone feels that Creator has it.

SUCCESS ASSURED.

Enormous Crowds Coming to Orangeburg County Big Fair.

It seems that everybody in the County is coming to the big Fair. Considerable interest is being shown throughout the entire county and also in the adjoining counties in the big Fair that is to be held here Nov. 14th to 18th.

Many of the vast throng that will come, expect to spend several days in Orangeburg. It is true that many of these will be entertained at the homes of their friends. Still there will be hundreds of others who will be looking for accommodations.

A bureau of information will be maintained at the office of J. M. Hughes, Secretary of the County Fair, and it is earnestly requested that all those who can furnish rooms or board give a list at once to Mr. Hughes, stating how many people they can accommodate with prices of meals and board.

Young Man Painfully Hurt.

Mr. F. W. Felder, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Funches, near Rowsville, while on his way home from business in Nashville, Tenn., on a bicycle, was struck by an automobile. The bicycle was torn up and Mr. Felder was rendered unconscious.

To the Public.

We wish to correct the impression that is held in some sections to the effect that exhibitors will have to pay for space allotted to them for their exhibits at the County Fair. This is a mistake...

Respectfully, J. M. Hughes, Secty.

Some people say the comet has no tail. As we have not seen it, we can't say.

When completed Orangeburg will have the finest county fair grounds in the State.

Have you seen the comet that is said to be visible each morning in the East?

Elloree means business about that cotton warehouse. She is right. We hope she will soon have it ready for storing cotton.

Rev. H. W. Bays, D. D., preached an excellent sermon Sunday morning on "friendship" at St. Paul's Church.

A gold or plated watch fob picked up near the H. G. Sheridan Graded School can be had by the owner by calling at this office.

Every town in the county ought to follow Elloree in building a cotton warehouse. They are needed wherever cotton is sold, and every town should have one.

Prior to 1826 "all women's shoes were made without heels." Since that time women's shoe heels have steadily increased in height, and in 1911 they are as long as the average man's middle finger.

A Royal Arch Mason's button was found in the pocket of an old pair of pants sold at the rummage sale of the Basket Band and Eutaw Chapter D. A. R., held on Saturday, 21st of October.

As Presiding Elder Smith has got to go, we have heard several say they wish that Rev. Jas. W. Kilgo would be sent here as Presiding Elder. Mr. Kilgo was on this district one year, and has many warm friends all over it who would be glad to see him sent back.

Mrs. Topperwein, who shoots to demonstrate the superior quality of the American Powder Mills "Dead Shot" smokeless powder, is undoubtedly the premier lady shot of the world. Although she took up shooting only a few years ago, she has startled the shooting world and entertained many thousands of people by her great skill with rifle, shotgun and pistol.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Topperwein, the celebrated marksmen, will give an exhibition of expert and fancy shooting here, which everybody ought to see, as no such marvelous shooting has ever been done in this section. It will be a revelation to all of the wonderful possibilities of modern arms and ammunition in the hands of the greatest experts.

Some idea of the unusual character of the exhibition given by the Topperweins will be gained from the following remarks: Adolph Topperwein, the greatest living fancy and flying target shot with a rifle, represents the Winchester Repeating Arms Co., and lives in San Antonio, Texas.
